MEDIEVAL CERAMICS

All general correspondence concerned with the Medieval Pottery Research Group should be sent to the Hon. Secretary, Mr Stephen Moorhouse, 27 Moorside Terrace, Drighlington, Bradford BD11 1HX, West Yorkshire, England.

All subscriptions and orders for Medieval Ceramics should be sent to the Hon. Treasurer, Mr M. McCarthy, Dept. of Leisure Services, Carlisle City Council, Civic Centre, Carlisle, Cumbria, England. Please write for details of back numbers.

Notes for contributors

Articles for submission to Medieval Ceramics should be sent to Dr Ailsa Mainman, or Ms Catherine Brooks, York Archaeological Trust, 1 Pavement, York YO1 2NA, North Yorkshire, England. Articles must be received not later than 31st October for consideration for the volume published the following year.

Manuscripts should not normally exceed 3,000 words in length. One copy of the manuscript should be submitted, the author retaining another. A style sheet is available which should be consulted for details of referencing, illustrations etc. Every contributor is asked to follow the layout described in the style sheet. Each contribution should be accompanied by a brief abstract (100-150 words) summarizing its contents. Ten free off-prints will be supplied to authors on publication of a paper.

Further details, including the style sheet, are available from Dr Ailsa Mainman or Ms Catherine Brooks.
