

Parsonage Farm, Parsonage Green, School Lane, Broomfield, Essex.

Building B. Tack Room. View to north and brick fireplace. The side walls are fully boarded with good wide softwood boards.

The good eighteenth century entry door from the Nag stable has a key lock.

The left side has heavy timber brackets for collars and heavier harness items.

The right hand side has smaller specialist brackets for bridles and other lighter items of harness.

22.CNV The southern end under the window has a timber work bench braced back to the wall.

Above the bench is a secure store cupboard on a board backing with corner shelves.