ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Acknowledgments are made to the authorities of the British Museum for the photograph reproduced as Plate I, 1; to the University of Newcastle jointly with the Society for that reproduced as Plate I, 2; to the Society of Antiquaries of Scotland for permission to reproduce the illustration which is used as the second figure in article VI; to the Archæological Institute for the illustration used as figure 5 in the same article; and to the University of Newcastle for the photograph of the flint arrowhead reproduced on Plate XVI.

The illustration of the gold finger ring on Plate XII is from an original photograph by Kenneth Graham taken by kind permission of His Grace the Duke of Northumberland.

The thanks of the Society are also given to the University of Newcastle for the blocks for the illustrations to Museum Notes and to Dr. J. D. Cowen for a donation of £10 towards the cost of illustrations.

EDITORIAL NOTE

For the guidance of authors the following regulations have been made:

1. All papers submitted for consideration must be clearly typed, double-spaced on quarto pages, with all references filled in ready for printing, subject only to correction of printer's errors.
2. These papers, if accepted, must be in the hands of the Editor by 1st March each year, otherwise they cannot be included in that year's volume.
3. If more papers are accepted than can be printed in any one year, the Editor will decide as to which shall have priority.
4. Authors receive twenty-five free copies of their papers. More copies can be had at cost price if ordered at proof stage.
5. Line illustrations will normally be reproduced in the text as figures. Line drawings should be of such a proportion as will reduce to a finished size within the limits of $6\frac{1}{2} \times 4$ inches.

To save repetition some commonly used abbreviations are given below.
