

JAPANESE ARCHAEOLOGY

July 29, 2011 Don Henson Day of Archaeology, Day of Archaeology
2011 Anthropology, Archaeology, education, Japan,online education project

Had a good meeting this morning to thrash out an outline for an online education project based on Japanese archaeology and art. It promises to be very exciting. Lets hope we get the funding. Japanese archaeology is amazing and largely unknown in the west. You want Palaeolithic pottery? Come to Japan!
