Dear Sir,

re: NEW CENTRAL PREMISES - SOUVENIR.

With reference to our conversation over the telephone the other day respecting the matter in connection with the Sheffield Castle prepared by our late esteemed friend Mr. Drury, I understand that the copy has been handed to you by Mrs. Drury but as it is incomplete, you are prepared to write whatever additional matter may be necessary, and you will obtain the photographs which will be necessary to illustrate the copy.

I have been in communication with Mr. E. Topham, manager of the Publications department of the Co-operative Union Ltd., who is responsible for the arrangement and preparation of the Souvenir referred to, and I am informed that he is in touch with you in regard to the matter.

In the circumstances, therefore, I shall be glad if you will complete the copy at your earliest convenience, so as to obviate any undue delay. As regards Mr. Bingham and the matter which he has prepared, I shall be able to use this in the pages of our local monthly journal.

Awaiting the favour of a line from you in due course,

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

Dear Mr. Armstrong,

I returned this morning from a few days holiday in Whitby, and was glad to receive your letter.

You will be greatly relieved to find your new district and office to your liking, and I hope you will be very happy and successful there.

I shall be delighted to see you any time you come up here, and if Saturday afternoon is the most suitable time for you, I shall be glad to come down and meet you.

In the meantime I am sending you the objects from Sheffield Castle collection which you desire to sketch for the report in the Hunter Transactions.

Mrs Baggaley and Phil have enjoyed their holiday very much, and the latter has today entered King Edward VII School, so I expect to hear something of his new experience when I get home tonight.

It is good to learn that Creswell still provides finds of interest and importance, and I hope to be able to visit you at work there sometime when convenient.

With kindest regards,

Yours sincerely,
