

Parsonage Farm, Parsonage Green, School Lane, Broomfield, Essex.

Building C. View down stairway from landing. Basket is on top of inserted division wall.

View from living room through door to landing. Note window for borrowed light to stairway.

Dormer window to living room in north roof.

Boarded finish to south roof, plastered finish to east.

High quality eighteenth century roof structure.

This example from store to east of living room.

View to east gable of store room. Boarded floor. Area appears to have been built with area collar height ceiled and plastered.

Reverse view Showing east side of plastered division and good three board door again typical eighteenth century.

