

Leicestershire Historian

LEICESTERSHIRE ARCHAEOLOGICAL AND HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Founded in 1855

Join the County's Premier Archaeological and Historical Society.....

.....if you have an interest in archaeology,
local history, churches, historic buildings,
heraldry, history or any other topic concerned with Leicestershire's past.

Individual Membership costs only £20 a year and this entitles you to:

- Your own copy of 'Transactions', the Society's major annual reference work for Leicestershire
- Your own copy of the 'Leicestershire Historian' with the best essays and articles from local researchers, and a major review of recent local publications
- Newsletters, emails and social media updates throughout the year to keep you informed about all that's happening locally
- Free access to a fine collection of resources in the Society's Library in the Guildhall
- Attend a season of fascinating talks and lectures for free
- Access to visits, history fairs, guided walks and special events

Family Membership for two or more family members at one address costs £25,
Student Membership is free

Full members receive all Society publications, student members receive the Newsletters (in digital format), emails and social media updates

If you would like to join the Society, or require further details, please contact The Honorary Membership Secretary,
Matthew Beamish, LAHS c/o ULAS, School of Archaeology & Ancient History,
University of Leicester, University Road, Leicester. LE1 7RH
Tel. 0116 2525234 Email membership@lahs.org.uk
www.lahs.org.uk

'Connecting history, heritage and archaeology groups across Leicestershire and Rutland'

Editor: Joyce Lee. All contributions should be sent to the Editor,
The Guildhall, Guildhall Lane, Leicester. LE1 5FQ Email editorhistorian@lahs.org.uk

Reviews Editor: Cynthia Brown, Leicestershire Archaeological and Historical Society,
The Guildhall, Guildhall Lane, Leicester. LE1 5FQ Email reviewshistorian@lahs.org.uk

*Published by the Leicestershire Archaeological and Historical Society,
The Guildhall, Guildhall Lane, Leicester. LE1 5FQ*

Copyright © The Society and the individual authors 2018

ISSN 0024-0664

Printed by Central Print, Leicestershire County Council

Leicestershire

Historian

No 54 (2018)

Contents

Editorial		2
'Go home and sit still' - Elsie Inglis and the Scottish Women's Hospitals	Jess Jenkins	3
Religious Revivalism in Leicestershire 200 Years Ago	Alan Betteridge	8
When 'Germany Called the Tune': Music, Liberalism and the Call to War	Mark Gamble	14
Beaumanor War and Peace – Behind the Scenes	Caroline Wessel	20
An Early Medieval Floor Tile from Garendon Abbey	Andy Kirkland	24
Publishing in Nineteenth Century Leicestershire	J. D. Bennett	29
The Leicester and Leicestershire Civil Defence Corps, 1948 – 1968	Jed Jaggard	33
'Though seas divide us, yet our hearts are one': The 1910 Homecoming to Leicester	Cynthia Brown	37
A Memorable Mayoralty: Alderman Sir Jonathan North, JP, DL, and Lady Kate Elizabeth North, Mayor and Mayoress of Leicester 1914-1918	Derek Seaton	43
The Women of Hinckley and the First World War	John Martin and Robert King	49
Working Class Mothers and the Birth Control Movement (1930-1953)	Shirley Aucott	55
Recent Publications	Ed Cynthia Brown	62

Cover pictures: Leicester Suffragettes with banner on Bowling Green Street, Leicester. (Reproduced by permission of the Record Office for Leicestershire, Leicester and Rutland.) See page 3. News of the Armistice, outside the Mercury Office. (Reproduced by permission of the Leicester Mercury.) See page 43.

Editor: Joyce Lee

Published by the Leicestershire Archaeological and Historical Society,
The Guildhall, Leicester. LE1 5FQ

2018

Leicestershire Archaeological and Historical Society