

2005. Eunice's 'Florence Nightingale cap' may have been misused during the war, but she always reflected the standards it represented -- something to bear in mind perhaps in these more relaxed days of contract cleaning, disposable everything and MRSA.

Sheila Everard. Compiled from anecdotes and help from Joan Longuet Higgins (sister), Dr. Maureen Duggan, Dr. Joyce Lowe, Dr. Alison Redmayne and Mavis Preston.

ORDINARY MEMBERS:

Dr H.B.Goodall, died 19 September 2006.

Mrs S.A.Richards, born 1910, died 2 August 2007. Anne Richards was the widow of Professor Paul W.Richards, author of "The Tropical Rain Forest".

Our sympathy goes to their families and friends.

* * * * *

Corrections of the April 2007 issue

In the article on IFE FRUIT BATS the botanical names should read (p.45, lines 7-10): Ficus mucoso, Bombax buonopozense, Sterculia tragacantha, Triplochiton scleroxylon, Antiaris africana, Elaeis guineensis, Daniellia ogea, Cola gigantea.