

Journal of the Chester
Archaeological Society

Volume 86 for 2016

The Society notes with sorrow the death on 1 March 2017 of its Vice-President, Prof Dai Morgan Evans FSA, Hon MiFA.
An obituary will appear in the next volume of the Journal.

Papers relating to the Architecture, Archaeology and History of the County, City and Neighbourhood of Chester

Edited by PETER CARRINGTON with
Janet Axworthy, Dan Garner and Alan Williams
Chester 2017

© Chester Archaeological Society and contributors 2017

ISSN 0309-359X

Abbreviations

The abbreviations used in this volume follow the system laid down in British Standard 4148 part 2; many of the most relevant abbreviations are listed in Signposts for archaeological publication ed 3. London: Council for British Archaeology, 1991. http://www.archaeologyuk.org/sites/www.britarch.ac.uk/files/node-files/signposts\_archpub\_3rded.pdf

Contributions

The Society welcomes articles about the architecture, archaeology and history of the pre-1974 county of Cheshire and adjoining areas. If you are interested in contributing, please contact the Editorial Subcommittee, email chesterarchaeologicalsociety@gmail.com. For notes on the scope, presentation, content and organisation of contributions, and on house style, see www.chesterarchaeolsoc.org.uk/contributors.html.

Designed and produced for the Society
by aquarium graphic design limited
www.aquariumgd.co.uk

Contents

List of illustrations	iv
List of tables	v
I: Obituaries
1: Gerald Cavendish Grosvenor, 6th Duke of Westminster KG, CB, CVO, OBE, TD, CD, DL Janet Axworthy	1
2: Dr Alistair (Sandy) Campbell JP Janet Axworthy	3
II: Book reviews
1: Rowan Patel The windmills and watermills of Wirral: a historical survey Roy Coppack	5
2: Susan Chambers (editor) Neston: stone age to steam age Peter Carrington	7
III: Hunting for the gatherers and early farmers of Cheshire: an investigation of prehistoric land use in Chapel field, Poulton Kevin Cootes, Ron Cowell and Anne Teather with illustrations by Janet Axworthy	11
IV: South Arclid Quarry, Sandbach, 2009–2014: a Bronze Age burnt mound and other archaeological discoveries Nigel W Jones with contributions by Phillipa Bradley, Lorne Elliott and Fiona Grant	33
V: Æthelfrith and the Battle of Chester Clive Tolley	51
VI: Gamul Terrace and the Viking connection Stephen E Harding	97
VII: A knight's tale: a rare case of inter-personal violence from medieval Norton Priory S Curtis-Summers, Anthea E Boylston and Alan R Ogden	109
VIII: Milton Street, Chester, 2016: sample excavation of a Civil War ditch Leigh Dodd with a contribution by Denise Druce	121
IX: Notes
1: Cheshire National Mapping Programme (NMP) and lidar project: sampling the Peak fringe, Cheshire plain and Mersey valley Ian Hardwick	131
X: Cheshire past in 2014
1: Sites investigated Mark Leah	135
2: Finds reported under the Portable Antiquities Scheme Vanessa Oakden	141
Council and Officers for the Year 2015/16	161

Illustrations

III.1	Location map showing trenches	13
III.2	Shelf overlooking the Pulford Brook	14
III.3.1	Illustrated flints 1–8	20
III.3.2	Illustrated flints 9–18	21
III.4	Stone plaque	24
III.5	Polished stone axe	25
IV.1	Location of South Arclid quarry and plan showing archaeological features and the basin mire	34
IV. 2	Plan of the spread of material associated with the burnt mound	36
IV.3	Section of Pit [14] showing the location of the radiocarbon sample	36
IV.4	Pit [14] showing the depositional sequence	37
IV.5	The excavation of the burnt mound	43
V.1	Topography of the Heronbridge area, as envisaged for the time of the battle of Chester	66
V.2	British and English kingdoms	73
VI.1	Nineteenth-century map showing distribution of parish/township names in Wirral	98
VI.2	Distribution map of place names in -carr and -holm in Wirral	99
VI.3	Distribution map of all field/track names in Wirral containing Scandinavian elements	101
VI.4a	Parts of 1398 rental of Henry de Sutton, Abbot of Chester	102
VI.4b	Entry for Richard Hondesson	102
VI.4c	Entry for Agnes Hondesdoghter and Johanna Hondesdoghter	102
VI.4d	Entry for Mabilla Raynaldesdoghter	102
VI.5	Plan of tenth-century Chester	104
VI.6	St Olave’s Church, Lower Bridge Street, Chester	105
VI.7	Gamul Terrace	105
VII.1	Location of Norton Priory	110
VII.2	Burial SK22	111
VII.3	Plan of burials at Norton Priory	112
VII.4a	Right side view of T1–T8	112
VII.4b	Areas on the body affected by blade trauma	112
VII.5	Enlarged right lateral view of T1–T3	113
VII.6	3-D scan of T1–T8	114
VII.7	Anterior view of the skull showing pagetic thickening of the cranium	116
VII.8	Anterior view of the right scapula showing pagetic thickening and disorganised new bone	116
VIII.1	Location of the site	123
VIII.2	Excavated section across ditch [107]	123
VIII.3	Location of Milton Street and Seller Street sites with possible line of ditch marked	126
VIII.4	Location of Milton Street and Seller Street ditches superimposed on conjectural plan of Civil War defences	128

IX.1	Lidar image showing a potential Roman fortlet enclosure in a meander of the River Dee	132
X.1.1	Portable Roman altar from Nos 51–57 Upper Northgate Street, Chester	137
X.1.2	North wall of the Roman granary at Weaver Street and Commonhall Street, Chester	138
X.1.3	Roman surface at Gorse Stacks, Chester	139
X.2.1	Early Bronze Age flat axe from Agden	143
X.2.2	Late Bronze Age spearhead from Hulme Walfield	144
X.2.3	Early Iron Age sickle from Hulme Walfield	144
X.2.4	Possible Iron Age stud from Lower Withington	145
X.2.5	Copper alloy provincial Greek nummus of Severus Alexander from Chester	145
X.2.6	Roman copper alloy hairpin from Farndon	146
X.2.7	Roman coin hoard from Peover Superior during excavation at the British Museum	147
X.2.8	Roman coin hoard from Peover Superior during excavation at the British Museum	147
X.2.9	Early medieval copper alloy strap end from Foulk Stapleford	148
X.2.10	Early medieval copper alloy cross-staff head mount from Hulme Walfield	149
X.2.11	Early medieval copper alloy stirrup-strap mount from Somerford	149
X.2.12	Medieval lead alloy ampulla from Baddiley	151
X.2.13	Penny of Henry III from Barrow	151
X.2.14	Medieval metal vessel fragment from Neston	152
X.2.15	Medieval copper alloy seal matrix from Swettenham	152
X.2.16	Obverse of Tudor coins in hoard from Buerton	154
X.2.17	Reverse of Tudor coins in hoard from Buerton	154
X.2.18	Wooden sundial found with Tudor coin hoard at Buerton, showing case with lid	155
X.2.19	Wooden sundial found with Tudor coin hoard at Buerton, showing case without lid	155
X.2.20	Lead alloy and iron dress hook from Great Boughton	156
X.2.21	Post-medieval silver toothpick/ear scoop	156

Tables

III.1	Lithic assemblage quantified by type of raw material, trench and no of pieces	15
III.2	Knapping stages quantified by trench and no of pieces	16
III.3	Larger flake and blade debitage quantified by trench and no of pieces	16
III.4	Retouched implements quantified by form, trench and no of pieces	18
IV.1	Palaeoenvironmental analysis of samples from Pit [14]	40
IV.2	Charcoal analysis of the samples from Pit [14]	41
IV.3	Pollen analysis from base of peat Core 2	45
VIII.1	Finds from ditch [107]	124
VIII.2	Palaeoenvironmental assessment results of fill (105) from ditch [107]	125
X.1.1	Fieldwork carried out in Cheshire in 2015/16 quantified by local authority area	135
X.2.1	PAS finds from Cheshire in 2015 quantified by local authority area and period	142
X.2.2	PAS finds from Cheshire in 2015 quantified by local authority area and function	142

