

APPENDIX 10. CUXTON TALK AT MAIDSTONE MUSEUM & BENTLIF
ART GALLERY

ENGLISH HERITAGE

University of Southampton

A public talk –

RECENT STONE AGE DISCOVERIES AT CUXTON

Francis Wenban-Smith

Sat 25 March 2006, 4.00pm – 4.45pm

Maidstone Museum & Bently Art Gallery
St Faith Street, Maidstone

Tel: 01622-602 838

An archaeological dig at Cuxton in 2005 recovered numerous stone tools dating to the early Stone Age, perhaps 300,000 years ago. Cuxton is already known to be an important site, but the new finds are the most spectacular yet. The talk will place the finds from Cuxton in the context of the early Stone Age in Kent, and the recent finds will be on display

Due to limited space, please ring to book in advance

LITHIC STUDIES SOCIETY

BENTLIF
ART GALLERY

MAIDSTONE
MUSEUM