Mesolithic settlement near Stonehenge: excavations at Blick Mead, Vespasian's Camp, Amesbury, by David Jacques and Tom Phillips, 7–27 (microliths found include hollow-based 'Horsham' points usually found in the Wealden districts of Sussex, Kent, Surrey and Hampshire, may be representing long-distance movement)

Excavations at South Marston Industrial Park, (Plots D, E and F), Swindon, Wiltshire, by Portia Askew et al, 50–65 (finds include a burnt sherd of Alice Holt/Farnham ware with combed decoration dated to AD 200–400)

Two graves near Old Sarum: further insight into early Anglo-Saxon settlement around Salisbury, by Bruce Eagles et al, 77–90 (compared with grave 229 in the cemetery at Mitcham, Surrey, probably of the same date)

A medieval iron production site at Little Snarlton Farm, East Melksham, Wiltshire: excavations in 2010, by Alan Hardy and David Dungworth, 118–45 (one sherd of Tudor green ware, probably 15th–16th century date, found)

Tudor water engineering at Bedwyn Brail: the Duke of Somerset's mansion, by Graham Bathe et al, 163–80 (compared to the system at Nonsuch)
