LIBRARY
OF THE
SOCIETY OF ANTIQUARIES
OF
NEWCASTLE UPON TYNE

Each member is entitled to borrow from the Library such books as he may require, but so that there are not more than six volumes issued to him and unreturned at any one time.

Each item borrowed must be recorded in the register provided, together with the dates of borrowing and return.

No volume may be kept by a member for more than two calendar months without the previous consent of the Librarian.

All books must, for the purpose of examination, be returned to the Library on or before the Wednesday preceding the January Meeting. All books shall remain in the Library from the Wednesday preceding the January Meeting until after that Meeting.

Manuscripts and books of special value are not allowed to circulate without the previous permission of the Library Committee, to obtain which, application should be made, in writing, to the Librarian.

The Librarian must be notified at once of any volume lost or damaged. He will require that it be replaced or restored or its value paid to the Society by the member so losing or damaging it.
