

Journal of the Chester
Archaeological Society

Volume 74 for 1996–7

Edited by
PETER CARRINGTON
Chester 1999

© Chester Archaeological Society
and contributors 1999

ISBN 0 9507074 7 3
ISSN 0309-359 X

Abbreviations

The abbreviations used in the Journal follow the system laid down in BS 4148: 1985, as recommended by the Council for British Archaeology in Signposts for Archaeological Publication ed 3, 1991, Appendix A

Notes for contributors

The Society welcomes articles about the architecture, archaeology and history of Cheshire. If you are interested in contributing, please contact the Editor at the following address for further guidance on the scope of the Journal and for notes on style and layout:

Chester Archaeology
27 Grosvenor Street
Chester CH1 2DD
Tel: +44 (0)1244 402028
Fax: +44 (0)1244 347522
E-mail: p.carrington@chestercc.gov.uk

Designed and produced for the Society
by Aquarium Graphic Design 01244 398004

Contents

List of illustrations	iv
Obituary – Alex Bruce R Coppack	v
I The Tatton Park Project, Part I: Prehistoric to Sub-Roman N J Higham & T Cane	1
II Viking-Period Chester An Alternative Perspective T Austin	63
III Archbishop Plegmund and the Court of King Alfred 890–923 S Matthews	89
IV A Medieval Building Contract from Storeton, Wirral M J B Hislop	115
Council and Officers for the Year 1995/6	122
Council and Officers for the Year 1996/7	123
Index	124

List of Illustrations

I.1	Tatton Park: location map	vi
I.2	Tatton Park: main features and post-war land use	2
I.3	Tatton Village: site grid and excavation trenches	7
I.4	Tatton Mere: location plan of Mesolithic occupation	9
I.5	Tatton Mere: trench location plan and micro-topography	12
I.6	Tatton Mere: site grid, trench location and distribution of retouched pieces	13
I.7	Tatton Mere: characteristic section	14
I.8	Tatton Mere: density of flint deposition	15
I.9	Tatton Mere: retouched pieces from excavations in 1982 (i)	20
I.10	Tatton Mere: retouched pieces from excavations in 1982 (ii)	21
I.11	Tatton Mere: cores from excavations in 1982	21
I.12	Tatton Mere: retouched pieces from excavations in 1983 (i)	22
I.13	Tatton Mere: retouched pieces from excavations in 1983 and 1985 (ii)	23
I.14	Tatton Mere: representative sample of cores from excavations in 1983 and 1985	24
I.15	Tatton Mere: notional hunting territory of base camp	27
I.16	Tatton Mere: relationship between pit and in situ flint	28
I.17	Tatton Village: unstratified structural evidence	31
I.18	Tatton Village: Neolithic pit	33
I.19	Tatton Village: plan of early prehistoric post holes	33
I.20	Tatton Village: retouched flints	35
I.21	Tatton Mere (1929): perforated stone adze head	38
I.22	Tatton Park dam (TPM): carbon-dated pollen diagram	40
I.23	Tatton Park bog (TPB): carbon-dated pollen diagram	41
I.24	Tatton Park: pollen cores and drift geology	43
I.25	Tatton Park: carbon dating, archaeology and vegetational history 1,000 BC–1,000 AD	44
I.26	Tatton Park: plan of late prehistoric to Dark Age features	46
I.27	Tatton Village: Dark Age pit (38)	47
I.28	Tatton Village: plan of Building C and associated palisades/hedges	51
I.29	Tatton Village: fragment of rotary quern	53
I.30	Tatton Village: fragment of rotary quern	54
I.31	Tatton Mere: Roman glass bead	55
II.1	Viking-period Chester	64
II.2	British and Mercian sites	66
II.3a–b	Aerial photograph of Eccleston	69
II.4a–b	Crosses at Maen Achwyfan and Macclesfield	73
II.5	Viking-period sites	74
IV.1	The Storeton indenture	116
IV.2	The location of Storeton	117
IV.3	Storeton Hall ground plan	118
IV.4	Storeton Hall from the north-west	119
IV.5	Storeton Hall from the south-west	119