RESCUE is publishing a survey of the present state of archaeological knowledge of London entitled The Future of London's Past which is now available (post-free) for £3.50 (£2.50 to RESCUE members).

We are a charitable trust that seeks to raise money to make the public aware of the rapidly accelerating destruction of our heritage and to help record the past before it is too late.

We are sure you will want to contribute to RESCUE and its work. For further details please contact Anne Goldhawk at RESCUE, 25A The Tything, Worcester.

Tomorrow maybe too late.
