

NORFOLK UPDATE

July 26, 2013 David Gurney Buildings, Day of Archaeology 2013 County Archaeologist, Historic Environment Service, Norfolk County Council

Had to take some papers to County Hall in Norwich, so have now relocated to Room 301, an open plan office for the natural environment team where I can hot-desk amongst the arboricultural and woodland officers and technicians. Now reviewing a draft application to the Heritage Lottery Fund by the Norfolk Windmills Trust, to restore Stracey Arms Mill, beside the A47 Acle Straight (between Norwich and Great Yarmouth) more accessible. If you've even been to Great Yarmouth you might well have been past it. It is owned by Norfolk County Council, and we want to get its sails back on and, hopefully, turning.

David Gurney, Historic Environment Manager (County Archaeologist), Norfolk County Council.
