

tastes left little to be desired. His mother lived with him during her widowhood until her death, in the 97th year of her age.

Mr. Waller's useful and happy life was peacefully ended on the 19th October, 1905, after a short illness, in his 93rd year. It is given to few men to attain distinction at so early an age, and to win the friendship of so many generations of fellow students.

I regret to have to add that Mrs. Edmonds only survived her brother a few months.

CROPPENBERGH FAMILY.

I should be much obliged if anyone could give me information as to the marriage of Ann Croppenbergh and George Sherard. She was the daughter of a London merchant, and her husband, George Sherard, was born in 1626, and their eldest son, William, in 1652.

Mary Croppenbergh (mother to Ann), in her will (proved 1652), describes herself as a widow. Any information as to Ann Croppenbergh's father also would be welcome.
