

A: The switchboard for the England's Shipping database.

B: The journey record form.

C: The new battle form was developed to enable more detailed recording of battle events and associated information.

D: The casualties' and source documents forms.