The Old Forge, Bedlar's Green, Great Hallingbury, Essex.

Top casting of main truss

Nailed angle struts down to centre of division wall

Vertical studs supporting boarding

Board infill above division wall. Hand painted sign fixed to boarding "The Hop Poles"

Timber louvre roof vent

Top casting of main truss

7" ridge board

Brickwork reduced to half brick above purlin level with centre 9" pillar

Tapered wedges nailed to purlin to locate position of principal rafters

Tapered wedges nailed to principal rafters to lock position in casting

Collar

Cast iron vent set in wall located by lugs to lacing pieces in wall

Air bricks above pillar

Purlin 4" x 3"

Under rafter angle brace from purlin to wallplate

Board fastened through rear wall with three tying rings each ring being of a different design

Vertical cock bead boarding

Lacing pieces in brickwork

Open to through to rear lean-to

Timber floor

Brick floor

Hearth area rebuilt

Cast iron support pillar under wallplate for extra support to main truss

LONG SECTION LOOKING NORTH

HPF.CNV5