

INDEX.

A.

Adams, George, 247
 Adamson, H. A., presented Corinthian capital and base, xiv; on Tyne-mouth castle after the dissolution of the monastery, 61
Aesica, exploration of Roman camp of, ix; discovery of west gateway of, ix
 Agricola carried Roman arms into recesses of Caledonia, 84; life of, by Tacitus, 84; extracts from, 104
 Aisled halls, rarest feature to be met with in whole range of domestic architecture, 119; some Saxon houses built on this principle, 130
 Akenside family, the, 251
 'Alclit II.,' = the two Aucklands, 113
 Aldhune, bishop, surrender by, of two Aucklands to Uchtred, earl of Northumberland, 113
 Alnwick castle, hall of, 118; Thomas Percy, constable of, 66
 Anderson, sir Francis, 37
 'Angel,' Butcher bank, Newcastle, 247
 'Anker,' a measure for liquids, 245*n*
 Avison, Charles, 37
Annals of the House of Percy, referred to, 28
Antiquities of Canterbury, Somner's, 124
 Antoninus Pius, builder of Wall between Forth and Clyde, 88; life of, said to be by Julius Capitolinus, 95; some say by Spartianus, 95; waged many wars by his lieutenant, Lollius Urbicus, 95; Wall of, in Scotland, of turves, 95
 Aper and Maximus, building of Roman Wall assigned by Cassiodorus to consulates of, 98; mentioned on the 'written rock' on the Gelt, 99
 Arms of see of Durham, change of form of cross on, 197*n*
 Armorer, Francis, 245, 253; Thomas, 29; William, 29
 Armorer's chare, Newcastle, 245; named after Francis Armorer, 245*n*
 Arundell, John, glazier, Bishop Auckland, 185
 Ascalon, Syria, Corinthian capital and base from, presented, xiv

Astley, sir Jacob, 68; and Edgehill, 68
 Athelhampton, manor-house hall of, 118
 Athol chantry, St. Andrew's Church, Newcastle, monuments in, 37, 39; matrix, 49
 Atkinson, Charles, 247
 Aucklands, the two, 113; surrendered by bishop Aldhune, 113; restored to church by king Cnut, 113
 Auckland castle, the chapel of, 113; founder of first manor-house unknown, 113; Symeon first to mention it, 113; no trace of Roman occupation of site, 113; existing buildings described by Hutchinson, Billings, W. S. Gibson, and Boyle, 113; most exhaustive account by Dr. Raine, 113; probably became country seat of bishops at very early date, 114; referred to in Boldon Book, 114; reconstructed by Pudsey, 115; never merited term castle, though called so from time of bishop Sherwood, 115; known till then as manor, 115; in letter from bishop, 'castel or manoir,' 115; earliest designation, 'halha' or hall, 115; work began with hall, 115; largest and most beautiful, 115; converted into chapel by Cosin, 116; kitchens, etc., at lower level than hall, 142; record of bishop Butler, 143*n*; chapel in manor-house, temp. bishop Stichell, 145; a chapel erected by bishop Beck, 145; two chapels, major and minor, spoken of in 1338, 145; one stood above other, 145; used for divine service until time of bishop Morton, 145; spoken of by Dr. Basire and Sir William Brereton, 145; stood on south side of castle, 145; detailed examination, 152; dimensions, etc., of hall, 152; lighting of, 153; bishop Van Mildert executed repairs in, 154; details of north side, 156; difference in style of windows, 157; low side-walls raised that larger windows might be inserted, 157; Beck's windows copied by Cosin's architect, 157; aisle windows of north side,

159; first great alteration of hall to be ascribed to Beck not to Hatfield, 160; provided with parapets, 160; shingles or boards for, 160; roll of Roger de Tikhill, 161; whitewashing of chambers usual, 161 and n., 162, 163; bishop Hatfield's hangings, 163; curtains, temp. bishop Dudley, 164; sacrist sold bed from, to John lord Neville, 164; floor covered with rushes, 164; bishops' chair of state, 165; brazier or reredos, 165; larger than usual, 166; porch, 167; extracts from account roll of cardinal Langley, 167; the laver, 167; true date of building, 171; opinions of Billings, Turner, Raine, etc., 171; details of arcades, 172 et seq.; architectural details, 177; Lambert, marmorarius, designer of columns, 177; arcades, 177; agreement with arches at Darlington, 179; conversion into chapel, 180; the roofs of chapel, 180; agreement for, 180; decoration of, 182; Mr. Bowser's notes, 180; arms of bishop Cosin, 182; evangelistic symbols, 182*n.*; John Baptist van Erself, painter, 183; paint 'brutally scraped off,' 184; contract for glazing of windows, 185; for painting, 186; for carpenter's work, 186; altar plate, etc., at, given by bishop Cosin, 233; schedule of, 187; the organ, 188; the floor, 189; the screen and its makers, 190; the western stall ends, 193; authorship of, 194*n.*; design of coronets from which mitres spring, 196*n.*; aisle stalls and panelling, 201; van Mildert's restoration of, 203; monument of bishop Cosin in, 204; exterior of, 210; the windows, 213; Robert Morley, designer of, 213; doorways, 217; works of bishop Lightfoot, 217; painted glass windows, 218, 238; episcopal shields, 229; choir-stalls, canopy of bishop's stall, etc., 230; bishop Lightfoot's gravestone, 231
Aurelius Victor, 98; extracts from, relating to Roman Wall, 107
Autobiography, Mrs. Fletcher's, referred to, 30*n.*

B.

Babington, Ann, of Newcastle, 252
Balance sheet for 1895, treasurer's, xvii
Bamburgh castle hall, 118
Barnard castle, 118

Barnes, Memoirs of Ambrose, referred to, 76
Barrett-Browning, Mrs., 37
Barrington, bishop, paint 'brutally scraped off' roofs of Auckland castle chapel in time of, 185
Barker, John, 254
Basire, Dr., officiated in double chapel at Auckland, 145; funeral sermon on bishop Cosin, 151
Bates, C. J., on discovery of a turf wall, x; History of Northumberland, x; his Border holds, quoted, 264 et seq.
Battlehall, Leeds, Kent, finest example of a laver at, 168
Bayles, Nicholas, 257
Beck, bishop, erected a new chapel at Auckland, 145; also double, 149
Bede, Historia Ecclesiastica, building of vallum ascribed by, to Severus, 101; extracts from relating to Roman Wall, 108
Bee, John, 255
Bell, Charles Loraine, presented carved 15th century vaulting boss, xv.
Benwell, Blakeney, last prior of Tyne-mouth, retired to, 61
Bergoman, Antonio de, commissioned by Henry VIII. to view state of Tynemouth, 62
Berkeley castle, 118; double chapel at, in use, 149
Berwick, men marched from, to Tyne-mouth, 75
Bewickes, the, of Close house, 253
Blackett, sir William, 37
Blackboy chare, Newcastle, 245
Black Friars, Newcastle, 1
Blakeney, Robert, last prior of Tyne-mouth, 61; retired to his manor house on dissolution, 61
Blue Anchor chare, Newcastle, 242, 245, 261, 266
'Blue Bell,' Grindon chare, Newcastle, 246
Bodiam castle, 118
Bodotria, Clota and [Forth, Clyde and], 85
Boldon Book, Auckland and Durham, referred to in, 114; extracts from, 114*n.*
Bolton castle hall, 118; kitchens, 142*n.*
Bond, Stephen, and Isabella his wife, tombstone of, 42
Border Holds, Bates's, referred to, 28
Borthwick castle, 113*n.*
Boston, hall of St. Mary's guild at, 168
Bothwell, earl of, confined in Tyne-mouth castle, 63

- Bottle chare, Newcastle, or Dark chare, 245
- Bowman, Christopher, 256
- Bowser, Mr., bishop of Durham's agent, 181
- Boyle's Guide to County of Durham, referred to, 158; 'more numerous mistakes could hardly be compressed into the like compass,' 159
- Brancepeth castle hall, 118; church, fittings of choir of, 191
- Brand's Newcastle, quoted, 1; Letters, 246*n*
- Brandlings, the, 37
- Brasse, John and Abraham Smith, of Durham, makers of screen at Auckland castle chapel, 190
- Brazier, the, somewhat larger than common at Auckland castle hall, 166; extract from account rolls of bishop Dudley, 166; other mention of it in days of bishop Tunstall, 166
- Breton, sir William, parliamentary general, visited Tynemouth, 68; speaks of two chapels at Auckland castle, 145
- Brimstone matches, xiii
- Britain, conquest of, in 43, 84.
- Britanniae, De Excidio*, not by Gildas, 100
- Brougham castle, hall of, an aisleless parallelogram, 118
- Browell, Mark, 250
- Browne, Matthew, glazier, Bishop Auckland, 185; sir Valentine, letter to secretary Walsingham, 65
- Buckden palace with its aisled hall, destroyed during Commonwealth, 119, 138
- Burdon, sir Thomas, 257
- Burne, Thomas, miller, gravestone of, 47
- Burnell, bishop, dimensions of his hall at Wells, 119
- Burrell, Francis, 254
- Bury, Richard de, pontificate of, 160
- Butler, bishop, inscription recording work of, in Auckland chapel, 143*n*
- C.
- Caernarvon castle, 118
- Caledonians and Meatae, 89
- Caleto, John de (1248-61) infirmary hall at Peterborough, erected during abbacy of, 127
- Calendar of State Papers*, error in, 69
- Cannons on Newcastle castle top, xiii
- Canterbury cathedral church: tombs of Henry IV. and Johanna de Navarre at, 196*n*; Somner's account of, 124; capitals of choir of, 175; infirmary hall of fourteenth century, 124; replaced earlier building, 124
- Capitolinus, Julius, life of Antoninus Pius, 95; extracts from, relating to Roman Wall, 106
- Caracalla, the fratricide, 92
- Cardiff castle, 118
- 'Carnabie, Raiph,' 254; Jane, wife of, 254
- Cassiodorus, 98; assigns building of Roman Wall to consulate of Aper and Maximus, 98; extract from, relating to Wall, 107
- Castle Campbell, 116*n*
- Castle Leazes, Newcastle, the, 255
- Cecil, sir William; letter of sir Henry Percy to, 64
- Chairs of State, 165, 166
- Chalfield, Great, manor house, Wilts., hall of, 118; porch of, 167
- Chapels, double, 116*n*, 147, 148, 149
- Chares of Newcastle destroyed by the fire of 1854, 241; plan of, 243
- Charles I., entry of, into Newcastle, 67; attended by Laud and others, 67; visit to Tynemouth, 68; surrender of, by the Scots, 70
- Charlton, O. J., on matrix of Athol brass, St. Andrew's church, Newcastle, 49
- Chepstow, kitchens, etc., at lower level than hall, 142 and n
- Chesters (Great), see Aesica
- Chibburn preceptory, 263
- Chichester, cathedral church of, burnt, 207; hospital, infirmary hall, 120
- Chorographia*, additions to Gray's manuscript of, 244
- Clarendon, four evangelists in glass of great hall at, 163*n*; porch of hall, 167
- Clarke, John Graham, 40
- Claudius, conquest of Britain by generals of, in 43, 84; account of, by Tacitus, 84
- Claverings, the, 37
- Clayton, William, merchant, Newcastle, 40
- Clevedon court, Somerset, porch of, 167
- Clifford's fort, 79
- Clodius Albinus, 90
- Closegate, Newcastle, the, 255
- Clota* and Bodotria [Clyde and Forth], 85
- Clyde, Forth and, Antoninus Pius builder of wall between, 88
- Coalman's chare, Newcastle, 245
- Coldmartin, lands at, 27
- Colemanpepper chare, Newcastle, 245
- College halls of universities, 118

Collingwoods, the, 37
 Collingwood, lord, 44; Cuthbert, father of, 44
 Colvin's chare, 242, 245; alias Maryon house lane, 245
 Commodus, a 'cruel and cowardly profligate,' 88; Dion Cassius on, 88; assassination of, 89.
 Communion plate, etc., at Auckland castle given by bishop Cosin, inventory of, 187
 Conway castle, 118
 Corney, Miles, 248, 249
Corstopitum (Corbridge), Roman inscribed stone from, presented, xii
 Cosin, bishop of Durham, Smith, biographer of, 145, 151; statement of bishop regarding chapel at Auckland castle quite true, 150; converted Auckland hall into chapel, 116, 180; altar plate, etc., given by him, 233; inventory of, 187; his organ, 188; monument of, 204; funeral sermon on, 151
 Coulson, John, 254
 Council and officers for 1896, xix
Courant, the, John White, founder of, 257
 Coventry, kitchens, etc., at lower level than hall, 142
 Cowdray manor house, hall of, 118
 Craigmillar castle, 116*n*
 Craster, Edmund, 28; George of Craster, 28
 Cromes, the, of Newcastle, 249
 Cromes chare, Newcastle, 245
 Cross on arms of see of Durham, change of form of, 197*n*.
 Crowhurst, Sussex, porch of, 167

D.

Dacre castle, earliest form of laver, 168
 Dark chare, Newcastle, 242, 245, 263
 Darlington church, built by Pudsey, 146
 Darryns, William, and Mathilda, his wife, 27
 Dawson, John, tailor, and Martha, his wife, tombstone of, 44
 Davison, Alexander, 253; sheriff and mayor of Newcastle, 45; knighted, 45; legacies of, to poor, 45; Ann, founded hospital, 45; Thomas, tombstone of, 45
 Deceased members, obituary notices of, 50 et seq.
 De la Mere, Thomas, prior of Tynemouth, 262; abbot of St. Alban's, 262
 Delavals, the, 37
 Delaval, Mr., keeper of Tynemouth castle, 66; Robert, of Cowpen, 29

Dendy, F. W., 'Extracts from the Records of the Merchant Adventurers of Newcastle,' ix; 'On the six Newcastle chares destroyed by the fire of 1854,' 241
 Dibdin's Northern Tour, 247
 Dicam, Thomas, servant of sir Henry Percy, 64
 Diocletian, the second founder of the empire, 93; son of a Dalmatian slave, 93; reign somewhat resembled Napoleon's, 93; and the Historia Augusta, 94
 Dion Cassius, the historian, 88; describes tribes as overpassing the Wall, 88; first clear mention of the Wall, 89; often pleaded as an advocate before Septimius Severus, 91; on advice of Septimius Severus history written, 91
 Ditchburn, East, 27
 Dobsons of Newcastle, the, 252
 Dobson, John, laid out new streets on site of Newcastle destroyed chares, 242
Domestic Architecture, Parker's, 116*n*, 130*n*, 131, 140*n*
 Domestic architecture, aisled halls, rarest features in, 119
 Douglas, Joshua, town clerk of Newcastle, 257
 Dublin castle hall, 154*n*; a king and queen painted over dais, 163*n*
 Dudley, bishop, 164; mitre of, 196*n*
 Dudley, John, lord high admiral, at Tynemouth, 62
 Dugdale, History of St. Paul's, appendix to, 145
 'Dun Cow,' the, Grindon chare, Newcastle, 246
 Dunns, of Newcastle, the, 252
 Durham castle, two halls, 116; built or restored by Pudsey, 141; aisled hall pertaining to hospitium, known as 'gest hall,' 127; account of, in Rites and Monuments, 127; until days of Fox bishops had two great chairs of state, 166
 Durham cathedral church, Galilee chapel, built by Pudsey, 141; stalls and font cover at, 191
 Durham, change of form of arms of cross on arms of see, 197*n*; arms of monastery of, according to Tonge's Visitation, 198*n*
 Dutch war, 75; prisoners plot, 75; lodged in Tynemouth castle, 75; man-of-war, four engagements of 'Pembroke,' with, 75; fleet, attack of, on Sheerness, 76

E.

- Earle, near Wooler, 26; granted to Robert de Hebburn, 26
- Edgehill, battle of, 68
- Edward I. granted town of Pandon to Newcastle, 1; gave licence to crenellate Tynemouth castle, 80
- Edward II. granted licence to crenellate Penshurst place, 154
- Edward VI. granted Tynemouth to Dudley, earl of Warwick, 63
- Elagabalus, 'the effeminate glutton,' 92
- Elizabeth, queen, appoints sir Henry Percy to charge of Tynemouth, 63; letter from, to duke of Norfolk concerning, 63; plan of Tynemouth castle, temp. 77
- Ellington, lands at, 27
- Ellinor chare, Newcastle, 254
- Ellison, Elizabeth, next of kin to sir Benjamin Rawling, 249
- Elmer, Christopher, merchant adventurer, 245
- Elmer's chare, Newcastle, 245
- Eltham palace hall, 118
- Ely, infirmary hall, 115; remains of, most imposing extant, 120; of Norman date, 120; part of arcade, 121; details, 122, 123; Mr. Millers, the historian of the cathedral, called this 'the original Saxon building erected by St. Etheldreda,' 123; John, bishop of, commenced choir, etc., at Fountains, 128
- Embleton, barony of, 26
- Embleton, Denis, 'Ruins of buildings once existing on Quayside, Newcastle,' 258
- England and Wales*, Grose's Antiquities of, quoted, 75
- Epitaphs, St. Andrew's church, Newcastle, 43; of Brudenells at Hougham, 31
- Erringtons of West Denton, the, 252
- Errington's chare, Newcastle, 245
- Eutropius, 98; extract from, relating to Roman Wall, 106
- Evangelistic symbols, 182*n*

F.

- Farnham castle, hall at, 115*n*.
- Fauconberg, lord, letter of, to secretary Nicholas relating to Tynemouth, 74
- Fawsley, manor-house hall of, 118
- Fenwick, sir John, captain of Tynemouth castle, 67; Nicholas, merchant, and Sarah, his wife, tombstone of, 47

- Ferrers, Walkelyn de (1161-1201), Oakham hall, built by, 131
- Fire of 1854, An Account of the Great*, 241
- Fitzherbert, Nicholas, monument of, in Norbury church, 207.
- Fletcher's (Mrs.) Autobiography, 30*n*
- Ford castle hall, 118
- Forster, sir John, orders to, to arrest sir Henry Percy, 64; letter of, to privy council, 64; Nicholas, 29; of Hulne abbey, 28; Thomas, of Adderstone, 29; William, son of, 29
- Forth and Clyde (Clota and Bodotria), Antoninus Pius builder of Wall between, 88
- Foster's Visitation of Northumberland, quoted, 27*n*
- Fountains abbey, remains of hall at, 120; infirmary halls at, 127; both erected by abbot John of Kent, 128; Mr. Gordon Hill's note of, 128
- Fox, bishop, until days of, bishops of Durham had two great chairs of state in Durham castle, 166
- Friar's chare (upper), Newcastle, 255
- Frotheringham, Faith, 250

G.

- Gallienus, 'the clever fool,' 92
- Gallowgate, Newcastle, the town wall in, 109; section of, 112.
- Gelt river, 'written rock' on, mentioning consuls Aper and Maximus, 99.
- Gildas, a native of Wales, 100; book De Excidio Britanniae, not by him, 100; building of Roman Wall in, 100; extracts from relating to Roman Wall, 108
- Glass, painted, Auckland castle chapel, 218; subjects of, 218
- Glastonbury, death of last abbot of, 61; hospital infirmary hall at, 120
- Gloucester cathedral, the laver at, 168; remains of hall, 120; infirmary buildings re-constructed in thirteenth century, 126
- Gofton, Andrew, 255.
- 'Golden Anchor,' the, Grindon chare, Newcastle, 246.
- 'Gor Chayr,' alias 'Rod's Chayr,' Newcastle, 245*n*
- Gower, bishop, built St. David's palace about middle of fourteenth century, 143*n*
- Graham, lieut. John, 40; major, deputy governor of Tynemouth castle, 74.
- Grays of Newcastle, the, 253; George, and son, William, 257; Ralph, of

- Chillingham, 28; William, the historian, 253*n*; his Chorographia, 244
- Grey, Arthur, 28; Ralph, 28
- Green, Nicholas, William Lamb and others, glaziers, Durham, contract to glaze windows of Auckland castle chapel, 185
- Grendon, Walter, prior of hospital of St. John of Jerusalem, 244
- 'Grey Horse,' Quayside, Newcastle, 247; sketch of, in Dibdin's Northern Tour, 247
- Grindon chare, Newcastle, 242, 245, 261, 266; may have been named after Thomas Grindon, 244; Walter Grendon, prior of hospital of St. John, 244; tradition that knights had chapel in, 244; inns in, 246
- Grindon, Thomas, bailiff of Newcastle, 244
- Grose's Antiquities of England and Wales, referred to, 76, 80
- Grosthête constructed Buckden palace, 117; destroyed during Commonwealth, 138
- Guildford, king's hall at, 154; history of Lazarus and Dives and St. Edward, painted on wall, 163*n*
- Guilds, halls of, 118.
- H.
- Haddock, Roger, tombstone of, 40; married Isabel Rea, 40
- Hadrian, his court at York, 86; left name in station of Pons Aelii, 86; a Spaniard, 86; travelled all over world, 86; adorned Athens, 87; the villa of, at Tivoli, 87; blots in closing years, 87; life of, by Aelius Spartianus, 94; building of Wall attributed to, by Spartianus, 95; 'another wall of turf', 95
- Hall, rev. G. Rome, obituary notice of, 57; Reynold, 250
- Halls, aisled, rarest features in domestic architecture, 119
- Halls, infirmary, of great monasteries, 115; of castles, 118
- Hampton court, hall of, 118
- Hamsterley church, floor of beaten earth, 164
- Harang, Patrick, grant by, of a tenement in Stamford, 26
- Harbottle castle hall, 118
- Harding, James, 247
- Hardyng's Chronicle, referred to, 1
- Harmondsworth (Middlesex), tithe barn, 130
- Harrison's chare, Newcastle, 245
- Harrygatt or Harrygald, Richard, 260
- Haslerigg, sir A., blew up double chapel at Auckland, 145 (see also Hesilrige)
- Hatfield, bishop, hangings at Auckland, 163
- Hatfield's hall, Durham, 118
- Hayward's chare, Newcastle, Pallister's chare or, 245
- Hebburn, of Hebburn, the family of, 26; pedigree of, 32; Ann, 28; Arthur, 28; took mortgage on Carlecroft, 28; will of, 28; 'Bell,' 28; Eleanor, 28; Gerard de, 26; James de, and Alice, his wife, 26; John de, 26; Michael, 28; will of, 28; Nicholas, 26; Ralph, 28; the royalist soldier, 29; stationed at Berwick, 29; rated for Hebburn, 29; married daughter of Robert Delaval of Cowpen, 29; pedigree entered, 29; Robert, son of, 29; will and codicil of, 33; his daughter, Mary, married Edward Brudenell, 29; Robert de, 26; inq. p.m., 27; Agnes, widow of, 27; Thomas de, 27; Thomas, owner of Hebburn-hold, 27; a freeholder of Embleton, 28; owner of Hebburn tower, 28; will of, 28
- Hebburn-hold, 27; tower, 28
- Hedley, R. C., obituary notice of the rev. G. Rome Hall, 57
- Hendred (east) manor-house, double chapel at, 149
- Henry III., born in Winchester castle, 138; built hall, 138; liberate rolls of, relating to whitewash and plaster, quoted, 161*n*
- Henry IV. granted to mayor all fines, etc., for reparation of wall, etc., 7; and queen, tombs of, at Canterbury, 196*n*
- Herodian, a Greek historian, 93
- Herons of Chipchase, 249 et seq.; sir Cuthbert of, 250; Cuthbert of Offer-ton, 250
- Heron's close, Hebburn, 53; purchased by Thomas Woodman, a Hexhamshire yeoman, 53
- Herring, Richard, carver, 181
- Hertford, earl of, letter to king, 62
- Hesilrige, sir Arthur, presented with silver basin and ewer, 7; governor of Tynemouth castle, 70; thanked by parliament for recovery of, 71; letter, 71; surrendered Tynemouth castle, 74; excepted from Act of Indemnity, 74; committed to tower, 74 (see also Haslerigg)
- Hills, Mr. Gordon, his description of Fountains abbey, 128

Hilton, sir Thomas, high sheriff of Northumberland, Tynemouth castle demised to, 62

History (Literary) of the Roman Wall, 83

Historia Augusta, the, 94; controversy as to time of composition of, 94*n*; two best editions read Maurum instead of Murum, 97; with these all independent Roman testimony as to builder of Wall ends, 98; assertions of Eutropius and others that Severus, builder of Roman Wall, probably copied from, 98

Historia Ecclesiastica, Bede's, 101

Hodgkin, Thos., 'Obituary Notice of late Prof. Stephens, honorary member', 50; 'The Literary History of the Roman Wall,' 83

Hodgson, rev. John, on Roman Wall, 96

Hodgson, J. Crawford, on the family of Hebburn, 26; 'Obituary Notice of W. Woodman, V.P.', 53

Hodgson, rev. J. F., on the chapel of Auckland castle, 113

Holmes, Sheriton, on the walls of Newcastle, 1; the town wall of Newcastle in Gallowgate, 109

Hornsby's chare, Newcastle, 242

Hospital close, Newcastle, 256

Hougham, Lincolnshire, 30; epitaphs of Brundenells at, 31

Howick hall, architect of, 44

Hugh, St. (1185-1200), bishop of Lincoln commenced palace, 134

Humfrey, Thomas, 254

Hurstmonceux castle, 118

I.

Ilderton, Thomas, 253

Ingo, lands at, 27

Inns of Court, halls of, 118

Inventory of communion plate, etc., at Auckland castle chapel, 187

J.

James, Thomas, of Newcastle, 257; William, 257; Thomas, his son (of Otterburn tower), 257

Jenison, sir Ralph, 37

Jocelin's (bishop) palace at Wells, 154*n*

K.

Kenilworth castle, 118; porch of hall, 167

Kennington, orders to roof, 169

Kent: abbot John of, erected both halls at Fountains, also choir and Nine

Altars, 128; and Sussex, warrant to farmers of excise of, for ale, etc., for Tynemouth castle, 73

Kayser, Hendrick de, of Bishop Auckland, 189

Kidwelly castle, Caermarthen, temp. Edward I., 142*n*

Kerkmerrington churchyard, brass pipe stopper from, presented, xiv

L.

Lamb, Wm., Nicholas Green, and others, glaziers, Durham, contract with to glaze windows of Auckland chapel, 185

Lambert, marmorarius, bishop's tenant, the artificer of columns at Auckland castle, 177; general, arrival of, at Newcastle, 73; soldiers at Tynemouth agree to support, 73

Lambeth palace hall, 118

Lambton, John, of Houghton-le-spring, and Phillis, his wife, 256

Langlands, John, goldsmith, tombstone of, 46

Langley, Cardinal, account roll of, 167
Lawson, George, 260; Robert, 254; William, 27

Lazarus and Dives, history of, in glass window, 163*n*

Ledger, Robert, 254

Lee, sir Richard, one of commission from king to view state of Tynemouth, 62

Leith, letter of sir Henry Percy, from camp at, 63

Leland, Itinerary, 2

Leven, Alexander, earl of, 69

'Leven's colyery,' 256

Liberton, 116*n*

Lightfoot, bishop, works of, at Auckland castle chapel, 217; painted glass, etc., 218; gravestone of, 231

Lilburn, colonel Robert, in charge of Tynemouth castle, 71, 73; one of regicides, 73*n*

Lincoln, episcopal palace of, 133; hall of, one of four aisled halls remaining, 119; most ruinous of all, 133; plan of, 134; section east and west, 135; commenced by St. Hugh, bishop, 134; devastated during Civil War, 134; used by bishop Reynolds, as quarry, 134; side windows of, 136; provided with parapets, 160

Linlithgow, parliament hall, 118

Linton, George, of South Shields, a quaker, died, 74

Lollius Urbicus, general under Antoninus Pius, 95

'Low Crane' inn, Quayside, Newcastle, 247
 Ludgershall, history of Lazarus and Dives in window at, 163n
 Lumley castle, early hall at, 116

M.

Makepeace, John, baker and brewer, tombstone of, 42
 Map of world painted on wall of Winchester, 163n
 Marcellus, Ulpius, sent against tribes who broke the Wall, 88
 Marcus Aurelius, 'the philosopher on the throne,' 88
 Marisco, Hereward and Rametta, 26
 Marlborough great hall, 154n
 Marley, Robert, son of sir John, 72; description of, 72
 Marshall, John, 254
 Mary, queen, grants Tynemouth castle to Thomas, earl of Northumberland, 63
 Maryonhouse lane, Calvin's chare, Newcastle, alias, 245
 Matches, brimstone, xiii
 Matfen, Ann, and Jane, her daughter, 256
 Mather, William, 257
 Maximin, 'the barbarian bully,' 92
 Maximus, Aper and, consuls (see Aper and Maximus)
 Mayfield palace hall, 118
 Meatae, Caledonians and, 89; fight in chariots, 89; enjoy robbery, 89; dwell in tents and have women in common, 89; expedition of Septimius Severus, against, 90
 Medway, sailing of Dutch fleet up, 76
 Members, honorary, xx; ordinary, xxi
 Members, deceased, 50 et seq.
Men of Mark, Welford's, 242 et seq.
Merchant Adventurers of Newcastle, the, 249n; extracts from records of, ix
 Metcalf, John, a rebel, 64
 'Meter's arms,' Butcher bank, Newcastle, 247
 Middleham castle, hall at, an aisleless parallelogram, 118
 Midrigg, Peter de, 160
 Milbank, John, 254; [Milbanke], sir Mark, 37
 Mitford, Bartram, 254; John and Robert, 253
 Mitre-coronets at Auckland and Durham, 196n
 Mommsen thinks Dion's reference to Wall is to Antonine Wall, 89
 Monmouth, earl of, captain of Tynemouth castle, 68
 Montford, Simon de, 26
Monthly Chronicle, quoted, 241
 Morley, Robert, designed windows of Auckland castle chapel, 213
 Morton, bishop, of Durham, double chapel at Auckland used for service until days of, 145
 Museum, objects presented to, xii
 Myddletons, the, of Offerton, 251

N.

Nevill, John lord, sacrist sold a bed from Auckland castle to, 164
Newcastle Remembrancer, The, 1
Newcastle, History of, Brand's, quoted, 1
 Newcastle: merchant adventurers of, ix; iron key from Old Mansion house, presented, xiii; large teapot from Old Mansion house, presented, xiv; fire office plate, xiii; oval seal of Newcastle 'Fine Arts Institute,' presented, xiv; Roman name of Pons Aelii, after Hadrian, 86; the walls of, 1; town wall, in Gallowgate, 109; Black Friars, 1; Leland's Itinerary, 2; masonry of Black Gate, 2; town wall, Hanover square, 3; Westgate street, 4; Ever tower, 4; character of masonry, near, 4; Newgate, 5; character of masonry near St. Andrew's church, 5; at Wall Knoll tower, 6; fines, etc., granted by Henry IV. for repair of wall, etc., 7; general scheme of defence of town, 8; towers on wall generally horse-shoe shaped, 9; towers on wall, 17; Close tower, rectangular, 9; White Friars, octangular, 9; Wall Knoll, nearly square, 9; circular bastions, 9; Carliol tower, 10; gates, 10; Close gate, 11; Plummer tower, granted to company of masons, etc., 18; wall near, breached by Scottish army, 12; Roman altars, etc., found on removal of tower, 12; Denton tower, 12; Stank tower, 12; Gunner tower, 13; Pink tower, 13; Heber or Herber tower, 14; plans and sections of, facing page 14; meeting place of company of felt-makers, etc., 14; Morden tower, 14; meeting place of company of plumbers, etc., 14; Andrew tower, 15; Newgate, 16; Monboucher tower, 16; Ficket tower, 17; Pilgrim's gate, 17; Carliol tower, 17; Austin tower, 18; hall of millers, etc., and ropers, 18; Corner tower, 19; Pandon gate, 17; occupied by

- company of barber-surgeons, 19 ; Wall Knoll tower, 19 ; occupied by society of carpenters etc., 19 ; plan, etc., of, 20 ; Sandgate, 20 ; bridge, 20 ; present condition of walls, 21 ; removals for Pandon new roads, 22 ; stone figures from walls, 24 ; remains of monastic buildings, etc., 25 ; monuments in Athol chantry, St. Andrew's church, 37 ; epitaph in St. Andrew's church, Newcastle, 43 ; entry of Charles I. into, 67 ; arrival of general Lambert at, 73 ; castle hall at, a temporary structure, 118 ; chares destroyed by fire of 1854, 241 ; plan of, 243 ; resembled rows at Yarmouth, 241 ; Vestiges of Old, referred to, 241 ; Speed's map of, 241 ; Oliver's, 241 ; new streets on site of chares, 242 ; Mr. Ralph Walters purchased sites of, 242 ; Thomas Grindon, bailiff of, 244 ; Henry Rawling, mayor of, 248 ; Miles Corney, 248 ; Merchant Adventurers, 249*n*. ; Joshua Douglas, town clerk of, 257 ; Robert Sorsbie, mayor of, 257 ; remains of buildings once existing on Quayside, 258 ; great stone house of prior of Tyne-mouth, on Quayside, 258 ; the 'Three Indian Kings,' 259
- Newcastle and Gateshead, Welford's, 258
- Newport, earl of, Tyne-mouth castle delivered to, 68
- Newton-by-the-Sea, 26
- Newton, William, tombstone of, 43 ; architect of assembly rooms, Newcastle, and Howick hall, 44 ; despoiled ancient monuments in St. Nicholas's church, Newcastle, 44
- Nicholson, Ann, 254
- Norbury church, monument of Nicholas Fitzherbert in, 207
- Norfolk, duke of, letter of queen Elizabeth to, concerning Tyne-mouth, 63
- Norham castle hall, 118
- Norham [Norrans'] chare, Newcastle, 245
- Northampton, king's hall at, 154*n* ; design painted on wall, 163*n*
- Northumberland, new County History of, ix ; quoted, 26 et seq.
- Northumberland Visitation, Foster's, quoted, 27 et seq.
- Northumberland, ninth earl of, imprisoned in Tower, 66 ; fined, 67 ; release of, 67 ; death, 67 ; a lover of books, 67 ; Algernon, earl of, letters of, 70 ; Thomas, earl of, Tyne-mouth granted to, by queen Mary, 63 ; Henry, ninth earl, born at Tyne-mouth castle, 63 ; duke of, Dudley earl of Warwick created, 63
- Norwich cathedral, laver at, 168 ; remains of hall at, of Norman date, 120 ; site of refectory, 123 ; probably work of John of Oxford (1175-1200), 124 ; restored in Perpendicular style, 124
- Notitia Utriusque Imperii*, extracts from, 107 ; army list of Roman state, 99 ; second part relates to Britain, 99 ; from this and inscriptions true names of stations per lineam valli recovered, 99
- Nurstead court, hall at, destroyed, 130 and n

O.

- Oakham hall, 115*n* ; one of four aisled halls remaining, 119 ; dimensions, 119*n* ; the smallest absolutely intact, 131 ; sole fragment of castle, 131 ; account of, in Parker's Domestic Architecture and Archaeological Journal, 131 ; said to have been built by Walkelyn de Ferrers, 131 ; principal entrance towards east end of south aisle, 131 ; side windows, 132, 133
- Officers, council and, for 1896, xix
- Ogle, Henry, 29 ; wife Jane, son William, 256 ; William, of Causey park, 256
- Oliver, Margaret, burial place of, 48
- Organ at Auckland castle chapel, 188
- Orosius, extract from, relating to Roman Wall, 107
- Oxford, John of, probably builder of Norwich infirmary hall, 124 ; king's hall at, 154*n*

P.

- Pallister's chare, Newcastle, 242, 245 ; or Hayward's chare, 245 ; inns in, 246
- Pandon, granted to Newcastle by Edward I., 1
- Parker's Domestic Architecture, 116, 130*n*, 131, 140*n*
- Paston, sir John, letter of bishop of Durham to, 115
- 'Pembroke' engaged a Dutch man-of-war, 75
- Penshurst, manor-house hall of, 118 ; provided with parapets, 160 ; licence to crenellate, 154*n* ; porch, 167
- Peppercorn chare, Newcastle, 242, 245

- Percy quarterings, engraving representing, presented, xv
- Percy, sir Alan, grant to, out of lights of Tynemouth, 67; sir Henry, appointed governor of Tynemouth, 63; letter from him from camp at Leith, 63; married his cousin, Catherine, daughter of the last lord Latimer, 63; letter of, to sir W. Cecil, 64; his son, ninth earl of Northumberland, 63; order to sir John Foster to arrest, 64; committed to Tower, 65; Thomas, constable of Alnwick castle, 66
- Percy, Annals of the House of*, referred to, 28
- Pertinax, 'the estimable senator,' raised to the purple, 89; murdered by Pretorian guards, 90
- Peterborough, remains of Norman hall of, 120; infirmary buildings superseded earlier, 126; lie east of cathedral church, 127; erected during abbacy of John de Caletto, 127; columns of quatrefoil section, 127
- Philip, 'the dark Arabian traitor,' 92
- Pipe stopper of brass, with heads of pope and a cardinal, presented, xiv
- Plummer chare, Newcastle, 242
- Pons Aelii* (Newcastle), named after Hadrian, 86
- Porches: of halls, 167; referred to in Liberate and Close Rolls, 167; Penshurst, Kent, etc., 167; St. Andrew's church, 167
- Power, Thomas, deputy governor of Tynemouth castle, 66
- Pre-Conquest cross shaft from Tynemouth, fragment of, presented, xv
- Prudhoe castle hall, 118
- 'Prussian Arms,' the, Pallister chare, Newcastle, 246
- Pudsey, bishop, reconstructed Auckland castle, 115, 141; two halls of Durham castle, Galilee chapel of the cathedral, founded Sherburn hospital, and built Darlington church, 141; seal of, 141
- Pybus, Humphrey, 250
- Q.
- 'Quakers, The sufferings of the,' 74
- R.
- Raby castle, work began with hall, 115; when Auckland hall built, Saxon or Norman hall at, untouched, 116; orders to remove arms from, 73
- Raglan, 118
- Raine's Auckland Castle, 144; statement, 149, 150; account of Auckland castle, the most exhaustive, 113
- Ramsey, William, silversmith, 46
- Ravensworth castle hall, an aisleless parallelogram, 118
- Rawling, pedigree of, 248; sir Benjamin, 248; Henry, grandfather of merchant adventurer and mayor of Newcastle, 248
- Reports (annual), ix; of treasurer, xvi; curators, xii
- Reynolds, bishop of Lincoln, used palace as quarry for cathedral, 134
- Richard II., assignment by, to mayor and bailiffs, 7
- Richmond, duke of, destroyed entrance to Tynemouth castle, 80
- Richmond castle, hall of, an aisleless parallelogram, 118
- Riddell, sir Thomas, 69; in custody, 69; escaped to Berwick, 69; died at Antwerp, 69
- 'Rising Sun,' Quayside, Newcastle, 247
- Rites and Monuments*, extracts from, 127, 140n
- Robinson, John, on monuments in Athol chantry, St. Andrew's church, Newcastle, 37
- Robinson's chare, Newcastle, 245
- Rochester castle, 154n
- Rode's chare, Newcastle, Blew Anchor chare or, 245
- Roman inscribed stone from Corstopitum, xii
- Roman Wall: The Literary History of the,' Hodgkin's, 83; discussions as to real builders of, 83; evidence of inscriptions, 83; authorities, 83; witnesses must be weighed not counted, 83; conquest of Britain in 43, 84; tribes overpassing, 88; first clear mention of, 89; Meatae close to the, 89; Mommsen thought reference to Scotch Wall, 89; all independent testimony as to builder ends, 98; ascribed to Hadrian, 94; to Severus, 96; assertions of Eutropius and others probably all copied from Historia Augusta, 98; assigned by Cassiodorus to consulate of Aper and Maximus, 98; true names of stations between Wallsend and Gilsland, recovered through Notitia and inscriptions, 99; the Historia Augusta and, 97; Gildas and, 100; Bede, 101; extracts from Tacitus, 104; Dion Cassius, 105; Spartianus, 106; Capitolinus, 106; Eutropius, 106; Victor, 107; Orosius, 107; Cassiodorus, 107; Notitia, 107;

Gildas, 108; Bede, 108; building of a vallum ascribed by Bede to Severus, 101; evidence not decisive as to builder, 103; probably Agricola built some of the camps, 103; these camps connected by some kind of rampart by Hadrian, 103; that Severus did something to re-establish the great barrier, also certain, 103; stories ascribing building to Britons, legendary, 103

Roofs of halls, 168

Rookbye, Thomas, of Mortham, 260

Roses on stalls, 199 n

Roskel chare. Newcastle, 244

Rowell, Thomas, 254

Rowmayne, Ralph, tombstone of, 48

Rushes, floors of beaten earth and covered with, 164

Russell's chare, Newcastle, 244

Ruthall, mitre-coronets of, 196 n

Rutherford, William, of Rochester, lands conveyed to, 27

Rutter: tombstone, St. Andrew's church, Newcastle, 39; William, of Newcastle, 256

Ryton, Malin Sorsbie, rector of, 257

S.

St. Albans, Thomas De La Mere, abbot of, 262

St. Catherine, hall at Westminster, now known as chapel of, 120

St. David's palace, built about middle of fourteenth century, 143 n ; hall, 118, 154 n

St. Etheldreda, the infirmary hall at Ely, described by Mr. Millars as original Saxon basilica, erected by, 123

St. Lawrence, chapel dedicated to, 261

St. Maur, sir Thomas de, 26

St. Paul's, Dugdale's History of, 145

Sanderson, James, 256

Scala, John Thomas, one of commission of Henry VIII. to view state of Tynemouth, 62

Scots garrisoned Tynemouth castle, 68; besieged and took fort at South Shields, 68; surrender of Charles I. by, 70

Scott, William, father of lords Eldon and Stowell, 257

Screen at Auckland castle chapel, 190

Selby, sir William, Tynemouth castle delivered to, 67

Sens, William of, choir of Canterbury cathedral erected by, 175

Septimius Severus, one of six greatest names in history of Roman Britain, 90; a 'dry African soldier,' utterly unlike Hadrian, 90; warring against Persians, expedition against Caledonians and Meatae, 90; reached extreme limit of island, 90; died at York in 211, 91; said by Spartian to have made Wall for which named Britannicus, 96; building of a vallum ascribed to, by Bede, 101

Shaftos of Benwell, the, 255

Sheerness, attack of Dutch fleet on, 76

Shepherd, Anthony, 251

Sherborne hospital, infirmary hall at, 120

Sherburn hospital founded by Pudsey, 140

Sheriff Hutton castle, hall of, an aisleless parallelogram, 118

Sherwood, bishop, Auckland castle so-called from time of, 115

Shrewsbury, earl of, report of, on new fortification at Tynemouth, 62

Skippon, major-general, governor of Tynemouth castle, 70

'Slynglay,' county Durham, 28

Smith, biographer of Cosin, tells us sir A. Haslerigg blew up chapels, 145

Smith, Abraham, carpenter, Durham, contract with, for work at chapel, Auckland castle, 186; and John Brasse, makers of screen, 190

Societies exchanging publications, xxix

Somner's Antiquities of Canterbury, 124

Sorsbie, Malin, rector of Ryton, 257; son Robert, mayor of Newcastle, 257

South Shields, fort at, besieged and taken by Scots, 68; George Linton and others, quakers, taken at meeting at, 74

Southwark, hall of bishops of Winchester at, 154 n

Spanish battery, the, 62, 179

Spartianus, Aelius Lampridius, lives of Roman emperors ascribed to, 94; passage in, clearly assigning to Hadrian building of Wall, 95; some say life of Antoninus Pius by, 95; life of Severus ascribed to, 95; extract from, relating to Roman Wall, 106

Staindrop church, tomb of Ralph, first earl of Westmorland, in, 196 n

Stamford, tenement in, 26

Stephens, professor George. F.S.A., etc., obituary notice of, 50; works written by, 52

Stichell, bishop (1271), chapel in manor-house, temp., 145

Stokesay castle, 118

Story, Fergus, of Beanley, 29

Stott, Robert, 254
 Stryvelyn, sir John, 26
 Suetonius, history of emperors to Domitian, 93
 Surtees, Aubone, 40
 Sussex, Kent, etc., warrant to farmers of excise of, for ale, etc., to Tynemouth castle, 73
 Symne, first mention of Auckland manor house, 113

T.

Tacitus, gaps in his account of Britain, 84; son-in-law of Agricola, 84; life of Agricola, 84; not a good military historian, 84
 Taillur, John le, of Berwick, and Matilda, his wife, 26
 Tanaus, the estuary of the, 85
 Thoresby, Ralph, the historian of Leeds, visited Tynemouth castle, 76
 Thornton, Roger de, 13
 'Three Indian Kings,' Quayside, Newcastle, 259
 Tikhill, roll of Roger de, 161
 Tithe barn, Harmondsworth, Middlesex, 130
 Tivoli, Hadrian's villa at, 87
 Tonge's Visitation, 198*n*
 Topping, John, governor of Tynemouth castle, 72, 73; interview of, with Mr. Robert Marley, 72
 Trajan, 'best of princes,' 86
 Twizill, Joshua, tanner, Catherine, his wife, tombstone of, 41
 Tynemouth, fragment of pre-Conquest cross shaft from, presented, xv; priory graveyard, 40; the great stone house of the prior of, on Quayside, Newcastle, 258; Thomas de la Mere, prior of, 262
 *Tynemouth castle and the eve of the Commonwealth,' 71
 Tynemouth castle after the dissolution of the monastery, 61; plan, temp. Elizabeth, 62; monastery, Robert Blakeney, prior of, 61; church of SS. Mary and Oswin, 61; demised to sir Thomas Hilton, viewed by sir Richard Lee and others, 62; John Dudley, lord high admiral, at, 62; report of earl of Shrewsbury, 62; grant of Edward VI. to Dudley, earl of Warwick, 63; granted by Mary to Thomas, earl of Northumberland, 63; sir Henry Percy, appointed to charge of, by queen Elizabeth, 63; castle used as a state prison, 63; James Hepburn, earl of Bothwell, confined in, 63;
 Henry, ninth earl of Northumberland, born at, 63; Mr. Delaval, keeper of, 66; Henry Percy, ninth earl of Northumberland, restored to governorship, 66; Thomas Power, deputy, 66; sir Henry Widdrington ordered to take possession, 66; castle delivered to sir William Selby, 66; George Whitehead, lieutenant of, 67; profits of lights at, 67; sir John Fenwick, captain of, 67; castle ruined, 67; visit of Charles I. to, 68; visited by sir William Brereton, the parliamentary general, 68; earl of Monmouth, captain, 68; delivered to earl of Newport, 68; seized and garrisoned by Scottish, 68; surrender and delivery of, 69; again surrendered in 1644, 69; major-general Skippon, governor under parliament, 70; sir Arthur Hesilrige, governor, 70; order for repair, 71; thanked for recovery of castle, 71; lieutenant-colonel Lilburn, deputy governor, 71; John Topping, governor of, 72; establishment charges, 73; order for arms from Raby castle, 73; colonel Robert Lilburn in charge, 73; order to farmers of excise of Kent and Sussex to supply ale, etc., to, 73; parishioners deprived of use of parish church, 73; petition of parishioners for new church, 73; soldiers at, agree to support general Lambert, 78; surrendered by sir A. Hesilrige, 74; earl of Northumberland, captain, etc., 74; Edward Villiers, governor, 74; major Graham, deputy governor, 74; letter of lord Fauconberg, 74; sir John Marley, ordered to have eye on Tynemouth, 74; engagement near, 75; landsmen marched from Berwick to, 75; alarm at, concerning the Dutch, 76; grant for repairs of castle, 76; Ralph Thoresby visited, 76; colonel Villiers and his son Henry, governors of castle, 76; death of colonel Villiers, and burial in castle, 76; old monastic buildings pulled down, 76; plan of, temp. Elizabeth, 77, 78; late seventeenth century plan, 79; John Campian, a soldier shot for desertion, 79; cost of establishment, 79; French prisoners in, 79; escape of, 79; Dutch and Swiss soldiers quartered at, 79; gateway of, 80; licence to crenellate, 80; drawing of, by Ralph Waters, 80; entrance destroyed by duke of Richmond, 80; list of governors and lieutenant-governors, 81

U.

Uchtred, earl of Northumberland, 2;
Aucklands surrendered to, 113
Ulpus, Marcellus (see Marcellus Ulpus)
Universities, college halls of, 118

V.

Van Ersell, John Baptist, painter of roof of Auckland castle chapel, 183; contract for painting, 186
Van Mildert, bishop, executed repairs in Auckland castle chapel, 154
Vestiges of Old Newcastle and Gateshead, referred to, 241
Villiers, colonel Edward, governor of Tynemouth castle, 74; receipt signed by him, 74; colonel Henry, governor, 76.

W.

Walters, Ralph, purchased sites of chares, Newcastle, 242
Wark castle hall, 118
Warkworth castle, hall of, towards courtyard, single aisle, 118*n*; view of double chapel interior, 143
Warwick castle, 118
Warwick, Dudley earl of, created duke of Northumberland, 63
Waters, Ralph, drawing of Tynemouth monastery, etc., by, 80
Watson, John, 255; Ralph, weaver, tombstone of, 43
Welford's Men of Mark, 242 et seq.; Newcastle and Gateshead, 258
Wells palace hall, 118, 137; provided with parapets, 160; interior arrangements of, completely destroyed, 137*n*; kitchens at, 143*n*; lighting of, 154; bishop Bunnell's hall at, 143*n*; dimensions of, 119*n*
Wemyss, general, governor of Tynemouth and Clifford's fort, death of, 81
Wendout, Robert, lands at Newton, Embleton, and Earle, granted to, 27
Wenham hall (little), Suffolk, the laver at, 168
Westminster hall, 115 and n, 118; dimensions of, 119*n*; remains of Norman date, 120; earliest in date, 120; now known as chapel of St. Catherine, 120

Westmorland, tomb of Ralph, first earl of, at Staindrop, 196*n*

Whitby, the council of, 225*n*

White, John, founder of Courant, 257; Matthew, 250

Whitehead, George, lieutenant of Tynemouth castle, 67

Whitewash and plaster, an entire ignorance of ancient ideas displayed in modern outcry against, 161*n*; Tower of London and many places whitewashed, 161*n*

Widdrington, Ephraim, 28; sir Henry ordered to take possession of Tynemouth castle, 66

Wilkinson, William, 41

Winchester castle, Henry III. born in, 138; hall of, one of four aisled halls remaining, 119; most important of all, built by Henry III., 138; new kitchens, etc., erected in 1234, 138; carried out under Master Elias de Dereham, 139; dimensions of hall, 139; supposed to have been chapel, 139, 140; kitchens, etc., 142*n*; hall provided with parapets, 160; map of world painted on wall, and also figures of St. George and St. Edward, 163*n*; floor of queen's chamber to be plastered and to be paved with flat tile, 165*n*; porch of hall, 167; images for, 167

Wingfield manor, Derbyshire, porch of, 167

Winship, Thomas, tanner, 47

Woodman, William, vice-president, obituary notice of, 53; genealogy of, 54; born at Morpeth, 54; articulated to Anthony Charlton, 55; official posts, 55; tribute of rev. J. Hodgson to, 56; papers by, 57; and Morpeth grammar school suit, 55

Woodstock, 154*n*; King's new chapel at, ordered to be paved, 165*n*; images for porch of hall, 167

Wright, Ralph, fragment of gravestone, 46

X.

Xenodocheium, the, 120, 128

Xiphilinus, 'an ignorant and uncritical Byzantine monk,' 92; abridged Dion, 92

Y.

Yarmouth, Newcastle chares resembled rows at, 241

Yeddington hall, 154*n*

York, guildhall at, 130

Younger, Anthony, gravestone of, 47

ANDREW REID & COMPANY, LIMITED,
NEWCASTLE-UPON-TYNE.

