

I SEE DEAD PEOPLE EVERYWHERE!

July 11, 2014 José A. Mármol Day of Archaeology 2014, Medieval, Spain archaeology of death, Cemetery,Excavation, funerary, José A. Mármol, Medieval Archaeology,Spain

Hi everybody!

I would like to show you a nice photo in the excavation of a late-medieval cemetery, at Spain. I saw dead people everywhere...! But was nice, and required to be so careful! We did a visiting day after that, and the people went with a smile in the face. Proud, that's the point. Archaeology, the way.

Greetings, and happy Day of Archaeology!

José A. Mármol
