

A PILE-DWELLING OF ROMANO-BRITISH AGE
AT HEDSOR.

A REPORT by Mr. A. H. Cocks on this interesting find has been published in the Proceedings of the Society of Antiquaries (xvi. 7), and it is hoped, with the permission of the Council of that Society, to reproduce it in the next number of the Records.

Meanwhile the things found have been deposited in the Museum at Aylesbury, where a selection of them has been arranged for exhibition, in a table-case by Messrs. F. Sage & Co., which is intended as a sample of what Museum cases should be.
