

Parsonage Farm, Parsonage Green, School Lane, Broomfield, Essex.

Barn A. View up to gable of southern midstrey showing pigeon box that appears to be a nineteenth century insertion.

Barn A. Small inserted door high in the north gable wall, use unknown.

Barn A. Example of leap board slots at base of midstrey door post.

Barn A. Mousetead mortise in post at midstrey to allow threshing division.

Barn A. Opposing mortise in arcade post for Mousetead.

Barn A. Typical face halve and bridled scarf joint with double pegging and large key peg found in topplates and arcade plates.

Barn A. Outshot to south-east corner of the barn, nineteenth century with slate roof. It has doorways to east, south and into barn.