NOTICE.

As my paper on "The Intra-mural monuments and other inscriptions of Great Marlow Church" is the unfortunate cause of the late appearance of this number of The Records, I desire to let members of the Society know that it is not the fault of our Editor, and to apologise on my own behalf. The following facts will account for the delay that has been occasioned. Acting as Honorary Secretary to the Bazaar in aid of the Fund for the Restoration of the Steeple of Great Marlow Parish Church, held towards the end of July, employed all my spare time for several weeks; and directly the accounts and other business connected with it were wound up, the excavations at Hedsor were commenced. This work lasted over seven weeks, until the end of September, so it was not until October that I could work at this paper; and since then I have been constantly interrupted by other duties, which all required immediate attention.

A. H. COCKS.
