

Boars Tye Barn, Silver End, Rivenhall, Essex.

Outside view of the barn from the south west. High pitched roof and original midstrey. Main doors of porch reduced in height and width. Later lean-to to the east side of porch.

View from the north east showing one of the inserted windows and a mix of modern weatherboard cladding.

View from north west where unpainted boarding may suggest where other buildings have been removed.

View from the south east showing the added lean-to with brick on edge infill between the studs.