

No. VII.—Contents of the Chartulary of Hulne Abbey, in the Parish of Alnwick, founded by Wm. de Vescy, A. D. 1240, 24 Henry III.—Communicated by WILLIAM DICKSON, Esq., of Alnwick.

THE original Chartulary of the Carmelite Friars of Hulne Abbey, written upon vellum, was with other Chartularies in the possession of Lord William Howard, at Naworth Castle, in 1638, and is now in the Harleian collection in the British Museum, No. 3897. It is too long for insertion here; but the following table of contents contains an accurate note of what may be found in this ancient muniment.

The Patent Roll of 4 Ed. II. m. 2, contains a full confirmation of the lands and liberties of the Carmelite Friars in Alnwyk of the gifts of John de Vescy and others.
