

INVENTORIES OF THE GOODS AND ORNAMENTS OF THE CHURCHES IN THE COUNTY OF SURREY IN THE REIGN OF KING EDWARD THE SIXTH.

THE Seventh Report of the Deputy Keeper of the Public Records, dated the 30th of March, 1846, in the Appendix II. No. 10, will be found peculiarly to claim the attention of the antiquary. It is headed:—

A CATALOGUE, topographically arranged, of the INVENTORIES of the GOODS and ORNAMENTS in the several CHURCHES and CHAPELS of the REALM, as they were found by the various bodies of Commissioners appointed to make inquiry concerning them, in the sixth year of King Edward the Sixth:—and also of the INDENTURES of the DELIVERY of such Goods and Ornaments as were allowed to remain in the hands of the Churchwardens for the use of the several Churches:—and, in respect of some of the Parishes, of other Documents connected with the proceedings of the Commissioners.

Blue books or public reports and commissions being rather voluminous and tedious to wade through, and not forming a portion of every one's library, I have thought it desirable to put my readers in possession of the authority under which the Commissioners acted for carrying into effect the directions of the Crown relating to the Inventories of Church Goods. I have therefore given in full from the Seventh Report copies of two of the commissions found upon the Patent Rolls (together with an extract from one of the originals remaining in the Exchequer). These instruments will show the objects and powers of the Commissioners, and thus serve as a guide to the kind of information which is to be expected from the Inventories.

There had been previous commissions of inquiry of the like nature, in the second year of the reign, and there are intermixed with the documents that arose in executing the commissions of the sixth year, such documents as have been discovered among the Exchequer Records, which arose in the proceedings of the former commissions. But these are very few, compared with those of the later commissions.

The commissions for the seizure of church goods upon which the greater portion of the returns here published were taken, do not appear to exist; but the entries on the Patent Roll containing the commission for the County of Bedford and City of London will show the wording of the documents, mutatis mutandis. They are as follows:¹—

These documents so fully show the nature and object of the commissions, that further remark on the subject is unnecessary.

It is not our intention to occupy more of the valuable space in this volume than we can possibly help, and for that reason we must refrain from going into a lengthy dissertation upon the nature of the circumstances and causes which gave rise to the commission¹ which has furnished us with these documents; to point out their great value and peculiar interest would be a work of supererogation.

A few words on the nature of these "church goods and ornaments" may not, however, be considered out of place. By the constitution of Simon, Archbishop of ¹ See Fuller's Church History, bk. xii. p. 11, quoted by Edward James Edwards in his Church Goods of Staffordshire, in the Diocese of Lichfield, Oct. 1863.

Canterbury (1368), among other things, it was directed that the ordinary should see that each parish had in its church, and kept in proper repair, the following necessities :—

Legend.	Thurible.
Antiphoner.	Lantern.
Gradale.	Bell to carry before the Eucharist at the visitation of the sick.
Two psalters.	Pix for the Eucharist.
Troper.	Chrismatory.
Ordinal.	Veil for Lent.
Missal.	Banner for Rogation days.
Manual.	Handbell, and bells in belfry, with cords to the same.
Chalice.	Bier for the dead.
Principal vestment, with chasuble, dalmatic, tunic, cope for choir, with their appendages.	Holy-water stoup.
Frontal to the great altar, with three towels.	Osculatory.
Three surplices.	Candlestick for the paschal light.
One rochet.	Font with lock.
Processional cross.	Images in church.
Cross for funerals.	Principal images in chancel. ¹

This list will account for the great variety and number of the ornaments and furniture which were necessary for the service of the church, and may reasonably be taken to show, by comparison with the returns here printed, the deficiencies of many of the parishes.

With a few remarks upon the originals from which our text is taken, we shall lay before the Society our contribution to their volume.²

The orthography of the original has been preserved as strictly as possible.

The returns will be found for all the parishes in Surrey, except Hanscombe, Wisley, and Kew; Frimsley and Bagshot being portions of the parishes of Ash and Windlesham.

Names of the Commissioners for Surrey :—

The Marquis Northampton. ¹	Sir Thomas Saunder. ⁵
Lord William Howard. ²	John Scott. ⁶
Sir William Cecyll, Secretary. ³	Nicholas Leghe. ⁷
Sir Thomas Carden. ⁴	Henry Polsted. ⁸

The first series of returns occur in a volume preserved at the Public Record Office, entitled, "Church Goods Com. Surr. Temp. Edw. VI.," which was bound many years since by the late Mr. Caley, and is numbered 511.

¹ William Parr, Marquis of Northampton, elected a knight of the Garter in 1543; he was attainted in 1553, and restored in 1559, and re-elected into the order in 1559. He died Oct. 28, 1571, at Warwick, and was buried at St. Mary's Church there.

² Lord William Howard, eldest son of Thomas, second Duke of Norfolk, by Agnes, his second duchess, was much trusted by Henry VIII. and Edward VI., and employed in various foreign missions; among others to the Czar of Muscovy in 1553 (the first embassy from England to Russia). On March 11th, 1554, he was created Baron Howard of Effingham by Queen Mary, and on March 20th in the same year, appointed Lord High Admiral. He was also made a knight of the Garter, and held the offices of Lord Chamberlain of the Household and Lord Privy Seal during the reign of Elizabeth. He died at Hampton Court, Jan. 12, 1572, and was buried at Reigate. His son, Lord Charles Howard, was the celebrated Lord Howard who defeated the Spanish Armada.

⁴ Sir Thomas Carden or Cawerden, of Blechingley, was a man of considerable importance. He stood high in favour with Henry VIII., Edward VI., and Elizabeth, and during his career held many important offices. Among others he was Gentleman of the Privy Chamber to Henry VIII., Master of the Revels, and Keeper of the King's tents. He was at the siege of Boulogne, where he was knighted. He was Keeper of the Parks and Palace of Norwich, and Sheriff of the county in 1547. He died August 25th, 1559, and was buried at Blechingley. By his will he appointed his wife Elizabeth and William More, Esq., of Loseley (afterwards Sir William More), his executors. From this connection with the More family, no doubt the MSS. here published, and many other papers which exist at Loseley, came into the possession of Sir William More, and have happily been preserved. An account of Sir Thos. Cawerden and many of the papers relating to him will be found in Kemp's Loseley MSS.

⁶ The son of Nicholas Saunder, of Charlwood—was knighted in the 4th of Edw. VI. He was M.P. for Gatton in the 33rd of Henry VIII.; Remembrancer of the Court of Exchequer and Sheriff of Surrey in 1553. He married Alice, daughter of Sir Edward Walsingham, of the county of Kent, knight, Lieutenant of the Tower of London; and from him descended the family of Saunder, of Charlwood, county Surrey. Pedigree in Coll. Arm. 2 D. 14. 152, and Vincent's Surrey, p. 419.

⁶ Of Camberwell; was Sheriff of Surrey in 1548.

⁷ Son of John Leigh, of Addington, by Isabella, daughter of John Hervey, and husband of Sir George Hervey, kt. See his pedigree in Berry, p. 102.
