

WANDSWORTH CHURCHWARDENS' ACCOUNTS FROM 1603 TO 1620.

COMMUNICATED BY CECIL T. DAVIS,
LIBRARIAN OF THE WANDSWORTH PUBLIC LIBRARIES.

---

IN previous volumes have appeared the preceding portions of these accounts.<sup>1</sup>

The Parish Registers of Wandsworth commence with the year 1603, and the burials mentioned in these accounts are generally to be found entered in the Registers.

The steeple was repaired at the instance of Queen Elizabeth, and the churchwarden Jasper Dring gives a detailed account of the materials used.

On page 45 "shreedes for size" is a reminder of the old plan of boiling down strips and cuttings of parchment to make size.

The King's Arms are painted on a board in 1605-6 and hung in the church.

Several entries refer to the large tree in the churchyard under which the churchwardens place a seat.

"Stoole-ball players" are fined in 1608-9.

The hour-glass provided in 1560-1 appears to have disappeared, so in 1609-10 a fresh one is obtained at a cost of x<sup>d</sup>; this does not last so long as its predecessor, for in 1618-19 another is purchased for vj<sup>d</sup>; yet the year before a new clock has been bought for vj<sup>li</sup>.

Protection against fire is effected by the purchase of two dozen buckets, a great hook and ladders, in 1613-14.

A new reading desk and pulpit are put up in 1614-15; possibly the pulpit now in use was then erected.

A new Communion cup, double the weight of the old one, is purchased in 1616-17.

In 1618-19, mention is made of the Armour kept at the charges of the parish.

Robert Allen is vicar during this period. His signature occurs on page 73, when John Chersley is chosen clerk of the parish, vice Snow, deceased.
