

Extracting Warwickshire's Past

Help uncover Warwickshire's past

If you are currently conducting historical research or want to learn how to go about it perhaps we can help...

Research your local history with the LOCAL STUDIES TOOLKIT

Enhance the Historic Environment Record via the new ONLINE FORM

These developments are part of Warwickshire Museum's exciting new archaeological outreach programme, called Extracting Warwickshire's Past, aimed at getting local communities more involved in the history of their area.
