

V.—EARLY NEWCASTLE TYPOGRAPHY.

1639-1800.

(Supplemental list.)

By RICHARD WELFORD, M.A., a vice-president of the society.

Since the paper under the above heading was published (Arch. Ael., 3rd series, vol. III, pages 1-134), I have received from our colleague, Mr. Matthew Mackey, a list of other Newcastle early printed books in his possession, and from the Town Clerk and Public Library, Newcastle, a few similar publications, as follows. Where not otherwise indicated, the books are in Mr. Mackey's collection.

1716.

Nelson, Gilbert [Master of Kepier School]. *The Young Christian's Monitor: or, Instructions for the use of the Grammar School at Houghton-le-Spring, in the county of Durham. By the Master of that School.*¹ 16mo, 78 pp. J. White. [Kepier School Library.]

⁶ At the Public Library, Newcastle, the title page of vol. i reads—'Printed by and for L. Dinsdale and T. Angus,' while that of vol. ii reads—'Printed by L. Dinsdale and sold for him and T. Angus.' See previous list, pp 45, 99.

⁷ Other editions noted in this and the previous list.

⁸ Noted in previous list under date 1717, which date may have been a misprint in Bell's catalogue there quoted.

⁹ Another edition entered under date 1790 in previous list.

1789.

General Correspondence: or, Art of Writing Letters, etc. 8vo, xviii+212 pp. D. Akenhead.

1790.

Catalogue of a Valuable Collection of Books on Sale by John Bell, Bookseller, Bookbinder and Stationer, Union St., Newcastle. 8vo, 110 pp. No printer.

¹⁰ Other editions entered under dates 1783 and 1785 in previous list.

¹¹ Neither printer nor place of printing named, but it is presumed that such a purely local production would be printed in Newcastle.

1796.

The Sleeping Beauty in the Wood. 12mo, 24 pp. No printer, but the cuts are the same as White's.

1797.

Sheridan, C. F. Introductory Preface to an Essay on the Nature of Civil Liberty, etc. Published in Dublin, 1793. Reprinted by Joseph Whitfield, Bookseller, Tyne Bridge, Newcastle.¹² [Town Clerk, Newcastle.]

Killarley, Matthew. The Godly Man's Gain and the Wicked Man's Woe, etc. 12mo, 24 pp.

¹² First 20 pages only.

¹³ See pages 47 and 116 of previous list. Mr. Mackey suggests that there was an earlier edition, for his copy, undated, contains the inscription, 'Mary Watts, Aug. 3, 1796. The gift of her mother.'

¹⁴ Other editions noted in previous list under dates 1772 and 1786.

¹⁵ It is somewhat remarkable that no copy of Tinwell's Arithmetic itself of about this date is known to exist. For over half a century it was a standard schoolbook in the northern counties. The 21st (and last) edition was issued by M. and M. W. Lambert in 1863.

Looking Glass for Youth and Age: or, A Sure Guide to Life and Glory, etc. 12mo, 12 pp.

Mercy Remembered in the Midst of Judgment, etc. 12mo, 24 pp.
