List of Figures

Figure 5: Trench 2 plan and sections (scales 1:50 and 1:20)

List of Plates

Photographic survey plates

Plate 1: General view of the development area, looking south-south-east along South Street.

Plate 2: West elevation, looking east.

Plate 3: South elevation, looking north-north-east

Plate 4: Detail of south-west corner, showing steel ties and the cracking and subsidence of the wall. Looking north-east

Plate 5: North elevation, looking south

Plate 6: East elevation, looking north-north-west. Note the small chimney and the metal funnel at the north end of the elevation.

Plate 7: Ground floor of the building, looking south.

Plate 8: First floor, looking south. The in situ mill machinery is visible to the left of the shot, with the cloth grain chute over a hatch in the foreground.

Plate 9: Grain chute on the first floor, over a hatch into the ground floor. Looking north.

Plate 10: Machinery in situ on the east wall of the first floor, looking east.

Plate 11: South wall of the first floor, showing the window and blocked doorway, looking south.

Plate 12: Second floor, looking south

Plate 13: North end of the second floor, looking north to the door and repaired north wall.

Plate 14: Window at the south end of the second floor, showing the cracks evidencing the subsidence of the south wall. Looking south.

Plate 15: View through hatch on second floor, showing the hatch on the first floor below.

Trial trenching plates

Plate 1: The evaluation trenches, looking north from the second floor of the cornmill

Plate 2: Trench 1, looking north

Plate 3: Trench 2, looking west

Plate 4: Curvilinear gully 103, Trench 1, looking east

Plate 5: Curvilinear ditch 108, Trench 2, looking north.

Plate 6: Slot through large pit 203, Trench 2, looking south-west.
