FEERING COGGESHALL ROAD TL 82 SE (west side) 3/86 Barn of Feeringbury Farm, 60 metres south- east of Feeringbury Manor GV II Barn. C16. Timber framed, weatherboarded, roofed with corrugated bituminous sheeting. 5 bays with 2 aisles aligned NW-SE with midstrey to NE. Later buildings of no special architectural or historic interest abutting to NW and NE. Jowled posts, arched braces to arcade plates and tiebeams. Edge-halved and bridled scarfs in arcade plates over posts. Jowled aisle ties trenched for Kentish shores, which are missing. Much re-studding with primary straight braces in walls, but main frame is original. Original rafters of horizontal section in mainspan, with gauging holes. High clasped purlins, each collar supported by a single post mounted on the tiebeam, a rare or unique construction in Essex. Intermediate tiebeams and some intermediate arcade posts of later construction.
