A History of the Manor of Bensington, IN OXFORDSHIRE,

By Rev. M. T. PEARMAN.

THE history of parishes and localities in various parts of England, has of late years drawn much attention, not only among the residents in the locality referred to, but among those, who in these records, recognise material for the greater history of our country; and are glad to study them for details which would be out of place in more comprehensive works.

The county of Oxford is full of historical interest, and yields to the patient student much little-known and valuable information.

Bensington has an early record, and comes into general history in the 6th and again in the 8th century. It was a Crown Manor extending over a large acreage.

In the HISTORY OF BENSINGTON, the Rev. M. T. Pearman has brought together a quantity of valuable details concerning the Manor and its surroundings which will be gladly reviewed by residents and those who are interested in this part of Oxfordshire.

It has been compiled with great care from authentic documents in the Public Record Office and elsewhere, many of which have been hitherto unpublished.

At the end of the work will be found an appendix, which gives detailed information illustrating the History itself: such as a number of Feet of Fines, and several long Subsidy Rolls.

The work is furnished with a useful map, and is dedicated to the Lord Bishop of Oxford.

The work is tastefully printed in old-face type, in demy 8vo. size, suitably bound in cloth. It is published at 7/6; but subscribers who send in their names before the date of publication, will be charged 5/8 per copy.
