

Plate 1: View of site prior to commencement of work

Plate 2: Square brick structure within Gasholder No. 1

Plate 3: External sandstone wall [004] of the Exhauster House in the western half of Area 2; looking south

Plate 4: A large concrete 'hopper' [005] recorded to the north-east of the Retort House

Plate 5: Tar Tank retrieved from the Retort House

Plate 6: View looking east of a row of RSJ's [007] and structure [009] comprising of two parallel concrete walls and a red brick pad

Plate 7: Concrete vaulted arch [008], possibly being a flue within Area A2; looking south-west

Plate 8: Sandstone block [010] with a vertical iron bar and concrete wall [011] associated with the Exhauster House

Plate 9: Iron pipe work [015] with 6 outlets retrieved from the Exhauster House

Plate 10: Red brick drain [017] with a sandstone slab top concrete base recorded in the Exhauster House

Plate 11: Tar and Liquor Tank within area A3

Plate 12: Area A4 – view of concrete slab

Plate 13: Four red brick walls [027] built on a 0.8 – 1m thick gas works concrete slab within Area A6

Plate 14: North-east view of the northern end of Area 6 showing the large pipes [028]

Plate 15: View of features [031] and [032] within Area A6 looking south-east

Plate 16: Possible Liquor Stores or Oxide Shed brick wall recorded in-situ within area A8

Plate 17: Gasholder No. 2: two large sandstone blocks laid into the inner face of the red brick structure

Plate 18: Concrete fuel tank base within area B2

Plate 19: Area B2-A: An iron 'shut-off' valve [040]

Plate 20: Walls [043] and [044] recorded within Area B2-A, probably associated with the Booster House