

CHARLES B. P. BOSANQUET.

REV. THOMAS WILLIAM CARR, M.A.

1882.

The Rev. Thomas William Carr was an accomplished genealogist and for nearly 30 years a member of our society, yet he favoured us with only one communication, and that a very short one. He was born at Clifton, Bristol, on the 14th July, 1830, educated at Cheam school and Wadham College, Oxford, at which latter place he took his degrees, B.A., in 1853 and M.A. in 1854. Was ordained by the Archbishop of Canterbury; and after various curacies, obtained the living of Loddington, Northants, in 1857, and that of Barming, near Maidstone, in 1865. He was made rural dean of North Malling in 1891. He owned, for some years, the estate of Eshott Heugh, in Northumberland, under the will of Sir Culling E. Eardley, bart., his relative. His communication to our Society consisted of a few notes which appear in our Proceedings, series III, vol. iii, p. 61. He wrote also some notes on the name of Carr in Welford's Newcastle and Gateshead, vol. i, p. 411. His chief effort in local literature was the compilation of the third of three folio volumes issued by the late Col. Ralph Edward and Cuthbert Ellison Carr, of Dunston Hill, near Whickham, on the History of the Family of Carr. He died on the 26th of December, 1912.

PUBLICATIONS.

The History of the Family of Carr of Woodhall, Lesbury, Eshott and Hetton. Vol. iii. 1889.

A Retrospect for my Friends in Felton. 1910.

CHARLES BERTIE PULLEINE BOSANQUET.

1883.

Born December 27, 1834, Mr. C. B. P. Bosanquet was educated at Eton, matriculated at Balliol College, Oxford, where he took his degrees, B.A. in 1857 and M.A. in 1859, admitted student at Lincoln's Inn in 1858, and was called to the Bar in 1861. Elected a member of the Berwickshire Naturalists' Club in 1859, he assisted his father in preparing a paper which appears in the club's Transactions, vol. vi., on the history of the family estate of Rock, followed later by notes on the winters of 1878-9 and 1879-80. In 1890 he became a member of the committee appointed to compile a new history of Northumberland. Mr. Bosanquet was a justice of the peace, a member of the Alnwick Board of Guardians, chairman of the Rural Sanitary Authority of that town, and honorary secretary of the Newcastle Diocesan Conference and Church Extension Committee. He died on the 18th June, 1905.

JOHN ROBERTS BOYLE, F.S.A.

1883.

John Roberts Boyle was born at Accrington in 1853, educated at Manchester Grammar school, and at a comparatively early age entered the Swedenborgian ministry. He came from Hull to Newcastle, to take ministerial charge of the New Jerusalem Church, in 1883, and, being a cultured antiquary, joined our Society shortly after his arrival. His success in collecting antiquarian material among us was surprising; his energy and ingenuity in gathering up scattered threads of local history and weaving them into consecutive narrative, was quite phenomenal. He read papers, compiled books, and took an active part in all our discussions, and, while he earnestly maintained his own readings and renderings, his manners were suave, and bland, and void of offence. For eleven years he remained with us, then returned to Hull, and there, in September, 1907, he died. The following list comprises the most part of his writings:—

ARCHAEOLOGIA AELIANA. SERIES II.

Vol. x.

On the Monastery and Church of St. Paul's, Jarrow. With Plate, etc.
P. 195.

On the Windows in the Church of St. Paul's, Jarrow. With Plate. P. 217.

Vol. xi.

On the Monastery and Church of St. Peter, Monkwearmouth. With Plates. P. 33.

Vol. xii.

The Plate and Insignia of the Corporation of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.
Illustrated. P. 236.

Vol. xiii.

The Insignia and Plate of the Corporation of Morpeth. Illustrated.
P. 201.

Vol. xiv.

Christopher Hunter's Copy of Bourne's History of Newcastle. P. 167.

Vol. xvi.

The Goldsmiths of Newcastle. With Autographs. P. 397.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE SOCIETY. SERIES II.

Vol. i.

Description of St. Peter's Church, Monkwearmouth, and St. Paul, Jarrow, and a Paper on 'The Saxon Churches of Northumberland and Durham' read at the meeting of the Archaeological Institute in Newcastle. Pp. 252, 253, 258.

Vol. ii.

The Chapel of St. Lawrence, Newcastle. With Illustration. P. 15.

Translation of Licence to consecrate St. Margaret's, Durham. P. 29.

Notes of a Visit to the Saxon Churches of Northamptonshire. With Illustrations. P. 116.

A Catalogue of Books for Sale by Auction on Tyne Bridge in 1693. P. 157.

St. Edmund's Chapel, Gateshead. P. 160.

Vol. iii.

Communion Plate of St. Andrew's Church, Newcastle. P. 24.

Communion Plate of St. Andrew's and St. John's. P. 48.

St. Mary's Church, Morpeth. P. 104.

West Boldon Church. P. 135.

West Boldon Hall. P. 136.

Parish Registers. P. 174.

The Carville Sundial. P. 197.

Communion Plate of St. Mary's, Gateshead. P. 236.

Chester-le-Street Church. P. 297.

Vol. iv.

- The Piscina of St. John's Church, Newcastle. P. 233.
 The History of Northumberland. Pp. 256, 261.
 Notes on the Chapel of the Virgin at Jesmond. P. 263.
 Notes on King John's Palace, Jesmond. P. 265.

Vol. v.

- Notes on the Conyers Falchion. P. 27.
 On Four Memorial Brasses in the County of Durham. P. 126.

OTHER PUBLICATIONS.

- The Barton Inventory of 1619. 1879.
 Memoirs of Master John Shawe. 1882.
 Saxon Architecture in Northamptonshire. 1885.
 Guide to the Keep and Great Gate of the Castle of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.
 1885.
 Notes on Corbridge's Actual Survey of Newcastle-upon-Tyne. 1889.
 The Roman Wall. A Reconsideration of its Problems. (In Archaeological Review, September, 1889.)
 Notes on the Lost Towns of the Humber. 1889.
 Holy Trinity Church, Hull. A Guide and Description. 1890.
 Vestiges of Old Newcastle and Gateshead. Illustrated by W. H. Knowles.
 1890.
 The Cathedral Church of St. Nicholas. Illustrated by W. H. Knowles.
 1891.
 The Holderness Coast. 1891.
 Comprehensive Guide to the County of Durham. With Maps and Plans.
 1892.
 A Modern Literary Fraud: the Johnson MSS. 1893.
 The Early History of the Town and Part of Hedon, with 13 Illustrations.
 1895.
 Numerous Papers and Articles in the Monthly Chronicle of North Country Lore and Legend, and various Hull papers and periodicals.

JOHN PATTISON GIBSON, F.S.A.

1883.

Few men have been more thoroughly imbued with the spirit of exploration into Roman antiquities than J. P. Gibson. Born at Hexham on the 4th of January, 1838, son of W. W. Gibson, of that town, he was educated at the local Grammar School and at the Grammar School of Newcastle, and followed his father in his business as a chemist. Studying photography in the early infancy of the art, he devoted himself to the production of picturesque landscapes and the numerous medieval churches, towers and peles in which his native county abounds. These led him into the study of archaeology and gave him that bias towards the investigation of Roman rule in Britain which distinguished the greater part of his life. After the death of Mr. Clayton and Dr. Bruce, he was our recognised local authority on all subjects connected with the Roman Wall. He at first maintained, contrary to Dr. Bruce, that Severus built the wall, but in later years he changed sides and became a devoted adherent to the theory of the latter, that Hadrian was the builder. It is to his energy and perseverance that we owe much of modern exploration on the course of the Wall. His diggings among mile castles and wall turrets, revealed features not suspected or imperfectly appreciated by older explorers. Although the oft debated question of the builder remained unsolved, Mr. Gibson's researches contributed to its elucidation. In addition to his membership of our Society, Mr. Gibson was on the committee of the Durham and Northumberland Architectural and Archaeological Society, and acted as guide, philosopher and friend when that Society, and our own, in 1904, visited the Roman Stations of Borcovicus and Procolitia.

JOHN PATTISON GIBSON, F.S.A.

While he devoted the greater part of his time to photography and archaeological investigation, Mr. Gibson was not unmindful of the sterner duties which await the patriotic citizen. From the age of twenty-five he was an enthusiastic volunteer. When he retired from the service, ten years before his death, which occurred on the 22nd of April, 1912, he carried with him the rank of major, and received the Victoria decoration. He was also, in his later years, a gifted and welcome lecturer. It was a source of great delight to see him on the platform, discoursing, as was his wont, on Northumbrian history, scenery, and his beloved Roman Wall.

The papers which he read to our Society and the discussions in which he took part are enumerated below :—

ARCHAEOLOGIA AELIANA. SERIES II.

Vol. xii.

The Bells of the Priory Church of St. Andrew, Hexham. P. 299.

Vol. xxiii.

Lecture and Exhibit of Pictures on the Roman Wall. P. xi.

Vol. xxiv.

Mucklebank Wall Turret. With Plate and Illustration. P. 13.

On Excavations at Great Chesters (Aesica) in 1894, 1895 and 1897. With Plan and Illustrations. P. 19.

IBID. SERIES III.

Vol. v.

Recently Discovered Roman Inscriptions. By J. Pattison Gibson and F. Gerald Simpson. With Illustrations. P. 158.

The Roman Fort on the Stanegate at Haltwhistle. By J. Pattison Gibson and F. Gerald Simpson. With Plans and Illustrations. P. 213.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE SOCIETY. SERIES II.

Vol. v.

Remarks on Photographs of the Antonine Wall and of the Roman Wall. P. 117.

Notes on a Map of the Country between the Tyne and the Solway, made about the Middle of the 18th Century, showing the Roman Wall, etc. P. 161.

Remarks on a Newly Discovered Altar to Jupiter at Wallsend. P. 165.

On the Styca. P. 213.

On the Making of Bows. P. 238.

Remarks on Photographs of the Vallum and Murus in the Neighbourhood of the Mucklebank Turret. P. 228.

Vol. vi.

On the Roman Military Organisation and the Roman Daily Life in Northumberland. P. 145.

IBID. SERIES III.

Vol. i.

Addresses at Country Meeting at Housesteads with Durham and Northumberland Archaeological Society. P. 205.

Vol. ii.

Ancient British Graves near Dilston. P. 50.

Note on a Pre-conquest Stone at Hexham Priory Church. P. 232.

Remarks on the Mural Problem. P. 305.

Vol. iii.

On Haltwhistle burn Camp. Pp. 40, 79, 162.

Excavations per Lineam Valli. P. 218.

Vol. iv.

On Over Denton Church. P. 186.

Vol. v.

On an Anglian Cross found at Hexham. P. 1.

WILLIAM SEARLE HICKS.

1883.

W. S. Hicks was the son of a Dorsetshire vicar, born on the 6th of March, 1849. He came to Newcastle in 1866 as an apprentice to Messrs. Austin and Johnson, architects. Shortly after the term of his servitude expired, namely, in 1875, he joined the firm as a partner, and so remained till 1882, when he began to practice on his own account. Among his early undertakings were the rebuilding of churches at Shilbottle, Lambley and Blyth, and the restoration of the church of St. John Lee, near Hexham. Thereafter a long list of ecclesiastical edifices, by him built or restored, testify to his professional acquirements and activity. For a time he was diocesan surveyor for Newcastle, but apart from his business in that direction, his services were in constant request for commercial and domestic architecture in the district. Among other artistic productions he designed the pastoral staff of Bishop Lightfoot of Durham. He died on the 21st of November, 1902.

Mr. Hicks wrote for us the following:—

ARCHAEOLOGIA AELIANA. SERIES II.

Vol. xii.

Notes on the Chapel of Our Lady at Seaton Delaval. P. 229.

Vol. xiii.

Notes on Recent Discoveries at Kirkwhelpington Parish Church. Illustrated. P. 47.

Vol. xvii.

Plates and Drawings of Easington Church. P. 290.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE SOCIETY. SERIES II.

Vol. iii.

Drawing of Cup and Plate belonging to the Merchants' Company, Newcastle. P. 324.

Vol. vii.

Notes on Whalton Church. Illustrated. P. 212.

PROFESSOR EMIL HÜBNER.

Honorary Member, 1883.

Emil Hübner was born at Düsseldorf in 1834, and educated at Berlin and Bonn, becoming in 1870 professor of classical philology at Berlin, having already attained distinction as a philologist and archaeologist. He was elected an Honorary Fellow of the Society of Antiquaries of London, May 29, 1873. On July 25, 1883, on the motion of the Rev. William Greenwell, seconded by Dr. Bruce, our Society honoured itself by electing him an honorary member. From his great experience and erudition in Roman epigraphy he was often appealed to by, or on behalf of, the Society in cases of doubtful readings. He died February 27, 1901. The memoir, which Mr. C. J. Bates read at the monthly meeting held on March 27, 1901, was unfortunately mislaid and has never been printed. Professor Hübner contributed to our publications:—

ARCHAEOLOGIA AELIANA. SERIES II.

Vol. x.

On Roman Signet Rings (in a letter to Dr. Bruce). P. 135.

On the Discovery of Roman Inscribed Altars, etc., at Housesteads. P. 155.

Vol. xi.

The Roman Annexation of Britain. P. 82.

Note on a Small Roman Altar from Magna. P. 283.

Vol. xiii.

On an Inscription at Cliburn. P. 185.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE SOCIETY. SERIES II.

Vol. iii.

On a Bronze Patera from South Shields (p. 173); on a Roman Inscription at Cliburn (p. 176); on a Roman Sculptured Fragment from Wigton. P. 250.

Vol. iv.

On an Inscription to Coventina. P. 158.

Vol. v.

On the Wallsend Altar to Jupiter. P. 164.

OTHER PUBLICATIONS.

Inscriptiones Britanniae Christianae. 1876.

Corpus Inscriptionum Latinarum. 1869-1873.

Arqueologia de España. 1888.

JOHN DANIEL LEADER, F.S.A.

Correspondent, 1883.

John Daniel Leader of Sheffield, was elected a Fellow of the Society of Antiquaries of London in 1875, and died December 30, 1899. A Roman knife found at Cilurnum, about four feet below the surface, shortly before his visit to that place in 1883, gave him special interest as connected with an industry of which Sheffield is famous, and induced him to write a paper on the object.

ARCHAEOLOGIA AELIANA. SERIES II.

Vol. x.

Notes on a Roman Knife found at Cilurnum. Illustrated. P. 115.

OTHER PUBLICATIONS.

Records of the Burgery of Sheffield commonly called the Town Trust.
Mary Queen of Scots in Captivity (1569-1584). 1880.
On the Templeborough Roman Camp near Rotherham.

REV. JOHN LOW LOW, M.A.

1883.

The Rev. John Low Low, born about 1817, was educated at University College, Durham, where he obtained his degrees—B.A., 1846, M.A., 1849. His first curacy was that of St. Margaret's, Durham, which he occupied from 1844 to 1847; thence went to be curate of Forest and Harewood, where he remained till 1872 and then received the living of Whittonstall near Shotley Bridge. He was a member, and one of the committee, of the Architectural and Archaeological Society of Durham and Northumberland, and in 1883 he joined our Society. But his career as an antiquary was brief, for on the 8th of February, 1888, aged 71, he died. He wrote the following papers and books.

ARCHAEOLOGIA AELIANA. SERIES II.

Vol. xi.

On the Authorities for the History of St. Cuthbert. P. 18.
Whittonstall Church. Illustrated. P. 180.
Coldingham Priory. P. 186.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE SOCIETY. SERIES II.

Vol. i.

Description of Holy Island, at Archaeological Institute Meeting. P. 318.

Vol. ii.

The Chapel of St. Margaret, Durham. P. 29.
Further Remarks on Coldingham Priory. P. 258.

Vol. iii.

St. Ceolfrid, Abbot of Monkwearmouth and Jarrow, and the Amiatine Codex. P. 51.

ARCHITECTURAL AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL SOCIETY.

Vol. ii.

Middleton in Teesdale. P. 147.

OTHER PUBLICATIONS.

The Diocesan History of Durham. With Map and Plans. 1881.

The Diocese of Newcastle: Ancient Memories. 1882

Historic Scenes in Durham Cathedral. 1887.

ROBERT MORTON MIDDLETON, F.L.S., F.Z.S.

1883.

Robert Morton Middleton was a son of the manager of Messrs. Backhouse's bank at Northallerton. He bore the same name as his father, and was born at Sowerby, near Thirsk, on the 25th of January, 1846. Educated at Jackson's school, he very early in life became absorbed in the pursuit of natural history and the study of antiquity. In 1876 he removed to West Hartlepool, where his father had acquired an interest in shipping, and for several years followed the occupation of a shipowner. It was while so engaged that in 1883 he joined our society. A couple of years later, his health giving way, he and his family migrated to the United States of America, and settled down in sunny Tennessee. Here too ill health, with family bereavement, pursued him, and he returned to Ealing, near London, where he interested himself in church work, and especially in the operations of the Bible Society, the Livingston College, the South American Missionary Society, and the Society for the Protection of Native Races. Eventually he went out to Chili to work among the Araucanian Indians, and there he remained four or five years. Coming home once more, he took up his residence at Kew, and at that place, on the 9th of August, 1909, he died.

Mr. Middleton was a Fellow of the Linnean and Zoological Societies and a member of the Anthropological Institute. He frequently lectured on various aspects of natural history, and, at the time of his death, he was occupied in botanical work at the South Kensington Natural History Museum, adding to the herb-arium the plants he had brought from Chili, and arranging and classifying others. His contributions to our literature were as follows:—

ARCHAEOLOGIA AELIANA. SERIES II.

Vol. x.

On Some Vestiges of Roman Occupation between West Hartlepool and Seaton Carew. P. 103.

On Yoden, a Medieval Site between Castle Eden and Easington. P. 186.

On a Leaden Tobacco Stopper, found at Castle Eden. P. 188.

On an Armlet of Fine Gold, found at Shotton. P. 189.

OTHER PUBLICATIONS.

The First Fuegian Collection. In the Journal of Botany, June, 1908.

A Mountain Climb in Tennessee, with Notes on the Fauna and Flora of the Southern Appalachians. n.d.

THEODOR MOMMSEN.

Honorary Member, 1883.

Theodor Mommsen, born November 30, 1817, was a son of the parsonage, his father being the pastor of Garding in Schleswig. Educated at Altona, and the University of Kiel, he was for a short time editor of the Schleswig-Holstein Zeitung, but in 1848 was appointed professor of Civil Law at Leipzig. He was successively professor of Roman Law at Zurich, in 1852, and at Breslau in 1854, and professor of Ancient History at Berlin in 1858. There he chiefly spent the remainder of his life, and there he died, 1st November, 1903. A scholar of world-wide reputation and a man of enormous industry, his literary output is stated to have exceeded a thousand volumes and papers. He was elected an Honorary Member of our society in 1883.

CHIEF PUBLICATIONS.

Corpus Inscriptionum Latinarum.

Monumenta Germaniae Historica.

Römische Geschichte. 1854.

Römische Staatsrecht. 1871-1876.

WILLIAM SHAND.

Correspondent, 1883.

William Shand was the son of a Jamaica planter and landed proprietor of the same name, who owned the estates of The Burn and Arnhall in Kincardineshire. He was born in May, 1825, was educated at home, with a tutor, and afterwards in Aberdeen, and came to Newcastle as a clerk in the Bank of England, whence he went to London to fill a similar position. Returning to Newcastle, where he had married in 1852, he started business as an accountant. Being a man of scholarly attainments, he formed the acquaintance of cultivated citizens, who, meeting at each others houses, discussed intellectual subjects and the problems of the day. Among them were W. B. Scott the poet artist, Dr. Hayle, a homœopathic physician, J. M. Maclean, then editor of the Newcastle Chronicle, afterwards M.P., J. E. L. Black, and one or two others of like character and attainments. Ten years later, about 1862, he went to St. Nazaire, for his relatives the Scotts, well known Clyde shipbuilders, to superintend the construction of several transatlantic steamers for the French Government. In that work he was engaged for five or six years, and, on its termination, he settled in Paris as an agent for various wine growers. The Franco-Prussian war put an end to that business, and he eventually came back to Newcastle. Having acquired a knowledge of Greek and Latin at school, and being equally at home in French, Italian, German and Spanish he, now in his later life, took up the study of Oriental languages—Aramaic,

Coptic, and Syriac—and became a member of the Newcastle Hebrew Study Society. He died March 26, 1901, having contributed to our pages:—

ARCHAEOLOGIA AELIANA. SERIES II.

Vol. x.

Memoir of Dr. Thomlinson, the Founder of the Thomlinson Library. P. 59.

Vol. xv.

Researches into the Family Relationships of the Rev. Robert Thomlinson, D.D. P. 340.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE SOCIETY. SERIES II.

Vol. i.

Earthworks at the Pottery Bank, Stepney, Newcastle. P. 140.

GEORGE STEPHENS, F.S.A.

Honorary Member, 1883.

George Stephens, born at Liverpool, December 13, 1813, was a son of the manse, his father being the Rev. John Stephens, an eminent Methodist divine who, in his turn, filled the office of President of the Wesleyan Conference. He was educated at private schools and at University College, London, where he displayed a marked predilection for languages. On attaining manhood he settled at Stockholm where he remained until 1851, when he was appointed lector (afterwards professor) of the English language and literature in the University of Copenhagen. He was elected a Fellow of the London Society of Antiquaries in 1861, and an honorary member of our society, June 27th, 1883. An ardent student in philology and a prolific writer, both in English and Danish, he worked and studied to the very end of a long life, for the writer of the present notice called on him at his house No. 1, Bianco Luno's Allée in Copenhagen, on August 6th, 1895; when he conversed with animation on archaeological subjects. He died three days later on the 9th August, full of years and honour.

ARCHAEOLOGIA AELIANA. SERIES II.

Vol. vi.

The Beckermes Inscription. With Plate. P. 191.

Vol. viii.

The Bride Kirk Font. P. 118.

Vol. x.

On the Shaft of an Anglie Inscribed Cross discovered in the Church at Chester-le-Street. With Woodcuts. P. 88.

On Roman Inscribed Altars at Housesteads. P. 166.

OTHER PUBLICATIONS.

The Old-Northern Runic Monuments of Scandinavia and England, now first collected and deciphered. 4 vols. 1866-1901.

Handbook to the Old Northern Runic Monuments of Scandinavia and England. 1884.

The Runes, Whence Came They? 1894.

REV. WILLIAM PALEY ANDERSON.

Correspondent, 1884.

The Rev. William Paley Anderson, born at Hickling Rectory, Notts, in 1824, came of a Tyneside stock, being the son of the Rev. Edward Anderson, by his marriage with Anne, daughter of that eminent divine William Paley, Archdeacon of Carlisle and Rector of Bishopwearmouth. Mr. Edward Anderson was admitted to the freedom of Newcastle, July 14, 1827, as son of Edward Anderson, merchant adventurer, admitted free of the merchants company March 1, 1748, as son of Abraham Anderson, who had gained the freedom of that company, August 27, 1707, by serving an apprenticeship with Lyonel Blagden. W. P. Anderson, the subject of this notice, was educated at St. John's College, Cambridge, graduated B.A., 1847; M.A., 1850; B.D., 1857; and was ordained deacon in 1852 and priest in 1853. He was fellow and tutor of Emmanuel College from 1850 to 1857, when he accepted the college living of Winsford in Somersetshire. He was collated to the prebend of Holcombe in Wells Cathedral, in 1892, and died at Winsford Vicarage, February 13, 1908, aged 83.

Claiming descent from Francis Anderson, sheriff of Newcastle in 1560, the hero of the mythical story of the 'Fish and the Ring,' known to all local historians, Mr. Anderson exhibited this famous ring to the Society on August 27, 1884, and described it in a letter addressed to the Rev. E. H. Adamson which is printed in the

PROCEEDINGS OF THE SOCIETY. SERIES II.

Vol. i.

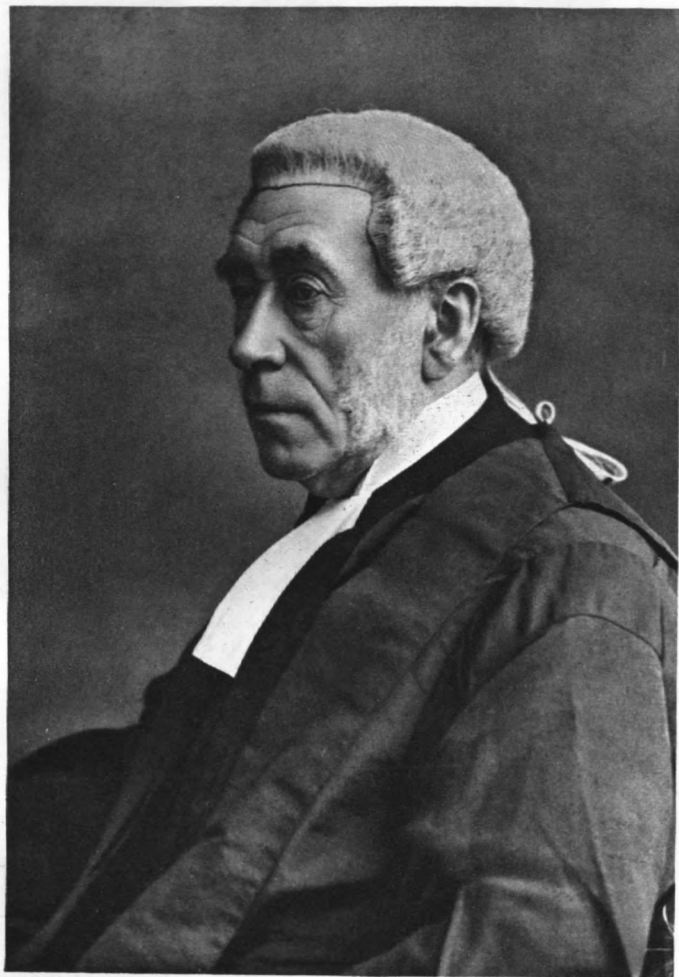

The Salmon Ring. P. 165.

SIR GAINSFORD BRUCE, M.P. AND JUDGE.

1884.

Sir Gainsford Bruce was the eldest son of Dr. John Collingwood Bruce, and was born in Newcastle in 1834. After being educated by his father and at Glasgow University, he commenced to study law, and in 1859 was called to the Bar, and came the Northern Circuit. He received the appointment of Recorder of Bradford in 1877, Solicitor General of the County Palatine of Durham in 1878, Attorney General in 1886 and Chancellor in 1887. In 1880 he unsuccessfully contested the borough of Gateshead, and in 1883 that of Newcastle, and was finally elected to Parliament, in 1888, for the Holborn division of Finsbury. Having taken silk in 1883, he became a judge in the King's Bench division in 1892 when he was knighted, and remained on the bench until failing health involved his resignation. He was an hon. D.C.L. of Durham and a member of His Majesty's Privy Council.

In addition to all these honours Sir Gainsford was an enthusiastic yachtsman, being commodore of the Northumberland Yacht

SIR GAINSFORD BRUCE ONE OF H.M. JUDGES.

Club, and a member of the Royal Yacht Club at Cowes. In freemasonry, too, he held a distinguished place, having been Past Grand Senior Warden of all England.

It was not until Sir Gainsford had been somewhat relieved from the pressure of public work that he found time to contribute to our proceedings. He occasionally looked in at our meetings, and gave us several of his late father's plans, drawings, etc., but beyond these transient visits, and a few small fugitive notes, he did not participate in the society's transactions. He died on the 12th of February, 1912.

ARCHAEOLOGIA AELIANA. SERIES III.

Vol. iii.

On the English Expedition into Scotland in 1542. With Illustrations. P. 191.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE SOCIETY. SERIES III.

Vol. ii.

Notes on three Volumes of Sketches by the Richardsons and Others, belonging to the Society. P. 384.

Vol. iii.

Notes on a Rushlight Holder from a Surrey Cottage and a 'Crusie.' P. 38.

Vol. v.

Remarks on the Ancient City of Wisby in Gothland. P. 248.

OTHER PUBLICATIONS.

The High Priest of Epona: A Lay of Ancient Rome. After Macaulay. [Anonymous]. 1857.

A Letter to the Right Worshipful the Mayor of Newcastle-upon-Tyne on the Burgess and Non-Burgess Courts of Record of Newcastle-upon-Tyne. 1864.

REV. E. B. DWARRIS, M.A.

Correspondent, 1884.

During the visit of the Royal Archaeological Institute to Newcastle the Rev. Canon Dwaris, vicar of St. Peter's, Bywell, contributed some notes on Bywell, with illustrations for the information of the visitors. They appeared in Archaeologia

Aeliana, series II, vol. XI, page II, but were superseded by the long paper which the Rev. Anthony Johnson of Healey, then his curate, read to the Society on the same subject shortly after. He was a son of Sir Fortunatus Dwarrris, F.R.S., born in London May 22, 1810, educated at Eton and University College, Durham, ordained priest in 1841, proceeded M.A. in 1842, and, among other appointments held the office of hon. canon of Newcastle and chaplain to the bishop. Among his early curacies was that of St. Andrew's, Newcastle. He died on the 10th May, 1901, aged 84 years.

RICHARD SAUL FERGUSON, F.S.A.

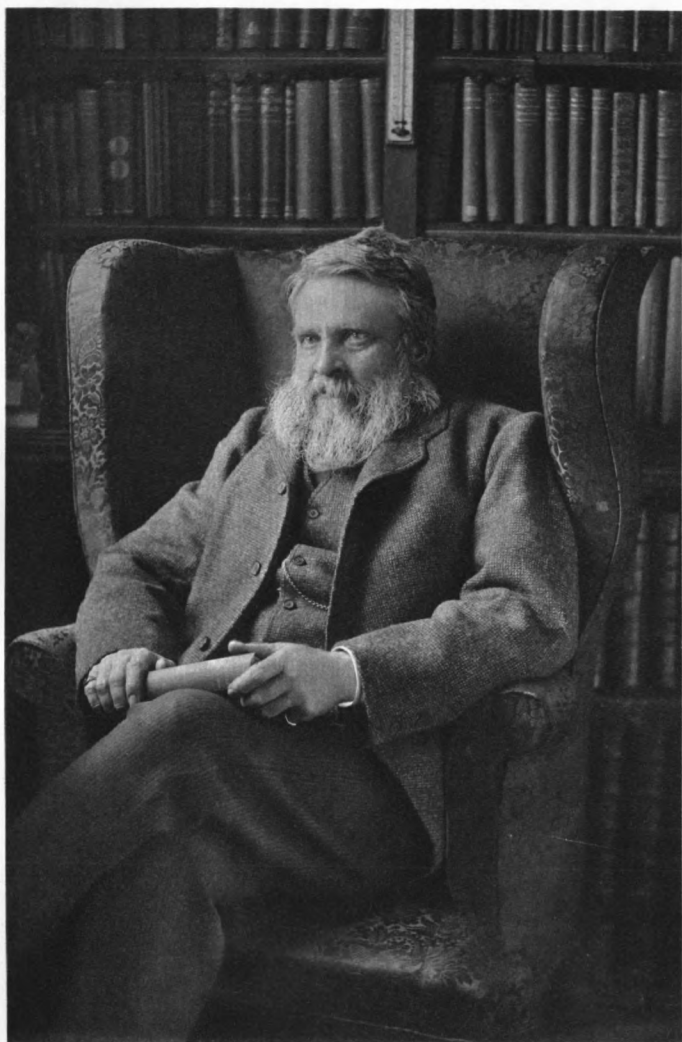

1884.

Richard Saul Ferguson, born July 28, 1837, son of Joseph Ferguson of Carlisle, educated at Carlisle Grammar school, Shrewsbury school, and St. John's College, Cambridge, where he took the degree of B.A. in 1860, proceeding M.A. in 1863 and LL.M. 1874, was called to the Bar at Lincoln's Inn, in 1862, and practised on the Northern Circuit for about ten years. He was elected a Fellow of the Society of Antiquaries of London in 1877, and a member of our Society in 1884. He was also a Fellow of the Society of Antiquaries of Scotland, a member of the Royal Archaeological Institute, of the Surtees Society and one of the founders of the Cumberland and Westmorland Archaeological Society, and in 1887 was appointed chancellor of the diocese of Carlisle. Devoted to his native city and county, Mr. Ferguson extended his field of study in the one direction to Westmorland, and in the other to the whole course of the Roman Wall, from sea to sea. He died March 3, 1900, leaving behind him the reputation of a prodigious worker. His printed works comprise:—

ARCHAEOLOGIA AELIANA. SERIES II.

Vol. xi.

On a Roman Inscribed Tombstone found in Carlisle. Illustrated. P. 127.

RICHARD SAUL FERGUSON, F.S.A.

Vol. xii.

Report of Excavations in Cumberland per lineam Valli. Illustrated.
P. 159.

On a Roman Inscription discovered at Cliburn. Illustrated. P. 289.

Vol. xiii.

An Unknown Percy Medal. Illustrated. P. 69.

Hadrian's Great Barrier. P. 85.

The Wall and Vallum of Hadrian. P. 181.

Potters' Marks [from Carlisle]. P. 198.

Vol. xx.

Picture Board Dummies at Raby and Callaly Castles. P. 278.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE SOCIETY. SERIES II.

Vol. ii.

On Roman Sepulchral Inscription from Carlisle. P. 25.

Notes on the Lapidarium Septentrionale. P. 142.

On Two Roman Inscriptions. P. 251.

On a Figure of Saturn. P. 328.

Vol. iii.

On Heworth Chalice and Paten. P. 48.

Site of Roman Bridge over Eden. P. 157.

On the Illegality of Disposing of Church Plate. P. 277.

The Retreat of the Highlanders in 1745. P. 278.

On Roman Sculptured Stone found at Carlisle. P. 307.

Vol. iv.

On Roman Remains found at Carlisle. P. 40.

Vol. v.

On Roman Inscriptions in Cumberland and Westmorland. P. 16.

On a Stockade discovered at Carlisle. P. 156.

On a Gold Coin of Beneventum found at Carlisle. P. 185.

On Discoveries at Tullie House, Carlisle. P. 185.

On Hardknot. P. 185.

He also edited

Twelve volumes of the Transactions of the Cumberland and Westmorland
Antiquarian and Archaeological Society. 1874-1894.

Bishop Nicholson's Visitation and Survey of the Diocese of Carlisle. 1877.

The Old Church Plate of the Diocese of Carlisle. 1882.

Some Municipal Records of the City of Carlisle (in conjunction with W. Nanson). 1887.

- Denton's Account of Cumberland. 1887.
 Fleming's Description of Cumberland. 1889.
 Hugh Todd's Account of the City and Diocese of Carlisle. 1890.
 The Boke of Recorde of the Burgh of Kirkby Kendal. 1892.
 Todd's Notitia Ecclesiae Cathedralis Carliolensis. 1892.
 Testamenta Karleolensia. 1893.
 An Archaeological Survey of Westmorland, Cumberland and Lancashire
 (with H. S. Cowper). 1893.
 The Royal Charters of Carlisle. 1894.

ARCHAEOLOGICAL JOURNAL.

- Vol. xxxvii.
 Observations on the Supposed Sword of Sir Hugh de Morville. P. 99.
 Vol. xxxix.
 Notes on the Initial Letter of a Charter of Edward II to the City of Carlisle. P. 291.
 Vol. xli.
 Civic Maces. P. 370.
 Vol. xlii.
 The Morpeth Great Mace. P. 90.
 The Carlisle Bushel. P. 303.
 Vol. xliv.
 Culver-houses. P. 105.
 Vol. xlv.
 Opening Address to the Section of Architecture at the Leamington Meeting. P. 257.
 Vol. xlvii.
 Picture-Board Dummies at the County Hotel, Carlisle. P. 321.
 Vol. xlviii.
 The Heraldry of the Cumberland Statesmen. P. 77.
 Vol. l.
 On a Massive Timber Platform of Early Date uncovered at Carlisle.
 P. 20.
 Vol. lii.
 Picture-Board Dummies. P. 1.
 On a Dumb-bell at Knole. P. 45.
 Notes on Two Curious Padlocks in the Carlisle Museum. P. 250.
 On the Chap-books on the Bibliotheca Jacksoniana in Tullie House,
 Carlisle. P. 292.
 Vol. liii.
 Notes about Dumb-bells. P. 19.

Vol. lv.

More Picture-Board Dummies. P. 183.

Vol. lvi.

Consistory Courts and Consistory Places. P. 85.

A Persian Talisman. P. 175.

Notes on a Door Lock. P. 180.

OTHER PUBLICATIONS.

Early Cumberland and Westmorland Friends. 1871.

Cumberland and Westmorland M.P.'s from the Restoration to the Reform Bill of 1867. 1871.

Short Account of Lanercost. (In conjunction with C. J. Ferguson.) 1870.

Moss Gathered by a Rolling Stone. 1873.

The Cumberland Fox-hounds, 1877.

Handbook to Places near Carlisle. 1882.

History of Carlisle. 1889.

History of Cumberland. 1898.

Archaeological Survey of Westmorland, Cumberland and Lancashire. 1893.

History of Westmorland. 1894.

Carlisle Cathedral. 1898.

Municipal Offices of Carlisle. In the Antiquary. Vol. xiv.Retreat of the Highlanders in 1745. In the Reliquary, 2 ser., vol. ii.

REV. JOSEPH HIRST.

Correspondent, 1884.

The Rev. Joseph Hirst, eldest son of Joseph Hirst, of Leeds, was born about 1843, and educated at the Roman Catholic school of Radcliffe, near Leicester, St. Sulpice, Eichstadt, and at the English College at Rome. He was ordained a priest at Turin in 1872, and served successively the Roman Catholic missions at Rugby and Wadhurst, being appointed president of Ratcliffe College, where he himself had been educated, in 1885. He was elected a member of the Archaeological Institute in 1884, and for several years took a prominent part in its affairs, being secretary of the Antiquarian section of the Newcastle meeting in 1884, and contributing many valuable papers to the publications. He died at Manchester, October 20, 1895, aged 52. His contributions to the publications of our Society were:—

ARCHAEOLOGIA AELIANA. SERIES II.

Vol. xi.

The Pfahl-Graben. P. 52.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE SOCIETY. SERIES II.

Vol. i.

Mining Operations of the Romans in Britain. P. 226.

ARCHAEOLOGICAL JOURNAL.

Vol. xl.

On the Existence of a British People on the Continent known to the Romans in the First Century. P. 80.

On the Native Levies raised by the Romans in Britain. P. 243.

On a Roman Fire-Brigade in Britain. P. 327.

Vol. xli.

On the Methods used by the Romans for Extinguishing Conflagrations. P. 155.

On the Religious Symbolism of the Unicorn. P. 230.

Vol. xlii.

On the Mining Operations of the Ancient Romans, with Special Reference to Blast-furnaces. P. 20.

Vol. xlix.

On Guildship in Anglo-Saxon Monasteries. P. 107.

JAMES G. MOFFATT.

Correspondent, 1884.

James G. Moffatt, born about 1823 at Lilburn Cottage, in the parish of Eglingham, was a son of Charles Moffatt, who for 52 years was agent to the Lilburn Tower estates. He died January 21, 1889, aged 66, and was buried, near his parents, in the graveyard of the ruined chapel of Lilburn, a hundred yards from the house in which he was born and in which he died.

The paper cited below was supplemented by an account contributed to the Society on October 30, 1889, by Dr. James Hardy on further discoveries on the same farm.

ARCHAEOLOGIA AELIANA. SERIES II.

Vol. x.

Prehistoric Grave from the Lilburn-hill Farm, on the Lilburn Tower Estate. With Plate, Woodcuts, etc. P. 220.

WILLIAM THOMPSON WATKIN.

Correspondent, 1884.

William Thompson Watkin, born in 1836, son of John Watkin, of Salford, was engaged in mercantile pursuits at Liverpool, where he took on him the duties of honorary librarian of the Historic Society of Lancashire and Cheshire. He devoted himself to the study of the Roman occupation of Britain, was particularly successful in the decipherment of difficult Roman inscriptions, and was the author of two valuable works on the subject. He died March 23, 1888. His MSS. were presented to the Chetham Library in Manchester. A list of his printed writings may be found in the Transactions of the Lancashire and Cheshire Antiquarian Society, Vol. vi.

ARCHAEOLOGIA AELIANA. SERIES II.

Vol. x.

Remarks upon Groups of Roman Milestones. P. 130.

On the Discovery of Roman Inscribed Altars, etc., at Housesteads. Pp. 150, 155.

Vol. xii.

On Inscriptions of the Roman Period. Pp. 290, 292.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE SOCIETY. SERIES II.

Vol. i.

Roman Inscription at Ilkley. P. 357.

Vol. ii.

The Housesteads Altars. P. 6.

On the Crindledykes Milliaries. P. 88.

Roman Inscriptions from Old Carlisle, Whitley Castle, and Caervoran. P. 158.

OTHER PUBLICATIONS.

Roman Lancashire, or a Description of Roman Remains in the County Palatine of Lancashire. 1883-4.

Roman Cheshire, or a Description of Roman Remains in the County of Cheshire. 1886. 4to.

ROBERT MOWAT, F.S.A.

Correspondent, 1885.

Robert Mowat of the Rue des Feuillantones, Paris, major of artillery in the French Army, officer of the Legion of Honour, holder of the English Crimea medal, and honorary Fellow of the Society of Antiquaries of London (elected June 17, 1888), was for some time Editor of Le Bulletin Epigraphique, and Secretary of the National Society of Antiquaries of France. He was also a member of several numismatic and archaeological societies. He contributed several valuable papers and notices to our Society, and died in 1912. The following is a list of them:—

ARCHAEOLOGIA AELIANA. SERIES II.

Vol. xiii.

Meaning of the Names Procolitia, Petrianae, Classiana, connected with some Roman Auxiliary Troops in Britain. P. 371.

Vol. xvii.

The Names of the Emperor Carausius, as revealed by the Carlisle Roman Milestone. Illustrated. P. 281.

Vol. xxv.

On Altars to Neptune and the Ocean. Illustrated. P. 136.

IBID. SERIES III.

Vol. iii.

The Capricorn of the Second Legion surnamed Augusta, and the Goat of the 23rd Regiment Royal Welsh Fusiliers. Illustrated. P. 213.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE SOCIETY. SERIES II.

Vol. ii.

The Original Name of Lancaster with Remarks on Similar Denominations. P. 13.

Vol. v.

Remarks on the Death of Mr. C. Roach Smith, F.S.A. P. 25.

Three Altars Consecrated to the Ollotot Goddesses at Binchester. P. 127.

IBID. SERIES III.

Vol. i.

The Benwell Altar to Antenociticus. P. 176.

DENNIS EMBLETON, M.D.

1886.

Dr. Embleton, a distinguished physician, antiquary and naturalist, was born in Newcastle, October 1, 1810. A son of Thomas Embleton, some time of East Chevington, he was educated at the school of the Rev. George Newby, at Witton-le-Wear, and, in 1827, began his apprenticeship to the medical profession under Thomas Leighton, a well-known Newcastle practitioner. Having, in due course, completed his studies in London, he was admitted a member of the Royal College of Surgeons in 1834, and the following year became a licentiate of the Society of Apothecaries. Then followed two years of travel on the Continent, during which period he gained the degree of M.D. at Pisa and attended medical courses in Paris. In 1837 he commenced practice in Newcastle. Within a year thereafter he was appointed lecturer in anatomy and physiology, in 1852 reader in medicine at Durham University, where, in 1853, he received his diploma of M.D., and in 1857 he became a Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians. From 1858 to 1872 he was the representative of the University on the General Medical Council, while, in 1870, the School of Medicine becoming closer connected with the University, he was appointed the first professor of medicine and of the practice of physic. He was, moreover, physician to the Newcastle Dispensary, and physician, and afterwards consulting physician, to the Newcastle

Infirmary. His connection with our Society dates from 1886, but he was a member of the Literary and Philosophical Society from 1828, and from 1878 a vice-president, while he joined the Tyneside Naturalists' Field Club at its formation in 1846. He died November 12, 1900, aged 90. During his long and useful life numerous papers and pamphlets on a variety of subjects issued from his pen. Dr. F. W. Dendy, in a memoir of him, with which Vol. xxiii of our Archaeologia Aeliana begins, enumerates sixty papers, reports and addresses on medical subjects alone. These can be seen in the volume referred to, and need not be entered here. Those which relate to Antiquities and Natural History follow:—

ARCHAEOLOGIA AELIANA. SERIES II

Vol. xi.

Unde derivatur Corstopitum. P. 137.

Vol. xiii.

On Certain Peculiarities of the Dialect in Newcastle-upon-Tyne and Northumberland. P. 72.

Vol. xv.

The Barber Surgeons and Wax and Tallow Chandlers of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, with Extracts from their Records. P. 228.

Vol. xvii.

The 'Quigs buring Plas in Sidgatt,' Newcastle, the Swirle and the Lort Burn. P. 84.

Vol. xviii.

Ruins of Buildings once existing on the Quayside, Newcastle. P. 258.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE SOCIETY. SERIES II

Vol. iv.

On a Roman Medicine Weight. P. 35.

Notes on Bones Discovered in Baileygate, Newcastle, and now in the Black Gate Museum. P. 114.

Vol. vi.

On the Discovery of Human Bones, made March 14, 1893, during the Trenching Operations on the Town Moor, Newcastle, opposite Nos. 11 and 12 North Terrace. P. 21.

TYNESIDE NATURALISTS' FIELD CLUB TRANSACTIONS.

Vol. i.

Account of a Ribbon Fish (Gymnetrus) taken off the Coast of Northumberland. By Albany Hancock and Dennis Embleton. Illustrated. P. 288.

Vol. ii.

Presidential Address, March 22, 1851. P. 1.

On the Two Species of Rat in England. Illustrated. P. 103.

On the Short Sunfish (Orthogoriscus Mola). Illustrated. P. 110.

Summary of Observations on the Anatomy of Doris, a Nudibranchiate Mollusk. By Albany Hancock and Dennis Embleton. P. 119

Vol. iv.

Memorandum of the Occurrence of the Skeleton of the Bottlenose Whale (Hyperoodon Butzkoff, Lacépède), and of the Skull of the Grampus (Delphinus Orca, Cuvier), in the Bed of the Tyne. P. 50.

Vol. vi.

Notes on a Tumulus and its Contents at Grindstone Law, Northumberland. By the Rev. Wm. Greenwell, M.A., and Dennis Embleton, M.D. P. 34.

NATURAL HISTORY SOCIETY'S TRANSACTIONS. SERIES II.

Vol. i.

On an Ancient British Burial at Ilderton, Northumberland, with Notes on the Skull. By the Rev. Wm. Greenwell, M.A., and Dennis Embleton, M.D. Illustrated. P. 143.

Notice of the Life of the late Joshua Alder, Esq. P. 324.

Vol. v.

Memoir of the Life of Albany Hancock, F.L.S., etc. P. 118.

On the Vendace Coregonus Willoughbi (Yarrell), C. Maraenula (Jardine and Jenyns). P. 146.

On the Skull and other Bones of Loxomma Allmanni (Huxley) from the Low Main, Newsham, Northumberland. By D. Embleton and Thos. Atthey. Illustrated. P. 196.

Vol. vii.

A Paper on Eggs. P. 43.

Memor of the Life of Mr. W. C. Hewitson, F.L.S. With Portrait. P. 223.

Presidential Address, May 2nd, 1879. P. 241.

Vol. viii.

Note on the Birds seen at Nest House, Felling Shore, in May and June, 1884. P. 219.

Note on the Occurrence of Shrimps in the Tyne. P. 220.

324 THE SOCIETY OF ANTIQUARIES OF NEWCASTLE-UPON-TYNE.

Note on the Capture of Tunnies and of a fine specimen of the 'Bergylt,' or Norwegian Haddock off the Tyne, June, 1884. P. 221.

The Tyne, the Lort Burn and the Skerne. P. 299.

On a Spinal Column of Loxomma Allmanni (Huxley). With Plate. P. 349.

Vol. ix.

A Catalogue of the Place Names in Teesdale. P. 1

Vol. x.

A Description of Stump Cross Cavern near Pateley Bridge. P. 190.

Vol. xi.

Memoir of the Life of John Hancock. With Portrait. P. 1

On the Egg. First Lecture of a Series, with Introduction. P. 253.

PUBLICATIONS OTHER THAN MEDICAL.

Notice of the Life of T. M. Greenhow, M.D., with List of his Publications. 1881.

A Visit to Madeira in the Winter 1880-81. Two Lectures at the Lit. and Phil., Newcastle. 1882.

The 'Three Indian Kings' Tavern on the Quayside, Newcastle. 1888.

History of the Medical School, afterwards the Durham College of Medicine, from 1832 to 1872. 1890.

Local Dialect Dialogues. 1890.

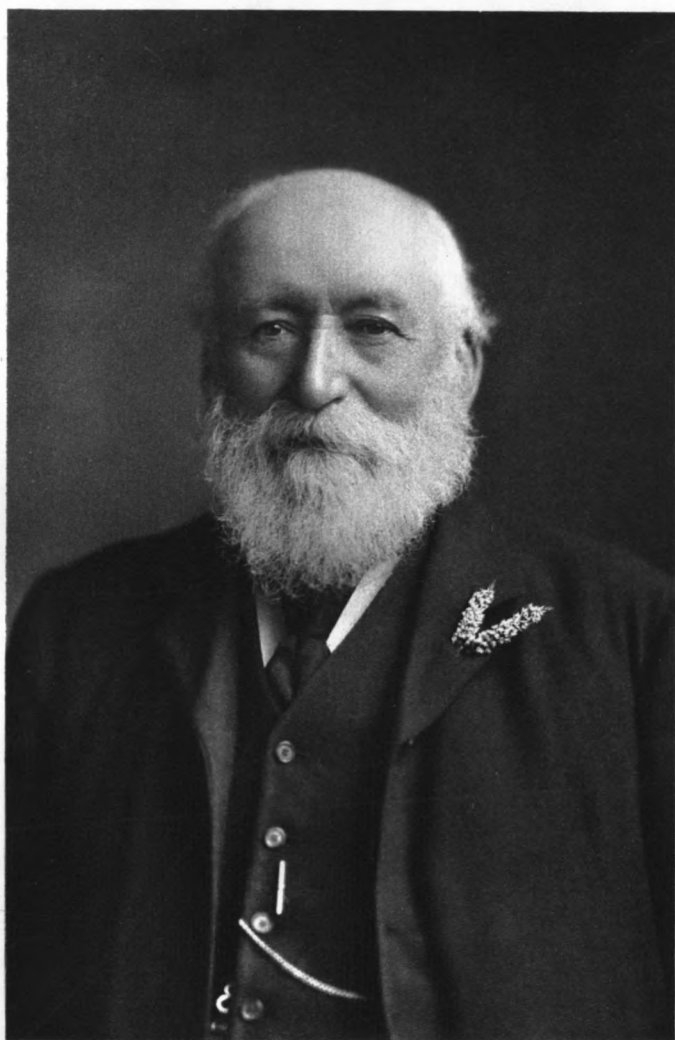

The Newcastle Medical Society a Hundred Years Ago. With Biographical Notices of Members. 1891.

The Barber-Surgeons and Chandlers of Newcastle. 1891.

GEORGE IRVING.

1886.

Born December 27, 1826, son of James Irving, farmer, at Howgillside, Dumfriesshire, George Irving came to the North of England in 1855 as rent collector for the North Eastern Railway. He had previously filled various appointments in Scotland and Yorkshire, and came hither provided with a good equipment in land surveying and the management of landed property. In no long time he emerged from the position of collecting rents, and became an estate agent for the Company. That position he continued to occupy till March, 1906, when he retired, having completed fifty-one years' service, and attained the great age of seventy-nine years. On the 29th of September following he died.

GEORGE IRVING.

Mr. Irving added nothing to our Archaeologia, but took an active part in our meetings, occasionally helped in our discussions, and exhibited, or presented, various objects relating to the history of the past. Thus:—

PROCEEDINGS OF THE SOCIETY. SERIES II.

Vol. vii.

On the Merkland Cross in Dumfriesshire. With Drawing. P. 51.

Vol. viii.

On Excavations at Birrenswark, Dumfriesshire. P. 218.

Vol. ix.

On the Death of James Macdonald, LL.D., a Vice-President of the Scottish Society of Antiquaries. P. 217.

SIR WILLIAM CROSSMAN, K.C.M.G.

1888.

Major General Sir William Crossman was a son of Robert Crossman, of Cheswick House, near Beal, and the Manor House, Holy Island, and was born June 30, 1830. He was educated at the Royal Military Academy, Woolwich, became a Lieut. R.E. in 1848; in charge of Public Works, Western Australia, in 1852; secretary to Royal Commission on the Defences of Canada in 1862; assistant director of works for fortifications in 1874-75; special commissioner to Griqualand West in 1875; inspector of Submarine Mining Defences in 1878-81, and M.P. for Portsmouth in 1885-92. His honours were C.M.G. 1876 and K.C.M.G. 1884. He was a J.P. for Northumberland, a member of the Surtees Society, a Fellow of the Royal Colonial Institute and of the Royal Geographical Society, a member of the committee of the Durham and Northumberland Architectural and Archaeological Society, and an associate of the Institute of Civil Engineers. On the death of his father, he took up his residence in Northumberland, and in 1888 joined our Society, of which he became a vice-president. As soon as he had fairly settled down amongst us he began a series of excavations at Holy Island, and his contributions to the Society related chiefly thereto; at the same time, as a military engineer, he interested himself in endeavouring to solve the perplexing problems of the Roman lines of defence in the district. He died in April, 1901.

His antiquarian papers and communications are as follows:—

ARCHAEOLOGIA AELIANA. SERIES II.

Vol. xvi.

A Bull of Adrian IV relating to Neasham Priory, Co. Durham. P. 268.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE SOCIETY. SERIES II.

Vol. iii.

An Address upon Holy Island, delivered within the ruins, on the occasion of the Society's visit, with the Berwickshire Naturalists' Club, in August, 1888. P. 400.

Documents relating to Holy Island. P. 404.

On St. Cuthbert's Island. P. 408.

Vol. vii.

A Similar Address to our Members at a Country Meeting held at Holy Island in June, 1895. P. 73.

Notes on an old Oak Frame-work near Kylloe Church. P. 173.

Address on the so-called 'Turf-wall' at Appletree, Cumberland, and the Camp at Aesica, during the Pilgrimage of the Roman Wall in June, 1896. Pp. 217, 227.

Address on the Lines of the Vallum. P. 285.

Vol. viii.

On Discoveries at Aesica. P. 89.

THOMAS McALL FALLOW, F.S.A.

Correspondent, 1888.

Thomas McAll Fallow, born in London, November 26, 1847, was the posthumous and only child of the Rev. Thomas Mount Fallow, some time incumbent of St. Andrew's, Well

Street, London. He was educated privately and at St. John's College, Cambridge, where he graduated B.A. in 1870 and proceeded M.A. in 1873. He intended entering into holy orders, and for some time served as a lay helper at Chapel Allerton, near Leeds. Settling at Coatham in Yorkshire, he became a recognized authority in the North of England on old ecclesiastical plate. He was elected a Fellow of the Society of Antiquaries of London in 1888, and in the same year he became a correspondent of our Society. He contributed to the Reliquary, of which he became the editor in 1890, a series of articles on the cathedral churches of Ireland, which were subsequently reprinted in book form. Dying November 25, 1910, he was buried at Coatham. His contributions to our Society's publications were as follows:—

ARCHAEOLOGIA AELIANA. SERIES II.

Vol. xxiv.

Abstract of Deeds in the Muniment-room, Kirkleatham Hall, relating to the chantry of the B.V.M. in Chester-le-Street Church. P. 124.

Vol. xxv.

Obituary Notice of Wilfrid Joseph Cripps, C.B., F.S.A. With Portrait. P. 188.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE SOCIETY. SERIES II.

Vol. iii.

On Blyth Communion Plate. P. 267.

On Darlington St. Cuthbert's Communion Plate. P. 412.

OTHER PUBLICATIONS.

The Swedish Ordinal.

The Cathedral Churches of Ireland.

With other books, papers, etc.

REV. HENRY SLATER.

Correspondent, 1863; Member, 1888.

Mr. Slater was a scholar of Catherine College, Cambridge, where he took his degrees, B.A. 1847, M.A. 1857. He was curate of St. Andrew's, Liverpool, 1848-50, curate of Stanhope and Eastgate, 1850-66, and in the latter year was presented to the living of St. Andrew's, Bywell-on-Tyne, where he died in 1895. He joined our Society in 1888, was made an hon. canon of Newcastle in 1889, and was also a J.P. for the county of Durham. When at Stanhope he contributed to our literature a short paper, which appears in

ARCHAEOLOGIA AELIANA. SERIES II.

Vol. vi.

Early British Remains from Allendale and Weardale. P. 168.

JOHN GREEN WALLER, F.S.A.

Correspondent, 1889.

John Green Waller, born about 1813, was, in his day, a leading authority upon medieval brasses. He was one of the founders of the British Archaeological Association in 1844, and was elected a Fellow of the Society of Antiquaries of London, May 27, 1886. He contributed very numerous papers to the publications of the last-mentioned society, to the Archaeological Journal, and to the Journal of the Archaeological Association. He died October 19, 1905, aged 92 years. His contributions to the publications of our Society were as follows:—

ARCHAEOLOGIA AELIANA. SERIES II.

Vol. xv.

Notes on Some Brasses in the Counties of Northumberland and Durham. Illustrated. P. 76.

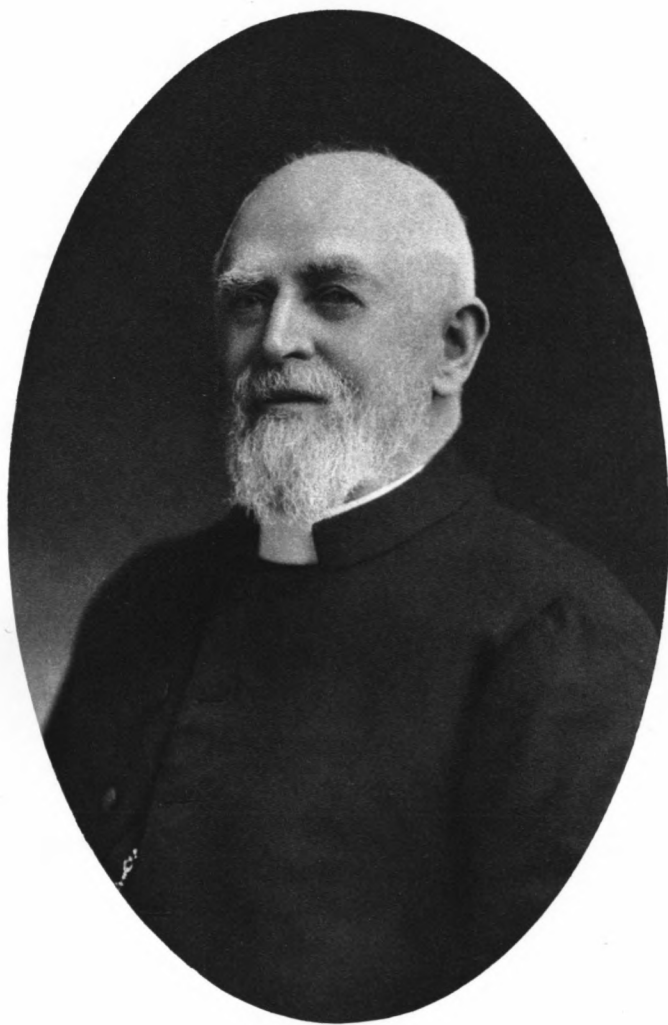

PROCEEDINGS OF THE SOCIETY. SERIES II.

Vol. iv.

On the Thornton Brass. P. 171.

OTHER PUBLICATIONS.

On a Brass at Bishop Auckland, in the Proceedings of Society of Antiquaries of London, Series II, vol. xiii, p. 66.

REV. JOHN WALKER.

ROBERT LAING, M.R.C.S.

1890.

Robert Laing, born at Whitfield in Northumberland, October 29, 1843, received his early education at the elementary school at Blueback near that place; but on his father's appointment as steward at Jesmond to Sir W. G. Armstrong (afterwards Lord Armstrong), he was placed under Dr. Snape at Newcastle Grammar school. After leaving school he entered the drawing office of the Elswick firm, but was afterwards entered at the Newcastle College of Medicine; where between the years 1865 and 1868 he took medals for botany, anatomy, physiology, dissections, midwifery, medical jurisprudence and medicine. He qualified as a member of the Royal College of Surgeons of England and as a Licentiate of the Royal College of Physicians, Edinburgh, in 1869. After practising in the City Road, Newcastle, for a short time, he established himself at Blyth, when he died October 8, 1912. He became a member of our Society in 1890 and contributed to its publications:—

ARCHAEOLOGIA AELIANA. SERIES II.

Vol. xv.

Notes on the Tarnset-burn Skeleton. P. 51.

REV. JOHN WALKER.

1891.

The Rev. John Walker, born February 10, 1837, at Gigg, a hamlet in the parish of Bury, in Lancashire, son of James Walker, was educated at St. Bees College in Cumberland, and was ordained deacon in 1865 and priest in the following year. After serving as curate in various parishes in Northumberland and in Cheshire he was presented in 1880 to the desirable rectory of Whalton, where the remainder of his useful life was spent.

Elected an early member of the Durham and Northumberland Architectural and Archaeological Society, he joined the Berwickshire Naturalists' Club, in 1878, and our Society in 1891, was appointed in 1897 an honorary canon of Newcastle, and in 1902 rural dean of Morpeth deanery. He died at Whalton rectory, June 22, 1910. His contributions to the publications of the Society were as follows:—

ARCHAEOLOGIA AELIANA. SERIES II.

Vol. xxv.

The Midsummer Bonfire at Whalton. P. 181.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE SOCIETY. SERIES III.

Vol. iii.

On Whalton Church. P. 269.

HISTORY OF THE BERWICKSHIRE NATURALISTS' CLUB.

Vol. xvi.

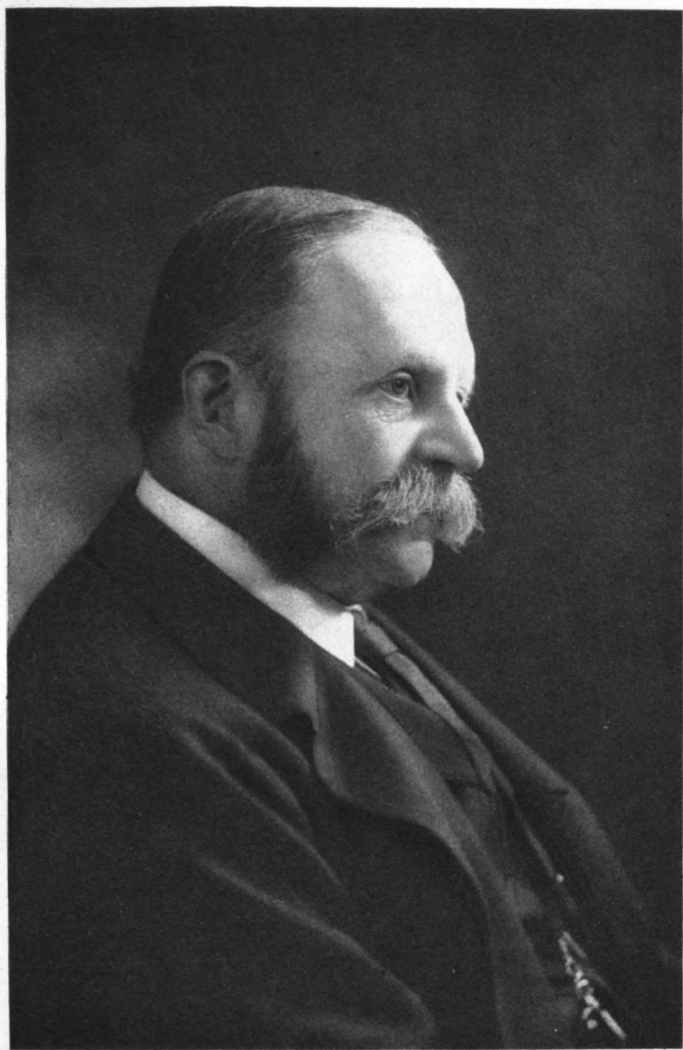

Presidential Address to the Berwickshire Naturalists' Club, delivered October 13, 1897. P. 133.

Reports of Various Meetings of the Berwickshire Naturalists' Club in the year 1897. Pp. 137, 149, 152, 156, 158.

WILFRID JOSEPH CRIPPS, M.A., C.B., F.S.A.

Correspondent, 1892.

Wilfrid Joseph Cripps, the author of a famous book on Old English Plate, was born June 8, 1841, the eldest son of William Cripps, sometime M.P. for Cirencester. He graduated at Trinity College, Oxford; was captain and hon-major of the North Gloucester Militia, J. P. for Gloucester and Kent, called to the Bar in 1865, and received the honour of C.B. in 1887. He was elected a Fellow of the London Society of Antiquaries in 1880, and a few years before his death became a member of the London Goldsmiths' Company. In second nuptials he married Countess Helen Bismarck, a relative of the great German Chancellor. He received much assistance in the compilation of his great work above named, from Thomas Sewell, a well known silversmith in Newcastle, Mr. Thomas Taylor of Chipchase Castle, and Mr. Robert Blair, one of our secretaries. He died on the 26th October, 1903, having written for our Society

WILFRID JOSEPH CRIPPS, MA., CB, F.S.A.

ARCHAEOLOGIA AELIANA. SERIES II.

Vol. xv.

A Bronze Grave Chalice from Hexham Priory Church. With Plate.
P. 192.

Vol. xvi.

Old Church Plate in the Counties of Northumberland and Durham.
P. 249.

FRANCIS ROBERT NEWTON HASWELL, V.D.

1898.

F. R. N. Haswell, architect, born in Southwark, London, on March 31, 1834, was a son of the Rev. Partis Haswell, Wesleyan minister. Educated at Taunton College, he came to the north of England and settled at North Shields, where, for a time, he was in partnership with Robert James Johnson. A Fellow of the Royal Institute of British Architects, he became, also, a member of the Architectural and Archaeological Society of Durham and Northumberland, and one of a committee appointed by that body in 1866 to report upon projected alterations in churches with the object of preventing vandalism. He was a member also of the Tyneside Naturalists' Field Club and the Natural History Society of Northumberland, Durham and Newcastle. An early supporter of the volunteer movement, he was one of the original members of the Tynemouth Artillery Volunteers, the pioneer corps of the country. For his services in the movement he earned the V.D. decoration, and was allowed, upon retirement, to retain the title of Lieutenant Colonel. He was a justice of the peace for the borough of Tynemouth, and a frequent attender at our Society's meetings. His death occurred suddenly on the 18th of November, 1812.

Mr. Haswell's contributions to our literature were as follows:—

PROCEEDINGS OF THE SOCIETY. SERIES II.

Vol. viii.

On a Silver Beaker and an Oval Badge of Silver. Illustrated. P. 154.

On a One-handed Vase of Bronze of Roman Date, and a Small Mask of Bronze of the Same Period. Illustrated. P. 240.

On a Pewter Spoon dredged out of the Tyne. P. 256.

Vol. ix.

On Tynemouth Lighthouse, and Barton Kirk in Westmorland. Illustrated. P. 11.

IBID. SERIES III.

Vol. i.

On a Folio Service Missal, printed at Paris in 1683. P. 258.

Vol. ii.

Bishop Cosin's Tract on Transubstantiation and an Autograph of Bradshaw the Regicide. Illustrated. P. 2.

Another Note on the Bronze Vase above named. P. 223.

Vol. iii.

A Plan of theittings in Lanchester Church, and a Receipt, dated March 27, 1813, for a Fine of 10l, Exemption Money, for not serving in the Militia. P. 14.

On an Altar Slab in Aycliffe Church. P. 100.

On Heighington Church, Durham, and Compton Church, Surrey. Illustrated. P. 192.

On a Font in St. Martin's Church, Exeter. Illustrated. P. 236.

Vol. v.

On an Old Tower at Earsdon. P. 138.

JAMES PIGOT PRITCHETT.

1901.

James Pigot Pritchett, the younger, born at York, May 14, 1830, son of James Pigot Pritchett of York, architect, was educated at St. Peter's school in that city and, having qualified, established himself in Darlington as an architect and surveyor. He became a member of our Society in 1901; and died September 22, 1911. His contributions to the publications of the Society were

ARCHAEOLOGIA AELIANA. SERIES II.

Vol. xxiv.

On Discoveries in the Chapel at Raby Castle. With Plates. P. 65.

BRITISH ARCHAEOLOGICAL ASSOCIATION JOURNAL.

Vol. xliii.

The Works of the Nevils Round Darlington. With Plans. P. 217.

Notes on Places visited during the Congress of the Archaeological Association of 1886. P. 234.

Vol. xlvi.

The Tomb of Joan Beaufort, Countess of Westmorland. P. 111.

Vol. xlviii.

Selby Abbey Church. With Plates. Pp. 93 and 285.