

October 15th, 1927.

The Lord Mayor of Sheffield.

Dear Lord Mayor,

Sheffield Castle.

The Committee of the Hunter Archaeological Society at a meeting held yesterday, unanimously passed the following resolution :-

This Committee desires to bring to the notice of the Lord Mayor a resolution passed at this meeting and forwarded to the Brightside and Carbrook Co-operative Society, as follows :-

This Committee is strongly of opinion that the remains of Sheffield Castle discovered upon the site of the Societies new premises in Exchange Street, should be preserved in situ, and desires to submit a plan showing a definite proposal for carrying out such a scheme without detriment to your building. The Hunter Archaeological Society will guarantee the cost up to the sum of £100.

A copy of the plan referred to is sent herewith, showing the proposed scheme for the preservation of the Castle ruins and the Society urgently requests the co-operation of the Lord Mayor in this desirable object and desires to assure him of their hearty support in any action he may take.

Hon. Secretary.
