

Leicestershire Historian

AN ILLIMITABLE PROSPECT.

The Mayor of Leicester has asked for schemes or suggestions for dealing with the unemployment problem. The Leicester unemployed themselves have directed his Worship's attention to a few of the more obvious needs of the time, to meet which would fully absorb all the so-called surplus labour.

LEICESTERSHIRE ARCHAEOLOGICAL AND HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Founded in 1855

Join the County's Premier Archaeological and Historical Society.....

.....if you have an interest in archaeology,
local history, churches, historic buildings,
heraldry, history or any other topic concerned with Leicestershire's past.

Individual Membership costs only £20 a year and this entitles you to:

- Your own copy of 'Transactions', the Society's major annual reference work for Leicestershire
- Your own copy of the 'Leicestershire Historian' with the best essays and articles from local researchers, and a major review of recent local publications
- Two Newsletters every year to keep you informed about all that's happening locally
- Free access to a fine collection of resources in the Society's Library in the Guildhall
- Attend a season of fascinating talks and lectures for free
- Access to visits, history fairs, guided walks and special events

Family Membership for two or more family members at one address costs £25, Student Membership costs £6

Full members receive all Society publications, students members receive the two Newsletters

If you would like to join the Society, or require further details, please contact The Honorary Membership Secretary,
Matthew Beamish, LAHS c/o ULAS, School of Archaeology & Ancient History,
University of Leicester, University Road, Leicester. LE1 7RH
Tel. 0116 2525234 Email mgb3@le.ac.uk
www.le.ac.uk/lahs

'Connecting history, heritage and archaeology groups across Leicestershire and Rutland'

Editor: Joyce Lee. All contributions should be sent to the Editor,
The Guildhall, Guildhall Lane, Leicester. LE1 5FQ Email joycelee23@gmail.com

Reviews Editor: Cynthia Brown, Leicestershire Archaeological and Historical Society,
The Guildhall, Guildhall Lane, Leicester. LE1 5FQ Email cb@cydfox.net

*Published by the Leicestershire Archaeological and Historical Society,
The Guildhall, Guildhall Lane, Leicester. LE1 5FQ*

Copyright © The Society and the individual authors 2015

ISSN 0024-0664

Printed by Central Print, Leicestershire County Council

Leicestershire

Historian

No 51 (2015)

Contents

Editorial		2
'Joyous to a pitch of Bacchanalian Vivacity': John Nichols as bon viveur, good company and historian of Leicestershire	Julian Pooley	3
'I am that Toad' Serendipity, Subathu and The Tigers: A brief record of Colonel Mark Kingsley Wardle	David Howell	9
'This land belongs to all of us' Unemployment and the Leicester Landgrabbers, 1909	Cynthia Brown	13
Education in Countesthorpe: From Origins to a Secure Foundation, 1706-1919	Emma Roberts	19
The Cradocks of Belgrave Hall, and an inheritance wrangle	Erica Statham	25
Leicestershire Canal Wars of 1785 – Some Further Information	Derek Deadman	29
Leicestershire's First Lost Houses	J. D. Bennett	32
From Berlin to New York via Leicester: The long journey of the Attenboroughs' 'adopted sisters' (Part 2)	Richard Graves	36
Leicestershire: a County of Inland Ports	Bob Trubshaw	43
'Buried Between Factories': Bond Street Maternity Hospital 1905-1971	Shirley Aucott	48
Recent Publications	Ed Cynthia Brown	57

Cover picture: The Pioneer's response to the request from the Mayor of Leicester in 1908 for how to deal with unemployment. (Reproduced with thanks to Ned Newitt.) See page 13.

Editor: Joyce Lee

Published by the Leicestershire Archaeological and Historical Society,
The Guildhall, Leicester. LE1 5FQ
2015

Leicestershire Archaeological and Historical Society