

EDITORIAL

The editors would once again like to thank all contributors to Medieval Ceramics and to encourage members to send articles, reviews and comments for future issues. Volume 11 also includes a copy of the Constitution of the Medieval Pottery Research Group as requested at the conference in Ireland in 1987.

The Annual Bibliography appears this year as a result of the hard work of Katherine Barclay and all those who assisted her in collecting references. There are still some areas which are better covered than others and any help members can offer to fill these gaps will be very much appreciated. The editors are also grateful to Sarah Jennings for her help with the Bibliography.

The summaries have been translated by Foreign Languages for Industry and the text has been typed with the usual efficiency by Susan Parsons. The bibliography was typed by Ailsa Mainman.

In the course of the next two years the editors of Medieval Ceramics will change. Catherine Brooks is resigning after this volume and Ailsa Mainman will resign after Volume 12.
