

XLVI.—A List of the Freeholders of Northumberland, in 1628 and 1638-9. Communicated by John Trotter Brockett, Esq. in a Letter to John Adamson, Esq., Sec.

Albion Place, 1st November, 1830.

DEAR SIR,

I BEG to lay before the Society the copy of a list of Freeholders of Northumberland, in the year 1628, extracted by the Rev. James Raine and myself, from "MSS. Mickleton, No. 9," in Bishop Cosin's Library, at Durham. This highly curious volume, apparently compiled by Sir Thomas Swinburne, of Edlingham Castle, Knt., contains several muniments relating to the office of Sheriff of the county, and concerning the rates and other antiquities, especially for 1628 and 1629, during both of which years Sir Thomas was High Sheriff; also many particulars concerning the Commissions of Array; with letters and original papers connected with the Scottish Rebellion, and the subsequent troubles in the reign of King Charles the First. In a note in Brand's History of Newcastle, vol. ii. p. 454, mention is made of Sir Thomas Swinburne, as Sheriff for 1628, but it is stated, that "in 1629, none occurs." The fact is, Sir Thomas was Sheriff for 1629, as well as for the year preceding. From an entry in the manuscript, in Mr. Spearman's hand writing, it would seem that Sir Robert Brandling, of Alnwick Abbey, was meant to have succeeded Sir Thomas Swinburne, but that he retired into Scotland to avoid the expense of executing the office.

I have also taken the liberty of sending a copy of another list of Northumberland Freeholders, in 1638-9, during the Sherifalty of William Orde, Esq., extracted from "MSS. Hunter, No. 23," penes Dec. & Cap. Dunelm.

The perusal of these lists affords a melancholy instance of the rapidity with which the human race passes away. It is painful to reflect how few of the male descendants of the persons whose names are here recorded are now seated on the estates of the original possessors. Many families, no doubt, cease to exist by the natural course of events; but the civil wars of the seventeenth century and the rebellions in 1715 and 1745 have largely contributed to this remarkable extinction.

It may be proper to notice, that it has been thought desirable in these extracts to preserve the orthography of the original MSS.

I am, dear SIR,

Yours faithfully,

JOHN TROTTER BROCKETT.
