

INDEX.

A.

- Aberdeen, proclamation at cross of, forbidding transportation of victuals to Scottish army at Newcastle, 104*n*
- Acca and Alchmund, relics of, 259*n*
- Adalhard, abbot, 274
- Adamson, Blythman, brother of Newcastle Trinity house, 282; Charles Henry Ellison, 282*n*; Charles Murray, 282*n*; rev. Cuthbert E., 282*n*; rev. E. H., Newcastle plate belonging to, 73; obituary notice of 281; son of John Adamson, 281; educated at Newcastle grammar school, 282; at University college, Oxford, 282; migrated to Lincoln college, 282; ordained curate of Wallsend, 282; freeman of Newcastle, 282; appointed to Windy Nook, 283; books written by, 283, 287; his marriage, 283; elected member of council of society, 284; Lawrence W., Newcastle plate belonging to, 4, 36, 40, 42, 47, 50, 51, 55, 56, 63, 64, 65, 73, 75 bis, 76 bis, 77, 78 bis, 79 ter, 80, 81; William, 281*n*; colonel, Newcastle plate belonging to 75
- Adolana, 269
- Adulf, bishop of Mayo, 278; consecrated at Corbridge, 279
- Aelbert, archbishop of York, 265; amassed extensive library, 265; called Aethelberht in Saxon Chronicle, 265
- Aelfled, abbess of Whitby, and Oswy's daughter, 269
- Aelfwold, king of Northumbria, 'a pious and just king,' 273; burning of his justiciary Bearn, 273; pall obtained for Eanbald by, 273; murdered at Scythlescester, 273
- Aethelberht, Aelbert so called in Saxon Chronicles, 265
- Africa, Septimius Severus, a native of, 291
- Aidan, refoundation of Northumbrian church by, 264
- Akenhead, R., jun., 57
- Albert, abbot of Ripon, 279
- Alchred, king of Northumbria, sent embassy to Charles, king of France, 273; wrote to bishop Lul, 273; driven into exile, 273
- Alcuin's epistles, 260; letters of, 261 et seq.; congratulating Ethelbald and Friduin, 261; concerning Danish attack, 262; to Etheldryth, 272; sent to Rome to ask for pall for Eanbald, 273; returned to France, 274; pompous letters to king Ethelred, 274; sends his condolences to Etheldryth, urges Ethelburga to press Ethelfled to enter monastic life, etc., 276
- Alder, George, warden of Newcastle cordwainers' company, 46
- Aldfrid, death of, 270; Osred succeeded, 270
- Aldhelm, 267
- Alfrich, 'high reeve,' 279
- Allen, Phineas, 241
- Allgood, Miss, Newcastle plate belonging to, 4, 41, 44, 49, 54, 58, 59, 65, 67, 68, 76 bis; general, Newcastle plate belonging to, 59; rev. James, Newcastle, plate belonging to, 40, 47, 57, 73; Lancelot and another, donor of alms dish to Eglington church, 27
- Aln, bridge across, destroyed by royalists, 155
- Alnwick, 'a poor contemptible village,' 100; Matthew Forster, alderman of, 37; Charles I. left Newcastle for abbey of, 101; royal army under Glemham at, 154, 155; evacuation of, 155; bridge across Aln at, destroyed, 155
- Alnwick guilds, Newcastle plate belonging to, 37, 43, 50, 57
- Alphabets, letters of, on Newcastle silver plate, 5
- Alvey [Alvay], Arthur, complaint concerning his ballast quay on Tyne, 86 and n; Mr. 'Geilderd,' vicar of Newcastle, 223 and n; 'outed' from the vicarage of Newcastle, 249 n

Anderson place, Newcastle, residence of Charles I., 1646-7, 111

Anderson, sir Francis, collieries of, declared to be forfeited, 255; sir Henry, election of burges for Newcastle in place of, 251; Robert, 88<sup>n</sup>

Andrews, Robert, bequest of communion plate to Hexham church, 29

Anglo-Saxon Chronicle, the, 259; churchmen, foreign correspondence of, overlooked by local historians, 260

'Antilope,' despatched on a cruise along north-east coast, 148

Antiquary, An Amateur, Forster's, xi

Archbald, William, 202

Argyle, arrival of, in Newcastle, 121

Armorer, Cuthbert, 297

Armstrong, James, 202

Armyne, sir William, freedom of Newcastle conferred on, 252; and other English commissioners letter to Vane respecting Newcastle after its surrender, 248

Arundel, earl of, accompanied Charles I. on his visit to Newcastle, 84

Ashburnham, Jack, a follower of Charles I., accepted invitation to dine with sir Henry Gibb at Jarrow, 115; enquiry concerning escape from Newcastle, 115

Askew-Robertson, Watson, Newcastle plate belonging to, 4, 65

Aspatria church, Cumberland, Newcastle plate belonging to, 9

Assay, right of, provincial offices deprived of, 1; Newcastle date letters, 4

Astley, sir Jacob, despatches from Newcastle, 96

'Atalanta,' gift of coffee pot by owners of, 74

Atherton, Dr. H., a native of Truro, donor of smaller flagon to All Saints' church, Newcastle, 17; entry of burial of, 17

Atkinson, J., Newcastle plate belonging to, 48

Aubone, Thomas, 241

Auckland St. Andrew's church, Newcastle plate belonging to, 22

Avignon, walls of Newcastle not unlike those of, 211

Aynsley, John, donor of flagon to Hexham church, 21; William, 57

Aytoun, sir John, 218, 221<sup>n</sup>

B.

Babington, Vincent, barber of Charles I., 119

Baptismal Superstition, 284<sup>n</sup>

Bacon, Edmund, 'consanguinius regis,' 34

Baillie, lieutenant-general, 217

Baker, sir George, recorder of Newcastle, appointed a commissioner to treat with Scots, 205; imprisoned in compter, Suffolk, 205<sup>n</sup>

Ballantine, lieutenant-colonel James, 169

Banners for castle, ix.

Barker, Robert, set up, in 1639, first printing press in Newcastle, 102; his publications, 103; his printing press in Newcastle, 128<sup>n</sup>

Barnard Castle, royalist army at, 175

Barnes, Ambrose, a Newcastle apprentice, 145<sup>n bis</sup>; Memoirs, 111<sup>n</sup>

Barnley, John, 84<sup>n</sup>

Barring, Jo., 83<sup>n</sup>

Barwis, Richard, freedom of Newcastle conferred on, 252

Bates, captain, Newcastle plate belonging to, 76

Batty, Francis, junr., Newcastle goldsmith, 7; plate made by, 19, 20, 21 ter, 22, 40 ter

Bearn, justiciary of Ethelred, king of Northumbria, burnt at 'Seletun,' 273

Beaumont, W. B., Newcastle plate belonging to, 19

Beaver, the, not to be used for food, 278

Bede, after death of, Northumberland history a blank, 259; scholastic centre transferred to York, 264; his epistle to Egbert, 271

Beilby, William, Newcastle goldsmith, 7; plate made by, 57

Belford, 'a poor contemptible village,' 100

Bell, Boniface asks Huetbercht to send him a, 266

Bellièvre, 123

Benedict Biscop, a new era began with, 264

Berwick-upon-Tweed, arms of, 28, 32; Matthew Forster, mayor of, 32; king's train set out for, 95; Scottish army under Lesley massing at, 95

Berwick-upon-Tweed church, Newcastle plate belonging to, 10, 27, 32

Bewick [Bewicke], Robert, 88<sup>n</sup>, 89<sup>n</sup>; restored to possession of his collieries, etc., 255<sup>n</sup>

- Bilton, Eli, Newcastle goldsmith, 2, 7; plate made by, 15, 17, 18, 36, 37 ter, 38
- Birtley church, Northumberland, Newcastle plate belonging to, 26
- Bishop Auckland, royalist army at, 175; Leven and Callendar at, 185; Scots army in winter quarters at, 258
- Bishopwearmouth church, Newcastle plate belonging to, 23
- 'Black Bessie's' tower, Newcastle, Newgate probably so-called, 224*n*
- Blackburn, Jo., 202
- Blakett, arms of, 35; Christopher, 'keeper of a shoare' at South Shields, 87*n*; William, mayor of Newcastle, 245*n*
- Blackheath, golf played at, temp. James I., 114
- Blagdon, G. B., Newcastle plate belonging to, 72 bis, 79
- Blair, Mr., chaplain to Charles I., 117
- Blakiston, Mr. John, 237; stipend of as borough burgess, 128; John, his fees as M.P. for Newcastle to be repaid 'out of the towne chamber,' 247*n*; appointed alderman, 251
- Blenkinsop, Thomas, 202
- Blyth church, Newcastle plate belonging to, 29
- Blyth Nook, arrival of Scottish siege guns at, 161; lord Callendar expected at, 181
- Blythman, Robert, 241
- 'Bocking feild moore,' army of Charles I. quartered on, 101*n*
- Boldon church, Newcastle plate belonging to, 12, 25, 26
- Boldon hill, strong position of Scots on, 166
- Boniface and Lul, letters of, as to state of religious houses in the north, 264
- Boniface wrote for copies of Bede's work, 265; asks Huetbercht for a bell, 266
- Bonner, Thomas, 115; alderman of Newcastle, 139; mayor of Newcastle, 250
- Books thrown into highways of Northumberland, 97
- Borcovicus* (see Housesteads)
- Borders, Rules for the Defence of the, 296
- Bourne, History of Newcastle, 84*n et seq*
- Bowes, Cuthbert, donor of plate to St. Mary the Less church, Durham, 17; Francis, 190, 202.
- Bowness, Mrs., Newcastle plate belonging to, 56
- Bowness-on-Solway church, Cumberland, Newcastle plate belonging to, 22
- Brampton church, Cumberland, Newcastle plate belonging to, 14
- Brandling, col. Charles, of Gateshead, hostage to Scots, 205; sold Nuns' moor to corporation of Newcastle, 205*n*
- Brand's Newcastle, 83*n et seq.*
- 'Brass pieces' in the cellar at Tynewmouth, 96, 97
- Britannia standard silver, 3
- Bromley, William, speaker of House of Commons, privy councillor, etc., 19; donor of cup to Castle Eden church, 19
- Brown, Hugh, coachman of Charles I., buried in St. Andrew's church, Newcastle, 133
- 'Browne Bushell,' ship, 151
- Buccleuch, lord, 216, 221*n*
- Buchanan, David, 107
- Bulkley, Stephen, his printing press in Newcastle, 128; his first Newcastle publication, 129; his publications, 130 et seq.; died at York, 128*n*
- Bulman, George, Newcastle goldsmith, plate made by, 46, 47, 48 bis, 50, 52 bis
- Bulmer, Edward, mariner, petition of, to Charles I., 85*n*
- Burdon, Rowland, donor of paten to Castle Eden church, 27; Rowland, jun., gift of alms dish to Castle Eden church, 30
- Burman, Dr., Newcastle plate belonging to, 72
- 'Butler, bishop, coffee pot,' 71
- Bywell ford, Scots crossed Tyne at, 165
- Butter, export of, from Newcastle, forbidden, 99
- Byne, arms of, on salver, 46.

C.

- Caervoran inscription in praise of the Syrian goddess, 289; virtually an apotheosis of Julia Domna, 291
- Caldcleugh, J., Newcastle plate belonging to, 59, 60
- Cal. State Papers (Dom.)*, 83*n et seq.*
- Callendar, lord, Scottish army under, for siege of Newcastle, 180; recaptured Morpeth, 181; crossed Tyne at Newburn, 181; surrender

- to, of Hartlepool and Stockton, 182; in possession of Lumley castle, 182*n*; took Gateshead, 183
- Cant, Andrew, sermon of, before Charles I., 118
- Carey, Sir George, 297
- Carlisle, arms of see of, 13; bishops Percy, Smith, and Waldegrave of, 13; bishop of, Newcastle plate belonging to, 13; gift of tankard to Carlisle tanners' company, 38
- Carlisle, Corporation of, Newcastle plate belonging to, 44; guilds of, Newcastle plate belonging to, 3, 37, 38, 39, 53, 54, 67
- Carnaby, John, Newcastle goldsmith, 7; plate made by, 22 bis; William, 83*n*
- Carr, captain, 'late sheriff of Newcastle,' hostage to Scots, 205; lieutenant-col., entered Newcastle with Charles I., 110; Mrs. E., Newcastle plate belonging to, 74; Cuthbert, 202; in command at Newgate during siege of Newcastle, 220; Leonard, 115, 190, 202; Robert, 241
- Carr-Ellison, J. R., Newcastle plate belonging to, 3, 41, 43, 46 bis, 47, 51, 52, 55, 58 bis, 59, 60, 78
- Carroll and Marshall, chaplains to parliamentary commissioners at Newcastle, 142; sermons before Charles I., 143
- Cary, sir Edmund, surrendered Hartlepool to lord Callendar, 182
- Cassillis, lord, 217, 221*n*
- Casting lots in Saxon times to settle disputes, 277
- Castle Eden church, Newcastle plate belonging to, 18, 27, 29
- Catterick, Ethelwald Moll married Etheldryth at, 272
- Ceolred, king of Mercia, 'an abominable reprobate,' 271; seduced nuns, 271
- Ceolwulf introduced into monastery use of ale and beer, 268; the learned patron of literature, 271; Bede's Hist. Eccles. Gent. Angl. dedicated to, 271; retirement of, to Lindisfarne, 272
- Ceres, reference to, on the Caervoran inscription, 290
- Chamberlayne, John, deposition of, relating to defence of Newcastle, 150
- Chapman, captain, an inhabitant of South Shields, in command of fort there, 168; Henry, a 'shoare' at South Shields belonging to, 87*n*
- Charles, king of France, embassy of Alchred to, 273
- Charles I., visits of, to Newcastle, 83; contribution of Northumberland and Newcastle to army of, 101; ordered galleries in churches of St. Nicholas and All Saints, Newcastle, to be removed, 101; knighted Thomas Riddell, 102; visit to Newcastle in 1639, 102; in 1641, 103; entry into Newcastle in 1646, 109; left in charge of mayor of Newcastle, 111; amusements of, in Newcastle in 1646, 114; visit to Shields and dined with the governor of Tynemouth castle, 116; 'treated with barest ceremony,' 116; his letters to sir Alexander Henderson, 116; Scots pressing 'Covenant' on, 117; interview of Scottish lords with, 118; deputation of ministers to, 118; Andrew Cant's sermon before, 118; conferring honours at Newcastle, 125; sermon before, 133; second visit of, to Tynemouth, 123; dined at castle, 123; commissioners from parliament to, at Newcastle, 119; interview between Hamilton and, 120; sermon of parliament commissioners' chaplain before, 121; arrangements for surrender of, by the Scots, 135; his return to Holdenby, 135; Murray's plot for escape of, 136; Henry Dawson, mayor, informed of plot to escape, 138; severer treatment of, on account of it, 138; 'ransom,' of, how paid, 141, 142; Samuel Kem preached at court, 142; sermons of Carroll and Marshall before, 143; left Newcastle for Holdenby, 145; money lent to, by Newcastle, 147
- Chesholm, John, vicar of Wooler, donor of paten to church, 21
- Chess played by Charles I. in Newcastle, 114
- Chester-le-Street, success of Scots in engagement at, 169; Scottish army in winter quarters at, 258
- Chollerton church, Newcastle plate belonging to, 15
- Chopwell woods, timber obtained from, for repair of Tyne bridge, 245
- Chorographia*, 111*n*
- Clarke, Charles, 202; John, curate and lecturer at St. Andrew's, ejected by parliament, 252; Thomas, 202 (see also Clerk)

- Clavering, master, alderman of Newcastle, 191; John, 88*n*; Robert, sheriff of Northumberland, 297; killed, 297
- Clerk, captain John, gift of punch bowl to, 41 (see also Clark)
- Clinett, Humphrey, 87*n*
- Clothes, wearing of, in heathen fashion, 277
- Clovesho, council of, and extravagance in dressing, 267
- Coals, report of Privy Council to petition of burgesses concerning, etc., 92; no ship to make any voyage for fetching, etc., until Newcastle freed from forces, 146
- Coal trade, measures for regulation of, 252; Scots and, 253; letters of sir Lionel Maddison on the. 253; sale of coals in Newcastle, 253
- Cock, Ralph, 190; Samuel, 202
- Codex Amiatinus*, the, 264
- Coldingham, Ebba's house at, 266
- Coldstream, Scots quartered at, temp. Charles I., 151
- Cole, James, 202; Nicholas, 190, 202; mayor of Newcastle, 15, 147; sir Nicholas, 253; commissioner for treating with Scots for surrender of Newcastle, 205
- Cole, Ralph, 88*n*, 89*n*, 190, 202; alderman of Newcastle (and another) complained concerning their ballast quay on Tyne, 86 and n
- Colliers enlisted by Leven for siege of Newcastle, 191
- Collieries of sir John Marley and others declared to be forfeited, 255
- Collingwood, sir Cuthbert, 297; Thomas, of Eslington, a reputed papist, 297
- Collinson, William, and Elizabeth, gave communion plate to Gateshead church, 12
- Colman founded offshoot of Northumbrian church at Mayo, after his discomfiture at Whithy, 279
- Colpitts, George, donor of flagon to Longbenton church, 29
- Common seal of corporation of Newcastle lost 'at tyme of the storminge,' 246*n*
- Compton, crest of, 66
- 'Constant Warwick,' a government ship at Tynemouth, 160
- Conway, flight of, and surrender of Newcastle, 160
- Cooke, George, 87*n*; William, 202
- Cookson, Isaac, Newcastle goldsmith, 3, 7; plate made by, 23, 25 bis, 26 bis, 27 bis, 46 bis, 47 bis, 48, 49 ter, 50 bis, 51 bis, 53 bis, 54 ter, 56 ter, 57, 58 ter, 59, 60 ter, 61 bis; Norman, C., Newcastle plate belonging to, 3, 36, 65, 66
- Coquet island, a 10-gun ship ashore at, 151; capture of, by Scots, 155
- Corbridge, king Ethelred murdered at, 275; decrees of synod at, signatures to, 278; Adulf consecrated at, 279; Scottish cavalry at, 162; attacked by royalists and defeated, 162
- Corbridge church, Newcastle plate belonging to, 13
- Cosin, Jo., 84*n*; alderman, visit to London, 135; amount advanced by, towards payment of Scots for surrender of Charles I., 136
- Council, report of, for 1898, ix.; list of, and officers for 1899, xvii
- Country meetings, xi.
- Covenant pressed by Scots on Charles I., 117; deputation to Charles I. concerning, 118.
- Covenanters, son of earl of Roxburgh joined, 99; royal proclamation read in St. Nicholas's church, Newcastle, 98
- Cowdell, Mrs. Mary, donor of cup to St. Andrew's Auckland church, 22
- Cowper, lord, 217, 221*n*
- Cram, Mrs., gift of coffee pot to, 74
- Cranston, the master of, 218, 221*n*
- Crawford, earl of, 223; among prisoners taken at Newcastle, 183*n*; James, Newcastle goldsmith, 7; plate made by, 69, 72 bis, 77 bis
- Crawhall, rev. T. E., Newcastle plate belonging to, 76, 77, 80
- Crosse, Dr., Francis, 113
- Crow not to be used for food, 278
- Cudrad, letter of Alcuin to, 262
- Cumberland, David Leslie with his whole cavalry sent into, 195
- Cunningame, burial of captain John, a Scot, entered in Whickham register, 234*n*
- Curators' report for 1893, xv.; list of objects presented, xvi
- Cuthbert, abbot of Wearmouth and Jarrow, letter of, 261; sent knives to Lul, 266; asks him to engage glassworkers, 266
- Cuthbert, St., prose and verse lives of, sent to Lul, 261
- Cybele, reference to, in the Caervoran inscription, 290

D.

- Dacre, Francis, 297
- Dale, arms of, on punch bowl, 42 ; Brodrick, Newcastle plate belonging to 74 ; T. Tinley, Newcastle plate belonging to, 3, 41, 50, 57, 77
- Dalton, William, Newcastle goldsmith, 7 ; plate made by, 56, 59
- Dand, James, Newcastle plate belonging to, 49
- Danes attacked Lindisfarne, 274 ; scattered monks, 262 ; letters of Alcuin concerning, 26?
- Darlington, Scottish army in winter quarters at, 258
- Date letter, Newcastle assay, first mention of, 5
- Davenant the poet, visit of, to Charles I. at Newcastle, 1-6
- Davison, Alexander, 88*n*, 89*n*, 191, 202 ; sir Alexander, collieries of, declared to be forfeited, 255 ; died of his wounds at siege of Newcastle and buried in St. Nicholas's church, 235*n* ; Thomas, mayor of Newcastle, his name on Sawley flagon, 10 ; lieutenant-colonel Thomas, mayor of Newcastle, hostage to Scots, 205*n*
- Dawson, George, report to Newcastle council in 1646, 113 ; collector of customs, Newcastle, 251 ; Henry, deputy-mayor of Newcastle, 115 ; confirmed in office by House of Commons, 115 ; elected mayor of Newcastle, 127, 138 ; told of plot for escape of Charles I., 138 ; appointed 'customer' of Newcastle, 251
- De Bois, the engineer, ordered to Newcastle to supervise the fortifications, 98
- Deland, John, 83*n*
- Delaval, sir John, appointed deputy-lieutenant of Northumberland by parliament, 247 ; Ralph, appointed deputy-lieutenant of Northumberland by parliament, 247
- De Mey, Mrs., Newcastle plate belonging to, 4, 58
- Derwent river, Scots crossed, by a 'narrow tree bridge' at Ebchester, 165
- Detchant, army of Charles I. quartered in, 101
- 'Diodate,' Dr., 129
- Dobson, John, Newcastle haberdasher, 117
- Doddington bastle-house, 293 ; elevations and plans of, 294, 295 ; description of, 298 et seq. ; inscribed slab, 300 ; names of streets in, 301 ; view of, about 1840, 301
- Doddington church, Newcastle plate belonging to, 33
- 'Dorrington [Doddington] lads,' a Northumbrian pipe tune, 301
- Douglas of Kilhead, 217, 221*n* ; Mr., preached before Charles I. in Newcastle, 116 ; major, placed in command at Hartlepool by the Scots, 182
- Douglas's account of taking of Newcastle by Scots, 227
- Dowthwayte, John, Newcastle goldsmith, 7 ; maker of Gateshead flagon, 2 ; Durham drapers' company's cup, 3 ; silver plate made by, 12 bis, 35
- Drapers' company of Durham, silver cup belonging to, 3
- Dunfermline, earl of, 113, 217, 221*n*
- Dunkirk man of war in Tyne, 134
- Durant, Mr. William, appointed lecturer of Newcastle, 250*n*
- Durham, report dated from, relating to repair of bridges in 1632-3, 84 ; Charles I. in, 84, 95 ; sermon by bishop Morton at, 95 ; tenants of bishop of, to be armed, 97 ; proclamation of Leven at, 108 ; disposition of Scots to advance into, 164 ; marquis of Newcastle's army moved to, 166 ; reached by Scots, 167 ; Montrose at, 170 ; marquis of Newcastle withdrew to, after Hilton fight, 175 ; Scottish army in winter quarters at, 258 ; bishop of, Newcastle plate belonging to, 71 ; St. Mary the Less church, Newcastle plate belonging to, 17, 18 ; guilds, Newcastle plate belonging to, 35 bis, 42, 64 bis, 77
- Durham county, repair of bridges, etc., in, 84*n*
- Durham, Northumberland and, the Scottish campaign in, between January and June, 1644, 146
- Dutch ship in Tyne, 133

E.

- Eadbert, king of Northumbria, 272 ; made alliance with Pepin, king of France, 272 ; resigned throne, 272 ; brother of archbishop Egbert, 272 ; buried at York, 272
- 'Eagle' of Newcastle, ship, chartered for conveyance of provisions to Newcastle, 141

- Eanbald, archbishop of York, 278; pall obtained from Rome for, 273
- Eangy and Heaburg, 263
- Eardulf recalled from exile and crowned at York, 275
- East marches, muster of the, in 1579-80, 296
- Ebba's house at Coldingham, 266
- Ebchester, Scots crossed Derwent by 'narrow tree bridge' at, 165
- Echard's History of England, account of taking of Newcastle by Scots in, 229<sup>n</sup>
- Edinburgh, plague in, 232<sup>n</sup>; prisoners taken at capture of Newcastle, imprisoned in tolbooth at, 234<sup>n</sup>
- Egbert, archbishop of York, old pupil of Bede, 264; penitential of, 270; Bede's epistle to, 271; Eadbert, king of Northumbria, brother of, 272; buried at York, 272
- Eglingham church, Newcastle plate belonging to, 27 bis.
- Eglisfield, Mrs. Katherine, donor of plate to Carlisle merchant tailors, 37
- Elections, complaint as to inequality of, in Newcastle, 93
- Ellis, Mr., Newcastle plate belonging to, 74; W., 91
- Ellison, Mr., sheriff of Newcastle, visit to London, 135; rev. Nathaniel, donor of cup, etc., to Doddington, 33; Robert, 127; appointed sheriff of Newcastle, 251
- Elswick, Scots at, 185
- Eltringham ford, Scots crossed Tyne at, 165
- Embleton, Dr., Newcastle plate belonging to, 57
- England, one of earliest records of golf in, 114
- Erhart, abbot, 279
- Errington, George, 87<sup>n</sup>; captain George, held Pilgrim street gate during siege of Newcastle, 220; Gilbert, major, of Denton, entered Newcastle with Charles I., 110; rode bareheaded on entry of Charles I. into Newcastle, 141<sup>n</sup>; Thomas, 141<sup>n</sup>
- Esh church, Newcastle plate belonging to, 18
- Ethelbald, abbot of Wearmouth, letter of Alcuin to, 261
- Ethelbert, bishop of Whithern, 278
- Etheldryth, king Ethelwald Moll — married, 272; entered nunnery after his death, 272; letters of Alcuin to, 272
- Ethelhard, archbishop of Canterbury, letter of Alcuin to, concerning attack of Danes, 262
- Ethelred, king, son of Moll, king of Northumbria, 273; letters of Alcuin, 262; pompous letters of Alcuin to, respecting Danish attack on Lindisfarne, 274; murdered at Corbridge, 275
- Ethelwald Moll, victory over Oswin near Melrose, 272; married Etheldryth at Catterick, 272; 'lost' his throne at Finchale, 272; died in exile, 272; his widow entered nunnery, 272
- Ewart park, inscribed slab from Doddington pele now at, 300<sup>n</sup>
- Exhibition of old Newcastle silver plate, 1

F.

- Fairfold, Andrew, 118
- Farley, Turner, Newcastle silver plate belonging to, 4, 64
- Felling, 'malignants' at, 134
- Fell, Ralph, 241
- Felton, bridge at, destroyed by royalists, 156
- Fenwick, Mr., of Wallington, a suspected priest, 297; George, appointed 'customer' of Newcastle, 251; John, 83<sup>n</sup>; sir John, 97, 108; appointed deputy-lieutenant of Northumberland by parliament, 247; John, of Newcastle, appointed by parliament master of Sherburn hospital, 247; Robert, freedom of Newcastle conferred on, 252; William, appointed deputy-lieutenant of Northumberland by parliament, 247; sir William, daughter of, suffered after capture of Newcastle by Scots, 235<sup>n</sup>
- Finchale (see Winchanheale)
- Finney, Dr., donor of communion flagons to Ryton church, 9, 23; [Fynney] of Fynney, county Stafford, arms of, 23
- Food, animals, etc., that were not to be used for food in eighth century, 278
- Foreign pilgrimages, 269
- Forster, arms of, on coffeepot, 47; sir John, 296; Matthew, alderman of Alnwick, 37; Thomas and Susannah, 35
- Fowler, Ralph, restored to possession of his collieries, etc., 255<sup>n</sup>
- France, Pepin, king of 272
- French, Jonathan, Newcastle goldsmith, 3, 7; plate made by, 18 ter, 20, 22, 39, 40, 42, 43 bis, 44 bis, 45 bis

Friduin, abbot of Jarrow, letter of Alcuin to, 26
Fulthorpe, Christopher, 84*n*

G

Gainford church, Newcastle plate belonging to, 16
Gask, lord, 217
Gateshead, reception of Charles I. at, 96; 'malignants' at, 124; Skippon, appointed governor of, 141; taken by Scots, 183; 'Crown' inn at, 116; William Watson, a vintner of, 116
Gateshead, St. Mary's church, accounts of, 83*n*, 84 and n; Newcastle plate belonging to, 2, 12, 22, 23, 32
George, bishop of Ostia, letter of, to pope Hadrian I., giving account of embassy to England, 277; two synods held in his presence, 277
Gibb, sir Henry, of Jarrow, 115
Gibson, Jane, donor of flagons to Bishopwearmouth and Sunderland churches, 24; T. G., Newcastle plate belonging to, 80
Gilpin, William, 38
Glasgow, general assembly of Scottish church in, in 1638, when bishops deposed, 95
Glemham, sir Thomas, appointed governor of Newcastle, 149*n*
Goldsmiths' company of Newcastle, sketch of, 1
Golf, 124, 126; in Scotland, 114; played by Charles I. in Newcastle, one of earliest records of game in England, 114; probably introduced by Scots in 1639 or 1644, 114*n*
'Gossick moore,' army of Charles I. quartered on, 101*n*
Gow, Thomas, Newcastle plate belonging to, 3, 36
Gower, arms of, on sugar caster, 71
'Grand Remonstrance,' the, 107
Grey of Howick, arms of, 16; Elizabeth and Magdalen, gave plate to Howick church, 16; [Gray] master, 223; sir Thomas, son of sir Ralph, 293; married Katherine, lady Nevill, at Battersby, Yorkshire, 293; [Grey] Elizabeth, restored to possession of her collieries, etc., 255*n*
Gregory III., pope, 277
'Greyhound,' a government ship at Tynemouth, 140
Gunpowder treason day, ringing of bells in Newcastle for, 132

H

Hadrian I., account to, of embassy of George, bishop of Ostia, to Britain, 277
Haggerston, Mr., of Haggerston, a reputed papist, 297
Hall-marks on Newcastle silver plate, 1
Hall, John, Newcastle plate belonging to, 48, 65, 70; W. F., Newcastle plate belonging to, 66
Halton church, Newcastle plate belonging to, 25
Hamer, Abraham, Newcastle goldsmith, 7; plate made by, 35
Hamilton Papers, 112*n*
Hamilton, sir Alexander, 217, 221*n*; marquis of, accompanied Charles I. on visit to Newcastle, 84; interview between, and Charles I. at Newcastle, 120
Hardcastle, Dr., Newcastle plate belonging to, 43, 54, 70
Hare not to be used for food, 278
Harraden, colliery at, 257
Harrigatte, John, 241
Harrop, James, 202
Hartburn church, Newcastle plate belonging to, 25
Hartlepool garrison to be 'sighted,' 145*n*; surrender to lord Callendar, 182; major Douglas placed in command, 182
Hartwel, rev. William, donor of cups to Stanhope church, 18
Heath, sir Robert, owner of ballast quay at South Shields, complaints concerning, 85 and n, 87 and n
Hedley, Anthony, Newcastle goldsmith, 7; plate made by, 79
Henderson, Alexander, chaplain, letter of Charles I. to, 116; death of, at Edinburgh, 117; lieutenant-colonel, a Scottish officer killed at Weaver tower during siege of Newcastle, 217*n*
Henry VI., act of, relating to hall-marks on silver plate, 1
Hepburn's, sir Adam, account of Newcastle after fall, 206; sir Patrick, laird of Wauchton, 217, 221*n*; major, killed at siege of Newcastle, 224 and n
Herd sand in Tyne 'is growne more to the north,' 88
Heron, Cuthbert, 83*n*
Heselrig, sir Arthur, appointed deputy-lieutenant of Northumberland by parliament, 247
Hetherington, James, Newcastle goldsmith, 7; plate made by, 72, 74

- Hetherington and Edwards, Newcastle goldsmiths, 7; plate made by, 70
- Hewitson, Thomas, Newcastle goldsmith, 3, 7; plate made by, 16
- Heworth, 'malignants' at Nether and Over, 134
- Hexham, Tilberht, bishop of, 278; Scottish army in winter quarters at, 258
- Hexham priory church, Newcastle plate belonging to, 21 bis, 29
- Higbald, bishop of Lindisfarne, 278; letters and poem of Aleuin to, 262
- Hilton, marquis of Newcastle's position at, 171; fight at, 171; battle cries at, 171; a drawn battle, 173*n*
- Historical MSS. Commission, 96*n*, et seq.
- Hobbs, Richard, Newcastle goldsmith, 3, 7; plate made by, 40
- Hodgkin, Dr. Thomas, 'The Caervoran inscription in praise of the Syrian goddess,' 289
- Hodgson, of Carham, crest of, 49; T. Hesketh, Newcastle plate belonging to, 60, 61, 74, 81
- Hodgson-Huntley, Mrs., Newcastle plate belonging to, 49, 66 bis, 75 bis, 77
- Holdenby, return of Charles I. to, 135; Charles I. left Newcastle for, 145
- Holland, the earl of, accompanied Charles I. on visit to Newcastle, 84
- Holmes, Sheriton, Newcastle plate belonging to, 63, 72
- Home, David, 221*n*; sir David, laird of Wedderburn, 217 (see also Hume)
- Honorary members, xviii.
- Hoorde, Mabel, donor of paten to Hexham, 21 (see also Orde)
- Horses, mutilation of, in Saxon times, 277
- Horseflesh, eating of, in Saxon times, 277; pope Gregory III. and, 277; 'a filthy and detestable custom,' 278; pope Zachary and, 278
- Housesteads, excavations at, x.
- Howick church, Newcastle plate belonging to, 16
- Hudson, Dr. Michael, came to Newcastle with Charles I., 115
- Huetbercht, 265*n*; fragment of cross with name of, on, 265*n*; abbot of Jarrow, 265
- Hume, lieutenant-colonel, killed at siege of Newcastle, 224 (see also Home)
- Hunting indulged in by monks, 269
- Huntley, son of marquis of, 99
- Hunvini, 265
- I.
- Ilderton, Miss, Newcastle plate belonging to, 50
- Innkeepers' plate, the, 45.
- Ipswich puritans, the, 99
- 'Ipswich Sarah,' ship, 151
- Isle of Man, Osred, king of Northumbria, fled to, 274
- J.
- Jackdaw not to be used for food, 278
- 'Jacob' of Christiania, ship, 117
- Jackson, sir Robert, appointed deputy-lieutenant of Northumberland by parliament, 247
- James, Francis, 84*n*
- Jarrow, reference to library of monks at, 266; some fame for metal work, 266; Friduin, abbot of, 261; Cuthbert, abbot, 261; Newcastle plate belonging to church at, 31
- James I., golf played at Blackheath, temp., 114
- 'Jenison, one Dr., something cool,' 77; appointed to vicarage of Newcastle by House of Commons, 249 and n; called from Dantzic, 249*n*
- Jerusalem, walls of Newcastle 'not unlike those of,' 211
- Jesuits, 'entertainment' of, 297
- Jobson, John, Newcastle goldsmith, 7; plate made by, 70, 72
- 'John of Bargamie,' ship, 117
- 'John of Dantzic,' ship, 117*n*
- 'John' of Lubeck, ship, 117*n*
- Johnstone, George, warden of Newcastle cordwainers' company, 46
- Judson, William, steward of Durham cordwainers' company, 77
- Julia Donna, wife of Severus, Caervoran inscription to the Syrian goddess virtually an apotheosis of, 291
- 'Justice of Breene,' ship, 117
- K.
- Kem, Samuel, army chaplain, sermon of, before parliamentary commissioners in Newcastle, 121; chaplain on board of 'Leopard,' preached at court of Charles I., 142
- Killingworth, near Newcastle, horse races at, 138
- Kingdoms Weekly Intelligencer*, 110, et seq.

Kirkandrews-upon-Esk, communion paten of church of, 5
 Kirkby Stephen church, Newcastle plate belonging to, 14
 Kirkup, James, Newcastle goldsmith, 3, 7; plate made by, 41, 44 bis, 45; John, Newcastle goldsmith, 7; plate made by, 28, 30 ter, 60, 61, 62, 66, 67, 69
 Kirsopp, J., Newcastle plate belonging to, 60, 62 bis
 Knives, sent to Lul by Hunvini, 266
 Knowles, W. H., Newcastle plate belonging to, 54; on Doddington bastle-house, 293
 Koena, an alias of Aelbert, 265

L.

L., G., and T. W., Newcastle plate made by, 79
 Laing, F. M., Newcastle plate belonging to, 36, 66, 69, 74
 Lambe, Thomas, 87*n*
 Lambton, sir William, salt pans at Sunderland belonging to, 253
 Lanark, lord, 113; earl of, went to Newcastle to see about its betrayal to general Leslie, 149
 Langlands, John, Newcastle goldsmith, 3, 7; plate made by, 29 ter, 30, 31 bis, 32, 63 ter, et seq.; John, jun., Newcastle goldsmith, 4, 7; plate made by, 79, 80 bis
 Langlands and Goodrick, Newcastle goldsmiths, 7; plate made by, 61, 62 ter, 63
 Langlands and Robertson, Newcastle goldsmiths, 7; plate made by, 32, 33, 72, 73 ter, 74 et seq., 75 et seq.
 Langley, sir William, 257
 Laud, archbishop, accompanied Charles I. on visit to Newcastle, 84
 Lawrance, Thomas, restored to possession of his collieries, etc., 255*n*
 Leash, Thomas, 87*n*
 Leather-Culley, A., Newcastle plate belonging to, 66, 75
 Ledgerd, Thomas, 115
 Leeds, Scots at, 182
 Legge, captain, 96
 'Leopard,' the, government ship at Tynemouth, 140
 Lesley, rumoured strength of Scottish army under, 102
 Leven, general, proclamation of, at Durham, 108; his proclamation against papists, 115; trumpeter sent by, into Newcastle to demand surrender, 158; before York, 177; captured York, 178, 182; at Bishop

Auckland, 185; summoned Newcastle, 189; bridge of keels constructed by, 189; colliers enlisted by, 191; his reply to council's answer to surrender, 202; his strength in artillery not stated, 214; rumours of his death, 210; after Newcastle taken attended St. Nicholas's church to give thanks, 230; his return to Scotland, 258
 Leveson, arms of, on sugar caster, 71
 Libya [Africa], Severus, a native of, 291
 Liddell, sir Francis, house of, in Newcastle said to have been residence of Charles I. in 1646-47, 112; residence of governor of Newcastle, 112; also Leven's headquarters, 112; Thomas, alderman of Newcastle (and another), complaint concerning their ballast quay on Tyne, 86 and n; [Liddle] Thomas, 190, 202
 Lilburne, Mr., 257; colonel, urged repair of Newcastle town wall, 244
 Lindisfarne, gospels, 264; Danes attacked, 262, 274; scattered monks, 262; Osbald, the patrician, fled to, 275; Higbald, bishop of, 278; Ceolwulf's retirement to, 272
 Lithgow's description of Newcastle, 211; his account of taking of Newcastle by Scots, 227
 Livingstone, lord, 221*n*
 London poor, Newcastle coal shipped for the, 257
 Long, George, 84*n*
 Long Benton church, Newcastle plate belonging to, 28 bis
 'Lord of Hosts is with us, the,' Scottish battle cry at Hilton fight, 171
 Loudoun, lord, 221*n*; the Scottish chancellor at Newcastle, 192; at Sunderland, 193; took ship to London from, 193
 Love, Christopher, and another, appointed ministers to proceed to Newcastle, 250
 'Lower Light Fort,' North Shields, 151
 Lul, bishop of Mainz, letter of Cuthbert to, 261; knives sent to, by Hunvini, 266
 Lumley castle, Callendar in possession of, 182*n*
 Lumley, Stephen, warden of Durham cordwainers' company, 77
 Lumsden, Edward, under usher of grammar school, displaced by parliament, 252; sir James ap-

- pointed governor of Newcastle, 109, 251 and n
 Lyddock, Thomas, 88*n*
 Lydkett, Thomas, 84*n*
 Lyndesay, Ludovick, governor of Newcastle, 223
- M.
- Maddison, Henry, 88*n*; master Henry, alderman of Newcastle, 191; Lionel, mayor of Newcastle, 88*n*, 89*n*; sir Lionel, alderman of Newcastle, 191; letter of, concerning taking of Newcastle by Scots, 224 and n; letters of, on coal trade, 253; Robert, restored to possession of his collieries, etc., 255*n*; Thomas, 202
- Mainz, records of, 260; Lul, bishop of, 261
- Maitland's regiment of Scots at Coldstream, 151
- Makepeace, Robert, Newcastle goldsmith, 3, 7; plate made by, 24, 43, 45, 47, 49, 50 ter, 51, 57 bis; Thomas, Newcastle goldsmith, 7; plate made by, 46, 48 bis
- Makepeace and Batty, junr., 41
 'Malignants,' 134; resort of, to Newcastle, 119
- Man, Edward, 127; letter of, concerning taking of Newcastle by Scots, 225
- Manners and customs in Northumberland in eighth century, 276
- Mansell, sir Robert, complaint concerning his ballast quay on the Tyne, 86 and n
- Mar, Mr., town clerk of Newcastle, visit to London, 135
- Marcia, first wife of Septimius Severus, 291
- 'Margrett of Anser,' ship, 117
- Marley, John, 99, 190, 202; sir John, Lanark's attempt to suborn, 149; mayor and governor of Newcastle, 149, 197*n*; knight and governor, commissioner for treating with Scots, 205; letter of, to Sinclair, 210; retired to castle, Newcastle, during siege, 220; submissive letter of, to Scots and surrender of Newcastle, 231; 'confined in a dungeon trance' in castle, 232; collieries of, declared to be forfeited, 255
- Marley and his colleagues, reply of, to Leven's trumpeter as to surrender of Newcastle, 158
- Marriages, paucity of, in Newcastle, after siege, 242
- Marshall, Mr., chaplain to parliamentary commissioners, 121; Carroll and, chaplains at Newcastle to parliamentary commissioners, 143; sermons before Charles I., 143
- Matfin, Matthew, 202
- Maxwell, lord, 223; Clement, 87*n*
- Mayo, strong link between northern church and, 279; founded by Colman, 279; Adolf, bishop of, 278
- Melrose, victory of Ethelwald Moll over Oswin near, 272
- Melton, Jo., 91
- Members, honorary, xviii.; ordinary, xix.
- Mercurius Civicus*, 111*n et seq.*
- Michaelson, Mr., sheriff of Newcastle, visit to London, 135
- Milbanke, Mar., 202
- Minns, sir John, collieries of, declared to be forfeited, 255
- Mitcalfe, arms of, on punch bowl, 42
- Mitchell, Mrs., Newcastle plate belonging to, 51, 52
- Mitchison, John, Newcastle goldsmith, 7; silver plate made by, 76, 78 bis
- Mitford, Michael, donor of large flagon to All Saints' church, Newcastle, 17
- Moderate Intelligencer*, the, 110*n, et seq.*
- Moffat, major, killed at Weaver tower during siege of Newcastle, 217*n*
- Monasteries, spurious, 271
- Monastic dress, 267; tendency to extravagance in, 266
- Monk Hesleden church, Newcastle plate belonging to, 22
- 'Monmouth' cap, a, 115
- Monteith bowl belonging to corporation of Morpeth, 3
- Montreuil returned to Newcastle, 126
- Montrose at Durham, 170; at Newcastle, 176; in Northumberland, 177; capture of Sunderland and Morpeth, and of fort at South Shields, 176; expedition against Morpeth, 176; South Shields fort taken, 177; attack on Sunderland repulsed, 177
- Moon, Edward, wife of, and daughter of sir W. Fenwick, suffered after capture of Newcastle, 235*n*
- Morecrost, Ferd., 84*n*
- Morpeth, 'a poor contemptible village,' 100; letter dated from, 83*n*; headquarters of Scots at, 144; reached by Scottish army, 155; Montrose's expedition against, 176;

castle defended by James Somerville and another, 176; fall of, 176; recaptured by Scots, 181; Scottish army in winter quarters at, 258; corporation of Newcastle, silver bowl belonging to, 3, 39

Morton, bishop of Durham, sermon of, before Charles I., 95

Mosley, Edward, mayor of Newcastle, 31

'Mounteere' cap, a, 115

Mulcaster, Mrs., Newcastle plate belonging to, 36, 45

Murray's plot for escape of Charles I. from Newcastle, 137; sir Robert, 117; his letters, 112; will, 113

Mutilation of Animals, Fleming's, 277*n*

N.

Newark, army of parliament before, 107.

'New bridge,' across Wear, Scots crossed, 165; crossed by marquis of Newcastle in pursuit, 165.

Newburn, station of a force at, 98; battle of, 103; victory of Leven at, 160.

Newcastle, visits of Charles I. to, in 1633, 1639, 1641, 1646-7, 83; sir Wm. Selby's house in, prepared for visit of Charles I., 84; complaint concerning ballast quay on Tyne, of mayor and aldermen of, 86 and n; petition to council, of burgesses of, against mayor and aldermen, 90 and n; report of council concerning, 91; fortifications of, in 1639, 97; De Bois the engineer deputed to supervise the fortifications of, 98; hospitality to Charles I. in, 'magnificent,' 98; earl of Roxburgh committed to custody of mayor of, 99; export from, of butter, forbidden, 99; sir Wm. Saville with his regiment passed through, 99; lords present in, summoned by Charles I., 100; 'a pestilential fever reigns and small-pox everywhere,' 100; contribution of, to army of Charles I., 101; no printing press in, up to 1639, 102; Robert Barker sent to north as king's printer, 102, 128*n*; Stephen Bulkeley's printing press, 129; in possession of Scots on visit of Charles I. in 1641, 103; detention of Charles in, 107; Charles I. left in charge of mayor of, 111; the 'Newe House' (Anderson place), residence of Charles I. in 1646-7, 111; corporation of, and the king's coals in 1646, 113; enquiry at, concerning escape of Jack Ashburnham, a follower of Charles I., 115; magazines on bridge, 118; fortifications repaired, 118; sermon of Andrew Cant before Charles I., 118; resort of 'malignants,' 119; commissioners from parliament to Charles I. at, 119; extracts from corporation records, 120, 123, 124; interview between Hamilton and Charles I. at, 120; arrival of Argyle at, 121; general thanksgiving day, 125; Davenant the poet at, 126; recurrence of plague in, 126; dissensions among authorities of, 127; public lighting of streets of, temp. Charles I., 131; ship sent to, by prince of Orange, 132; surrender of, by Scots, 135; offer of Scots to sell military stores in, 136; portion of ransom of Charles I. paid near, 142; evacuated by Scots, 142; parliamentary commissioners in, accommodated in a house in St. John's parish, 143; keys of, handed to general Skippon by mayor, 145; Charles I. left, for Holdenby, 145; and the royal cause, 147; money lent to Charles I. by corporation of, 147; marquis of Newcastle entered, 156; five men-of-war, etc., at, 151; Leven's arrival at, 157; trumpeter sent to, by Leven, 157; reply of Marley, 158; Scots attack on Shieldfield fort, 159; capture of, 160; demolition of houses in Sandgate, 160; Montrose in, 176; siege of, by Scots, 180; payment for ordnance for reduction of, 180; blocked by Scots and parliament fleet, 184; Callendar's operations at Sandgate, 187; Shieldfield fort, 187*n*; summoned by Leven, 189; bridge of keels, 188; refusal to parley, 191; Barber Surgeons' hall over Pandon gate taken down, 189; Ralph Cock's house, taken by Barber Surgeons, 189; wall mined near St. Andrew's church, and at Closegate and Sandgate, 192; wall near St. Andrew's breached, 196; reverse at Closegate, 192-3; summoned a second time to surrender, 194; again refused, 195; lord Loudoun, the Scottish chancellor, at, 192; sorties of besieged from, 192, 194, 196; sermon by George Wishart in St. Nicholas's

- church, 197, 199; Henry War-mouth, mayor and deputy-lieutenant of, 197*n*; summoned for third time, 200; answer of council, 201; Leven's reply, 202; proposition for a treaty, 203; commissioners nominated, 205; hostages to Scots, 205; meeting of commissioners, 207; letter of English commissioners, 207; conditions of surrender offered to, by Scots, 208; garrison to march out with honours of war, 209; batteries of Scots again opened fire, 209; letter of English commissioners and of Marley, 210; positions of Scottish batteries, 213; Lithgow's description of, 211, 227; walls of, 'stronger than Yorke,' 211; not unlike those of Avignon and Jerusalem, 211; breach at White friar tower, 215; in other places, 216; Scottish officers killed at Weaver tower, 217*n*; besieged garrison of, on half rations, 200; hard pressed, 200; Charles Brandling of Gateshead sold Nun's moor to corporation of, 205*n*; strength of Scottish army besieging, 218; Hepburn's account of assault of, 221; Cuthbert Carr in command at Newgate, 220; Captain George Errington at Pilgrim street gate, 220; Marley retired to castle, 226; the assault, 223; letters describing, 224; entry of Scots into, 223; Home and Hepburn killed at 'Black Bessie's' tower [? Newgate], 224; letter of sir Lionel Maddison concerning taking of Newcastle by Scots, 224 and n; account of, in Echard's History of England, 229*n*; letter of Edward Man concerning same, 226; Douglas's account of, 227; surrender of the castle, 231; bridge of keels swept away, 231; Leven, Callendar, and others, attended St. Nicholas's church to give thanks, 230; death roll of siege, 234; rejoicings, 235; royalist party is completely destroyed, 237; removed from corporation, etc., 237; their fate, 237; list of them, 238-9; letter from Trinity House, 240; stagnation of trade, 240; paucity of marriages, 242; damage to public buildings, 243; town walls to be repaired, 244; agreements for, 244*n*; libraries of grammar school and its master destroyed during siege, 246; Trinity House plundered, 246; common seal of corporation lost during storming, 246*n*; John Blakiston, M.P. for, his fees to be paid out of corporation moneys, 247*n*; 'customers' appointed, 251; freedom of, conferred on sir William Armyne and others, 252; Amor Oxley, master of grammar school, and Edward Lumsden, his under-usher, displaced by parliament, 252; papists ordered to depart from, 252; measures taken by Scots for regulation of, 253; James Swords, collector of customs at, for Scots, 253 and n; 'sickness' in Sandgate, 254; coal shipped for the London poor, 257.
- Newcastle assay office re-established in 1702, 4; exhibition of silver plate of, 1; makers represented in, 7; sketch of goldsmiths' company of, 1; hall-marks, 1; date letters, 4, 7; town mark of castles, 8
- Newcastle mansion house plate, 45, 58, 61, 78
- Newcastle castle, guide to, x
- Newcastle churches, damage to, during siege, 243; ministers at, 250; Mr. Durant and Mr. Sydenham appointed lecturers at, 250*n*; Newcastle plate belonging to, 3, 12, 14, 15 bis, 16, 20 bis, 22, 32 bis, 33 bis, 34
- Newcastle, St. Nicholas's church, royal proclamation to covenanters read in, 98; Charles I. ordered galleries to be removed, 101; Mr. Alvey, vicar, 223 and n; Dr. Jenison appointed to vicarage of, 249 and n; Mr. Yelder Alvey having been 'outed' from it, 249*n*, 250; vicarage house 'ruined' by Scots, 249*n*; image of Our Saviour on cross in St. Nicholas's church destroyed by Scots, 243; Thomas Turner, curate, displaced, 252; St. Andrew's, John Clark, curate and lecturer, dismissed by parliament, 252; damage to, 192, 196; Hugh Brown, coachman of Charles I. buried in, 133; All Saints' church, accounts of, 95; Charles I. ordered galleries to be removed, 101; expenses of, 101
- Newcastle guilds, Newcastle plate belonging to, 3, 35, 39 bis, 42, 46
- Newcastle, mayors of:—William Blackett, 245*n*; Thomas Bonner, 250*n*; Nicholas Cole, 15; sir Nicholas Cole, 205*n*; Henry Dawson [deputy mayor], temp. Charles I., 115; mayor, 127; Thomas Davison, 10;

Lionel Maddison, 88*n*, 89*n*; sir John Marley [and governor], 197; order for removal of sir John Marley from office of mayor and alderman, and appointment of Henry Warmouth to office of alderman, 247*n*; Edward Mosley, 31; Henry Warmouth, 250

Newcastle, sheriffs, etc., of, 135; Robert Ellison, 250; Thomas Paise, 15; master Henry Rawley, 127

Newcastle, John Blakiston, alderman of, 250; borough burgess, 128

Newcastle, recorders of: sir George Baker, 205*n*; Edward Wright of Gray's Inn, in place of sir George Baker, 251

Newcastle, Henry Warmouth appointed deputy-lieutenant of, 247

Newcastle, governors of: sir Thomas Glemham appointed, 149*n*; Ludovick Lindsay, 223; sir James Lumsden, 109, 251; sir John Marley, 149, 197; Skippon, 141

Newcastle, George Dawson, collector of customs, 251

Newcastle, John Dobson, haberdasher of, 117

Newcastle, its Municipal Origin and Growth, xi.

Nicholson, Christopher, 127; George, Newcastle plate belonging to, 80

Norgate, Edward, letter of, 99, 100

Northumberland, history a blank after death of Bede, 259; kinglets in, 272; contribution of, to army of Charles I., 101; in hands of Scots, 103; Scots army under Leven threatening, 153; Michael Welden, sheriff of, 232

Northumberland and Durham between January and June, 1644, the Scottish campaign in, 146

'Northumbria in the Eighth Century,' 259; a scene of violence and intrigue, 270; death of Aldfrid, and succession of Osred to, 270; synod in, 277.

Northumberland, earl of, accompanied Charles I. on visit to Newcastle, 84; restored to possession of his collieries, etc, 255*n*; seventh duke of, elected president, ix.

Norton, Edward, of Sawley hall, 10

Nottingham, standard of Charles I. set up at, 107

'Now or never,' royalist war cry at Hilton fight, 171

Nuns seduced by king Ceolred, 271

O.

Obituary notice of the rev. E. H. Adamson, V.P., 281

Ogle, lord, 297; sir Cuthbert, 297; Mrs. Sarah, of Eglington, and another, donors of alms dish to church there, 27

Orange, prince of, 132

Orde, arms of, on salvers, etc., 52, 54; William, Newcastle plate belonging to, 3, 34, 47 bis, 50, 52, 54, 56 bis, 60, 61, 62 bis, 75 (see also Hoorde)

Ordinary members, xix.

Osbold the patrician placed on the throne of Northumbria, 275; fled to Lindisfarne, 275

Osborne, Edward, 91

Osred, succeeded to Northumbrian kingdom, 270; 'an abominable reprobate,' 271; seized by his chieftains, 'shorn' at York, and deprived of power, 273; fled to Isle of Man, 274; put to death, 274

Osric, king of Northumbria, 271

Osulf, king of Northumbria, murdered by his own household, 272

Oswin, victory of Ethelwald Moll over, 272

Ovingham, Scots crossed Tyne at ford of, 165

Oxford, surrender of, temp. Charles I., 119

Oxley, Amor, master of grammar school, his library destroyed during siege of Newcastle, 246; extract from his will, 246; and his under usher displaced by parliament from grammar school, 252

P.

Pagan customs in Northumbria in eighth century, 277

Paise, Thomas, sheriff of Newcastle, 15

Papists, Leven's proclamation against, 115; ordered to depart from Newcastle, 252; in Northumberland, 297

Parish registers, xi.

Parker, William, 241

Parliament and 'Solemn League and Covenant,' 146; commissioners of, to Charles I. at Newcastle, 119; appointments made by, after capture of Newcastle, 247

Partis, Thomas, Newcastle goldsmith, 7; plate made by, 22, 23, 24 ter, 42, 44; William, Newcastle goldsmith, 7; plate made by, 25, 26,

- 28 ter, 49, 51, 52, 53, 54 bis, 55 bis, 58 bis, 60, 65
- Patrick, John, alderman of Durham cordwainers' company, 77
- Pattinson, H. L., Newcastle plate belonging to, 74
- Peaker, Tobias, 113; groom of chamber to Charles I., 136
- Pease, J. W., Newcastle plate belonging to, 64, 78
- Pembroke, earl of, accompanied Charles I. on visit to Newcastle, 84
- Pepin, king of France, Eadbert, king of Northumbria, made treaty with, 272
- Percy, bishop of Carlisle, 13
- Perfect Occurrences*, 110*n et seq.*
- Perkins, C., Newcastle plate belonging to, 56
- Philipson, Joseph A., Newcastle plate belonging to 49, 53, 70, 76, 81
- Piersebridge, royalist army at, 175
- Pilgrimages, foreign, 269
- Pinkney and Scott, Newcastle goldsmiths, 7; plate made by, 32, 33 bis, 73, 77
- Plague in Newcastle, 254; recurrence of, 126; at Tynemouth castle, 224, 232 and n; at Edinburgh, 232*n*
- Plate, silver, of Newcastle make, exhibition of, 1
- Ponteland church, Newcastle plate belonging to, 28 ter
- Popular manners and customs in eighth century, 277
- Potter, Mrs. A., Newcastle plate belonging to, 4, 61
- Powell, M., Newcastle plate belonging to, 80
- Prudhoe, Scottish cavalry at, 162; attacked by royalists and defeated, 163
- Publications, exchange of, xxvii
- Pudsey, master Ralph, 'a knowne and dangerous papist,' order for arrest of, 133; a royalist, escape of, 134
- Puritans, meetings of, to be dissolved, 97; of Ipswich, 99; corporation established in Newcastle, 251
- 'Pylliran' of Hamburg, ship, 117*n*
- Q.
- Quarrington hill, Scots march to, 175; Leven's 'leagner' from, raised, 175
- R.
- Radcliffe, sir Edward of Dilston, letter of William Tunstall to, describing capture of South Shields fort, 169
- Rae, colonel James, 221*n*
- Ramsey, John, Newcastle goldsmith, 7; plate made by, 38; jun. 7; plate made by, 39; William, Newcastle goldsmith, 3, 7; plate made by, 2, 9, 10 bis, 12 bis, 13 bis, 14 ter, 15 bis, 16 bis, 34, 35 bis, 36 ter, 37 ter; junr. 38, 43
- Ravensthorpe, earl of, resigned presidency, ix
- Rawley, master Henry, elected sheriff of Newcastle in 1646, 127
- Reay, Joseph, and Mary, his wife, donors of alms dish to St. John's church, Newcastle, 33
- Redheugh, Scottish camp at, 105; 'malignants' at, 134
- Reed, Miss, of Oldtown, Newcastle, plate belonging to, 3, 37, 51, 55, 58, 65, 77, 79
- Reed, Mrs., of Chipchase, donor of cup to Birtley church, North Tyne, 26
- Registration of Society, certificate of, xxxiv
- Reid, Christian, Newcastle goldsmith, 7; plate made by, 80; T. A., 49, 62
- Richardson, Anthony, 202
- Riddell, G., Newcastle plate belonging to, 53, 77, 80; sir Peter, of Newcastle, complaint concerning his ballast quay in Tyne, 86 and n, 88*n*, 89*n*; Thomas, of Newcastle, 84*n*, 202; knighted by Charles I. 102; sir Thomas, 113; in command at Tynemouth, 161; laid waste country, 161; governor of Tynemouth castle, its surrender by him to Scots, 233; collieries of, declared to be forfeited, 255
- Ridley, arms of, impaling White, 29
- Robertson, John, Newcastle goldsmith, 7; plate made by, 34, 80 bis, 81
- Robson, Gabriel, 202; John, 84*n*, 202
- Robinson, John, gift of cup to Carlisle smiths' company, 53
- Rock moor, army of Charles I. quartered on, 101*n*
- Roman inscription in praise of the Syrian goddess, 289
- Rose castle communion plate, 2, 13
- Rotterdam merchants' gift of punch bowl to captain John Clerk, 41
- Rowcastle, Henry, 202
- Roxburgh, earl of, committed to custody of mayor of Newcastle, his son having joined covenanters, 99
- Royalists arrested by mayor of Newcastle, 134; movements of army of, 172 et seq.

Rupert, prince, ships appointed at cost of, in Tyne, 135
 Rutherford, Thomas, of 'Ranfertlie' commanded fort at South Shields on surrender to Montrose, 177; sentenced by council of war for surrender, 182; sentence on, suspended, 182*n*
 Rutland, earl of, diary of, 96
 Rymer, Robert, donor of plate to St. John's church, Newcastle, 20
 Ryott, W. H., Newcastle plate belonging to, 54
 Ryton, communion cup of, earliest dated piece of Newcastle plate, 2, 8; Newcastle plate belonging to, 8 23, 27

S.

St. Andrews, James Swords, a bur-gess of, 253
 St. Oswald's, church to memory of Aelfwold at, 273
 Salt pans, 222; on river Tyne and others at Sunderland, 253
 Sanderson, John, steward of Durham cordwainers' company, 77
 Savage, rev. H. E., on 'Northumbria in the Eighth Century,' 259
 Saville, lord, staff of treasurer of household conferred on, 107; sir William passed through Newcastle with his regiment, 99
 Sawley church, Yorkshire, Newcastle plate belonging to, 2, 10
 Scotland, golf in, 114; the earl marshal of, 217
 'Scot, a beggarly,' 99
 Scots, Lyon king-at-arms of, handed over to sheriff for not publishing royal proclamation, 100; camp at Redheugh, 105; in possession of Northumberland and Newcastle, 103; withdrawal of, from Newcastle, 104; lords, interview of, with Charles I., 118; arrangements by, for evacuation of Newcastle and surrender of Charles I., 135; amount received by, for surrender, 135; offer to sell military stores in Newcastle, 136; headquarters of, at Newcastle, 144; division of Charles I.'s ransom amongst, 144; campaign of, in Northumberland and Durham between January and June, 1644, 146; cross the Tweed into England, 151; army under Leven threatening Northumberland, 153; composition of forces, 153; scale of pay, 153; ordnance, 153; at Wooler, 155; capture Coquet island, 155; cavalry stationed along valley of Tyne, 162; attacked by royalists and defeated, 163; quarters at Sunderland, 164; crossed Tyne at different fords, 165; Derwent by bridge at Ebchester, 165; Wear at 'New bridge,' 165; pursuit of, by marquis of Newcastle, 165; strong position on Boldon hill of, 166; reached Durham, 167; attacked fort at South Shields, 167, and took it, 168; success of, in engagement at Chester-le-Street, 169; fight at Hilton, 172; march to Durham, 173; to York, 175; army under lord Callendar, 180; annoyed by artillery from castle, Newcastle, 192; batteries of, opened fire on Newcastle, 209; batteries and mines before Newcastle, 213, 215; infantry brigades, 217; positions of, 216; officers killed, 217*n*; army besieging Newcastle, strength of, 218; entry of, into Newcastle after siege, 223; damage to Newcastle churches, etc., by, 243; crucifixion in St. Nicholas's church destroyed by, 243; North and South Gosforth churches, 244; military command of Newcastle left in hands of, by parliament, 251; army of, in winter quarters at Darlington, etc., 258
 Scottish church, general assembly of, in Glasgow in 1638, when bishops deposed, 95
Scottish Dove, the, 111*n et seq.*
 'Seaman' of Lubeck, ship, 117*n*
 Selby, William, of Berwick, 297; sir William, appointed deputy-lieutenant of Northumberland by parliament, 247
 Seletun, Bearn, justiciary of Ethelred, burnt at, 273
 Senhouse, Humphrey, of Netherhall. gift of tankard to Carlisle smiths' company, 67
 Sermon by George Wishart in St. Nicholas's church, Newcastle, 199
 Severus, Septimius, a native of Africa, 291
 Shaftoe, Robert, 190, 202; Robert, of Whitworth, 32; Mrs. Ann, his wife, donor of flagon to St. Mary's, Gateshead, 32
 Sharp, John, warden of Durham cordwainers' company, 77
 Sherburn hospital, Newcastle plate belonging to, 19 bis; John Fenwick of Newcastle appointed by parliament master of, 247

Shields, Charles I. at, 116; destruction of fort between the 'uplight' at, and Newcastle, 151

Shields, South, ballast quays at, 87 and n; petition of sir Robert Heath to privy council concerning, 89*n*; fort at, attacked by Scots, 167; and taken, 168; in command of captain Chapman, 168; William Tunstall's account of capture, 169; capture of fort at, from Scots, left to Montrose, 176; Thomas Rutherford in command at, 177; captured, 176; regained by Scots, 182; fort at, lost and won thrice in one day, 200

Ships trading to Tyne to be able to defend themselves, 98; names of, temp. Charles I., 117*n*

Shipperson, captain Adam, 107

Shrive, Robert, Newcastle goldsmith, 7; plate made by, 37

Siegan, patrician, Aelfwold murdered by, 273; the justiciary, 278

Sigwulf, 'high reeve,' 279

Slitting noses of horses in Saxon times, 277; in modern times, 277*n*

Silver plate, exhibition of Newcastle, 1

Skinners' company, arms of, on cup, 43

Skippon, major-general, appointed governor of Newcastle, Gateshead, and Tynemouth, 141; at York, 141; keys of Newcastle handed to, by mayor, 145

Smallpox in Newcastle, 100

Smith, bishop of Carlisle, arms of, 13; bequest of communion plate, 13; gift of tankard to tanners' company of Carlisle, 38

Snowball, Frank, Newcastle plate belonging to, 47

Societies exchanging publications, xxvii.

'Solemn League and Covenant,' the, 107; parliament entered into, 146

Somerville, James, and another. defended Morpeth castle against attack of Montrose, 176

Southampton, earl of, accompanied Charles I. on his visit to Newcastle, 84

'Spanish work,' North Shields, the, 151

Spence, Charles James, Newcastle plate belonging to, 4, 44, 45

Spurious monasteries, 271

Stalker and Mitchison, Newcastle goldsmiths, 7; plate made by, 71, 72, 74, 75

Stanhope church, Newcastle plate belonging to, 5, 18

Statutes of society, xxix

Stewart, colonel William, 217

Stobes, Thomas, 87*n*

Stockton surrendered to lord Callendar, 182

Stoddart, rev. Charles, vicar of Eglingham, donor of paten, 27

Stork not to be used for food, 278

Stote, Edward, 202

Strother, William, and another, appointed ministers to proceed to Newcastle, 280

Sunderland, lord, 57

Sunderland, lord Loudoun at, 193; Scottish quarters at, 164; manoeuvres around, 167; Montrose's attack on, repulsed, 177; salt pans at, lately belonging to sir William Lambton, 253

Sunderland church, Newcastle plate belonging to, 20, 24 ter, 30

Swinhoe, Thomas, of Goswick, a reputed papist, 297

Swords, James, Burgess of St. Andrews, and collector of customs at Newcastle for Scots, 253 and n

Sydenham, Mr. Cuthbert, appointed lecturer at Newcastle, 250*n*

Symeon of Durham, works of, 259

Synod of 786 A.D., 19th canon of, 279

Syrian goddess, the Caervoran inscription in praise of the, 289

'Sythlescester,' near the Wall, Aelfwold murdered at, 273

T.

Tattooing in Saxon times, 277

Taylor, rev. E. J., Newcastle plate belonging to, 48, 73, 80; H. E., Newcastle plate belonging to, 63; commander John, R.N., 80

Taylor, Thomas, Newcastle plate belonging to, 34 bis, 35 bis, 37, 38 bis, 40 ter, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45 bis, 46, 48 bis, 51 bis, 52, 53 bis, 55, 56 bis, 59, 60, 61, 62 bis, 63, 66, 67 ter, 68 bis, 69 bis, 70, 71, 73, 77, 78

Tempest, Richard, 202; Thomas, 84

Terry, C. S., 'The Visits of Charles I. to Newcastle in 1633, 1639. 1641, 1646-7,' 83; 'The Scottish Campaign in Northumberland and Durham between January and June, 1644,' 146; 'The Siege of Newcastle-upon-Tyne by the Scots in 1644,' 180

Thanksgiving day, general, in Newcastle, temp. Charles I., 125

- Thompson, Miss, Newcastle plate belonging to, 50, 70, 72, 74; Samuel, Newcastle goldsmith, 7; plate made by, 68
- 'Three castles,' Newcastle town mark, 8
- Tilberht, bishop of Hexham, 278
- Tonsure, great importance attached to the, 267*n*
- Topcliffe, part of ransom of Charles I. paid over at, 141
- Treasurer's report for 1898, xii.; balance sheet, xiii.
- Trevor, bishop, arms of, 31
- Trimdon church, Newcastle plate belonging to, 8
- Trinity house of Newcastle, petition of, to privy council concerning ballast going into river, 86 and n; plundered after siege, 246; records of, and siege, 245
- Truro, Cornwall, 17
- Turner, sir James, Memoirs, 178; account of assault of Newcastle in Memoirs, 229*n*; Thomas, curate of St. Nicholas, Newcastle, ejected by parliament, 252
- Tweed crossed by Scots into England, 151
- Tweedmouth church, Newcastle plate belonging to, 30
- Tyne river, 222; bar across mouth of, 'growne more narrow and of lesse water,' 88; Herd sand in, 88; ships trading to, to be able to defend themselves, 98; petition to Charles I. concerning abuses on, 84*n*; Dutch and French ships, etc., in, 134-35; salt pans on, 253
- Tyne bridge received considerable damage during siege of Newcastle by Scots, 245; timber from Chopwell woods for its repair, 245; struggle for possession of, between Scots and royalists, 184
- Tyne ports, withdrawal by parliament of prohibition of trade with, 255
- Tynemouth, 'malignants. great ones from Oxford,' at, 134; brass pieces in the cellar at, 96, 97; parish register, 85*n*; Charles I. at, 85*n*; occasional visits of Charles I. to, 114; second visit of Charles I. to, 123; Skippon appointed governor of, 141; evacuated by Scots, 142; sir Thomas Riddell in command at, 161
- Tynemouth castle, Charles I. dined with governor of, 116; plague at, 224; surrender of, by sir Thomas Riddell, the governor, to Scots, 232; garrison of, decimated by plague, 232*n*
- Tynemouth lighthouse, demolition of, x.
- U.
- 'Unfreemen,' complaint of burgesses against licensing, 90, 93
- 'Uplight,' North Shields, fort near, 151
- Usworth, Scottish camp at, 183
- V.
- Vane, secretary, commanded to deliver up treasurer's staff, 107; sir Henry, and siege of Newcastle, 180.
- 'Vanguard' of 'Kincollie,' Scotch ship, 83*n*
- Verney Papers*, quoted, 102*n*
- Vice-presidents, deaths of, ix.
- Visits of Charles I. to Newcastle in 1633, 1639, 1641, 1646-47, 83
- W.
- Waldegrave, bishop of Carlisle, 13
- Wakefield, Scots at, 182
- Walker, 'malignants' at, 134
- Walker, sir Edward, 119; J. W., Newcastle plate belonging to, 50; Richard of Harton, by his will, ordered his silver tankard and gill to be made into a flagon for Jarrow church, 31
- Wallsend, Rev. E. H. Adamson, curate at, 282
- Walsingham, sir Francis, 296
- Warden church, Newcastle plate belonging to, 23
- Wark barony, Scots quartered in, temp. Charles I., 151
- Warmouth, Henry, mayor and deputy-lieutenant of Newcastle, 197*n*; appointed deputy-lieutenant of Newcastle by parliament, 247; appointed alderman of Newcastle in place of sir John Marley, 247*n*; mayor, 249*n*; William, 89*n*
- Watson, John, Newcastle plate belonging to, 45, 52, 69, 79; Thomas, Newcastle goldsmith, 7; plate made by, 79, 80, 81; William, a Gateshead vintner, 116
- Wauchope, sir John, of Niddrie, 218, 221*n*
- Wearmouth, Ethelbald, abbot of, 261; Cuthbert, abbot, 261
- Weatherley family, the, 48; Ilderton, 73

- Weavers' company, arms of, 50, 57
 Weddell, R., Newcastle plate belonging to, 44
 Welden, master Michael, sheriff of Northumberland, Marley after capture of Newcastle surrendered to custody of, 232; appointed deputy-lieutenant of Northumberland by parliament, 247
 Welford, Richard, History of Newcastle and Gateshead, 85*n* et seq.; his obituary notice of the rev. E. H. Adamson, V.P.
 Welton's regiment of Scots in Wark barony temp. Charles I., 151
 Whalley, stern suppression of a revolt against king Eardulf at, 275
 Whalton church, Newcastle plate belonging to, 26
 Wheler, rev. sir George, prebendary of Durham, gift of cup to Durham joiners' company, 42
 Whickham registers, entry concerning siege of Newcastle in, 193; captain James Cunninghame, a Scot, in, 234*n*
 Whitburn Lizards, the Scots position at, 171
 White, arms of, impaled by Ridley, 29
 Whitfield, Matthew, of Whitfield, got knighthood from Charles I., 125
 Whithern, Ethelbert, bishop of, 278
 'Whitlyon' of Lubeck, ship, 117*n*
 Widdrington, sir Thomas, appointed deputy-lieutenant of Northumberland by parliament, 247; William, 83*n*; major, Newcastle plate belonging to, 3, 37, 47, 50, 64, 65
 Widdrington church, Newcastle plate belonging to, 30
 Wilkinson, Anthony, 87*n*; John, Newcastle goldsmith, 7; plate made by 2, 3, 8, 9, 34 bis
 William III., act of, concerning silver plate, 1; raised standard, 1; provincial offices deprived of right of assay, 1; restored, 1
 Willington, Northumberland, 'malignants' at, 134
 Wilson, Mrs., Newcastle plate belonging to, 72
 Winchanheale [Finchale], Ethelwald Moll 'lost' throne at, 272
 Windy Nook, the rev. E. H. Adamson appointed to take charge of new district at, 283
 Wishart, Dr. George, sermon in St. Nicholas's church, Newcastle, 197, 199; 'a man of dangerous temper,' 223*n*; imprisoned at Edinburgh after siege of Newcastle, 223*n*
 Wooler, Scots at, 151, 155
 Wooler church, Newcastle plate belonging to, 21 bis
 Wray, Thomas, of Beamish, 'a grand papist,' colliery at Harraden, near Sunderland, belonging to, 257
 Wright, Edward of Gray's Inn, appointed recorder of Newcastle, 251; Hugh, 84*n*; John, 'keeper and overseer of a shoare' at South Shields, 87*n*
- Y.
- Yester, the master of, 217
 York, scholastic centre transferred to, after Bede's death, 264; archbishops of, 265; Osred, king of Northumbria, 'shorn' at, and deprived of kingdom, 273; Alcuin arrived at, 274; Eardulf crowned king of Northumberland at, 275; Eanbald, bishop of, 278; general Skippon at, 141; meeting of council at, 91; Scots march to, 175; Leven before, 177; capitulation of, 178, 182; walls of Newcastle 'stronger than those of,' 211
 Young, Robert, restored to possession of his collieries, etc., 25*n*
 Younger, Anthony, 202
 Youngusband, John, Newcastle goldsmith, plate made by, 3, 7, 19, 39, 30, 40
- Z.
- Zachary, pope, 278

B

